As indicated in the respective Articles of the Agreement, the following provisions form part of the Agreement until all faculty members hired before January 1, 1992, have retired or are permanently under the provisions of Mode II of Article 10 (Workload), whichever comes first, and can be changed only by negotiation and subsequent ratification by two-thirds of the faculty members hired before January 1, 1992, and working under Mode I of Article 10 (Workload), and not by arbitration:

- A. Article 4.4.B., C. and Article 13.1 F. 1. Professorial Ranks;
- B. Article 10, Mode I (Workload): Workload.

ARTICLE 3 RECOGNITION, RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF THE ASSOCIATION3.1 RECOGNITION & RIGHTS

The Board recognizes the Association as the exclusive bargaining agent of the members of the Association.

The Association acknowledges that the University possesses exclusive rights and powers to manage the University as provided in the Toronto Metropolitan University Act, 1977 (amended).

The University agrees that it shall exercise these rights and powers in a fair and reasonable manner consistent with the provisions of this Collective Agreement.

3.2 PRIVILEGES

The Board agrees to provide the Association, free of charge, with the use of serviced and furnished office space comparable to that now provided in Kerr Hall South and access to University services on the same basis as if it were a University Department.

ARTICLE 4 HIRING4.1 DEPARTMENT HIRING COMMITTEE

- A. Each Chair/Director of a Department/School shall establish annually, no later than May 15, for the following academic year, a Department Hiring Committee (DHC), for the recruitment and recommendation for hire of all limited-term and tenure-stream faculty. In the School of Law this committee is referred to as the School Hiring Committee (SHC), and the Chair/Director shall be read as “Dean or designate” and the duties and responsibilities of the Chair/Director in this article shall be carried out by the Dean or their designate.
- B. The term of office for members of a DHC shall commence on September 1 and terminate on the following August 31. However, a DHC that has begun a hiring process will see this process through until an appointment has been made or until the Dean has declared the search failed as provided for in Article 4.2.U.
- C. The DHC normally consists of five members. The Chair/Director of the Department/School is an ex-officio voting member of the DHC, although they may designate a faculty member from within the Department/School to act as an agent for the Chair/Director. Two faculty members of the Department/School shall be elected by the tenure-stream faculty members of the Department/School, and the Chair/Director shall appoint one faculty member. Following the required Department/School consultation upon approval of a faculty appointment pursuant to 4.2.D., these four members shall appoint an additional tenured faculty member. If the four members cannot appoint a fifth member, because they are evenly split, the choice between the final nominees shall be made in an election, among the tenure-stream members of the Department/School.
- D. The size of the DHC can be reduced to three or increased to seven as noted below. In small Departments/Schools the DHC may have only three members, composed of the Chair/Director or designate plus one elected and one appointed member. Where a seven member DHC is deemed appropriate, it will consist of the Chair/Director or designate, four elected members, one member appointed by the Chair/Director, and a seventh member selected by the first six. Normally, any Department/School with 10 or more tenure-stream faculty will have at least five members on the DHC, and any Department/School with more than 25 tenure-stream faculty will have seven members on the DHC.
- E. All members of this committee are required to adhere to the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI). The Chair/Director, in making their appointment to the DHC shall consider the University’s equity, diversity and inclusion obligations including those concerning equity-seeking groups, and the fields of expertise of the DHC. In a brief written report to the Dean, the Chair/Director shall explain how the appointments to the committee will serve these goals, including the Equity Advocate selected/elected by the Committee. This report will be completed and sent to the Dean no later than June 15 of every year. The Dean will forward a copy of this report to the Department/School, the Office of Equity and Community Inclusion, the Association and to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.

- F. Normally, the member appointed by the Chair/Director and the member chosen by the elected and appointed members of the DHC will be members of the Department/School. In exceptional circumstances, where necessary for equity or expertise reasons, one member of the DHC may come from outside the Department/School. In circumstances of an interdisciplinary hiring (where a new faculty hire is approved whose duties will include teaching in and being affiliated with an interdisciplinary program), one member of the DHC may come from outside the Department/School.
- G. Elections to the DHC are always by and from the tenure-stream faculty members of the Department/School and shall be completed before the Chair/Director makes their appointment.
- H. No more than one pre-tenure faculty member may serve on the DHC, and only when elected, not appointed. Probationers in their first year of service are not eligible. If the Committee has only three members, the only elected member shall not be a pre-tenure faculty member. A member may not be appointed to the DHC for more than two successive terms. Those terms may, however, be preceded or followed by election to the DHC.
- I. No later than May 31 of every year, the Chair/Director shall arrange a meeting of the newly constituted DHC at which the members of the new DHC shall elect from amongst themselves a member to serve as Chair of the DHC. Members of the fully constituted DHC will also select/elect an Equity Advocate from among the members on the DHC. As set out in 4.1.E, the newly elected Chair of DHC shall report the names of the members of the DHC, and the name of the person elected as Chair of the DHC, and the name of the Equity Advocate, to the Dean, to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, and to the President of the Association, no later than June 15.
- J. The University shall arrange a training workshop to be held each year in September or October for all DHC members. The workshop shall be conducted jointly by the Association and the University and shall include instruction by the University with regard to the DHC's legal obligations and duties under the Agreement and University policies, including the values of equity, diversity and inclusion. Any DHC member who does not attend the workshop(s) shall not be eligible to be a member of a DHC, except when a member who missed the workshop provides a reasonable explanation for their absence to their Chair/Director (or where it is the Chair/Director of the Department/School who is concerned, to the Dean) in which case the training will be provided. In addition, the University will deliver training workshops for Equity Advocates and for any DHC members who also wish to attend.

- K. Should a member need to be replaced for any reason, the replacement shall be chosen in the same manner, that is, by either election or appointment, as the person being replaced. Where necessary, the new member shall attend a special workshop, under the conditions outlined in this Article.
- L. Each DHC will have assigned to it, member(s) of the University's Human Resources Department in order to assist the DHC in complying with the terms of this Agreement with respect to the recruitment and selection of faculty members. The Human Resources Department representative(s) will not participate in the deliberations of the DHC and will not attend interviews with potential faculty members. The contribution of the Human Resources Department representative(s) will consist of guidance, coaching and training of members of the DHC, where both the members of the DHC and the Human Resources Department representative(s) see such as appropriate, on the terms of the Agreement and University policy, as they apply to the activities of the DHC.

4.2 RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION PROCESS

- A. Each new faculty member shall be appointed by the University on the recommendation of the Dean. The appointment will have been recommended to the Dean by the DHC.
- B. The DHC will take into account the University's strong commitment to fostering equity, diversity and inclusion within its community, in all aspects of the recruitment efforts including establishing equity goals for the search, developing a diversity outreach strategy and considering ways to remove barriers to candidates in the recruitment process. The Office of the Vice-President, Equity and Community Inclusion (OVPECI) shall provide to the Equity Advocate and the committee chair relevant information from the University's Employee Diversity Self-ID Data.
- C. When approval has been given for a faculty appointment, the Chair of the DHC shall convene the DHC which shall conduct a search for a suitable appointee.
- D. The DHC will consult with the faculty members in the Department/School to the extent possible about the requirements of each respective position. Following this consultation, the DHC will develop a draft profile for each position and circulate it to members of the Department/School for their comments. The profile is then submitted by the DHC to the Dean who approves the profile for inclusion in the advertisement for the position. Once the Dean has approved the profile(s), the members of the DHC shall select an additional faculty member, as per 4.1.C. This additional faculty member shall be chosen based on expertise relevant to the approved profile(s). The name of the person selected shall be provided to the Dean, to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and to the President of the Association.

- E. The DHC shall search actively for the strongest possible candidate pool, where strength is measured in all possible dimensions relevant to an academic appointment, including equity, diversity and inclusion.
- F. The advertisement for the position will normally be placed at least in University Affairs and the CAUT Bulletin and it must be posted on the University's website. The DHC is encouraged to place the advertisement in other sites that are appropriate to the discipline and to its outreach and equity goals. The advertisement shall state the Department/School, the expected rank of the appointment, whether it is a limited-term or tenure-stream appointment, preferred qualifications and other pertinent details.
- G. Limited-term and tenure-stream appointments shall be posted separately.
- H. All advertisements shall stipulate that the position falls under the Faculty Association jurisdiction, and shall include a link to this Agreement, a link to the Faculty Association's website, and a link to the University's Faculty Association Benefits Summary.
- I. Notwithstanding the right of individual committee members to seek advice from the Human Resources representative or a representative of the Association, only the Chair of the DHC is authorized to communicate, as appropriate, on behalf of the DHC.
- J. The DHC shall make the decision as to which candidates are to be placed on the "preferred candidates' list".
- K. The curricula vitae of the preferred candidates are made available to all faculty members in the Department/School and to the Dean.
- L. Those on the preferred candidates' list shall be invited for an interview with the DHC and they will also make a presentation to which individuals associated with the Department/School (faculty, instructors, staff, undergraduate and graduate students) are invited. They may meet with other groups or individuals. Where a new faculty hire is approved whose duties will include teaching in and being affiliated with an interdisciplinary program, those on the preferred candidates list will be invited to meet with the Director of the interdisciplinary program, and members of the interdisciplinary program will be invited to attend the candidate's presentation and will be among those who the DHC will solicit input from.
- M. The DHC will solicit input from Department/School faculty members who have seen the curricula vitae and/or from people who attended the public presentations before making its final recommendations.
- N. Candidates who are members of the Department/School will not be consulted or asked to provide input with respect to clauses K., L., and M. immediately above.

- O. If an individual applies to a tenure-stream faculty position and they hold a Limited Term Faculty appointment at the University or formerly held a Limited Term Faculty appointment, the DHC may review the individual's Performance and Conduct File as part of the DHC's consideration of the individual's application. If an individual applies to a tenure-stream faculty position and they hold a Limited Contract (Temporary Instructor) or was formerly a Limited Contract (Temporary Instructor), the DHC may review the individual's Service Record File as part of the DHC's consideration of the individual's application.
- P. The DHC shall provide a written report to the Dean, including:
1. A brief account of the recruitment process.
 2. A brief statement on how equity, diversity and inclusion obligations were addressed including a report section prepared by the DHC Chair and the Equity Advocate regarding how the hiring was consistent with the obligations and suggested practices provided in DHC training and guides.
 3. At its own discretion, either a recommendation of a single candidate or a ranked list of all acceptable candidates, from the preferred candidates' list, along with the curriculum(a) vitae and reasons in support of the recommendation.
 4. A recommendation or recommendations with respect to rank, if other than Assistant Professor, and period of probation, if a reduced probationary period.
 5. Any specific recommendations with respect to conditions for professional upgrading, or other expectations the DHC believes the appointee may be required to meet before transfer to tenure.
 6. If there is disagreement within the DHC, votes (without names) and an explanation of the disagreement.
- Q. If the Dean makes a tentative decision not to accept the committee's recommendation (with respect to the single name or the top-ranked candidate), they will provide reasons in writing, and will request a response in writing from the DHC and/or a meeting. Following this exchange:
1. In cases in which the DHC has provided a single recommendation, if the Dean still rejects that recommendation, the DHC will determine if there is an acceptable second choice. If this is the case, the DHC will provide the Dean with the relevant parts of 4.2.P. above for the candidate.

2. In cases in which the DHC has provided a ranked list, if the Dean still rejects the top-ranked candidate, the Dean may offer the position to the next person on the list, or, if the Dean tentatively decides not to accept that person, they will consult further with the DHC as per this clause.
- R. All candidates recommended must be from the preferred candidates' list. In no case may a Dean recommend a candidate not acceptable to the DHC.
- S. If a candidate rejects an offer of employment from the University:
1. In cases in which the DHC has provided a single recommendation, the DHC will determine if there is an acceptable second choice. If this is the case, the DHC will provide the Dean with the relevant parts of 4.2.P. above for the candidate.
 2. In cases in which the DHC has provided a ranked list, the Dean may offer the position to the next person on the list or may consult with the DHC as per clause 4.2.Q.
- T. The Dean shall forward the DHC report, including a report section prepared by the DHC Chair and the Equity Advocate regarding how the hiring was consistent with the obligations and suggested practices provided in DHC training and guides, along with the Dean's own recommendation, to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, whose responsibility it is to authorize appointments.
- U. Should no suitable candidates be found by the end of this process, the Dean may declare the search failed.

4.3 APPOINTMENTS TO THE PRE-TENURE FACULTY

- A. The tenure-stream faculty comprises those faculty members employed on a career basis (Acting, pre-tenured and tenured faculty). Except for the circumstances described in 4.7.B below, they are appointed on the recommendation of a DHC.
- B. The number of tenure-stream faculty members (excluding those referred to in 4.7.B) across all ranks will not fall below 72% of the approved faculty complement (i.e. the total faculty FTE).
- C. On the advice of the DHC the Dean may recommend to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs that an individual who currently holds a tenured appointment at another recognized university or has commensurate professional experience, be appointed directly to the tenured faculty at the Associate or Professor rank at a salary commensurate with that rank respectively.
- D. The DHC may recommend that an individual who currently holds an untenured appointment at another university be appointed to a tenured position at the Associate Professor level. In such circumstances, if the recommendation to hire is received favourably by the Dean, a dossier needs to be prepared by the applicant in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, including the names of five potential external referees who are tenured faculty members and/or expert in the applicant's discipline. No individual may act as an external referee where there is a real or perceived conflict of interest, or where they have been a research partner or collaborator with the applicant within the past five (5) years, or a supervisor of the applicant at any time or who is an employee at the University or at the applicant's current place of employment. The dossier will be forwarded to the DEC, which will undertake a tenure review as expeditiously as possible. The provisions of Article 5, including the consideration of the dossier by the FTC and the VPFA, shall apply (in addition to the provisions of Article 4), with these amendments:

1. The teaching assessments used are those of the candidate's current and previous institutions.
2. The requirements for year-end assessments and intermediate tenure assessments are waived.
3. The dossier will include components on teaching, SRC and service, but where relevant documentation is not available need not adhere in each particular to the format for dossiers specified in Article 5.

The approval of the appointment will be issued once the tenure process is completed.

- E. Each successful applicant will normally hold the terminal degree typically held by members of the relevant discipline or profession if any, or, where relevant, will have had commensurate professional experience. Relevant qualifications and academic and professional experience will be recognized pursuant to Article 13.1.B. (Starting Salaries Provisions).
- F. Appointments to the tenure-stream faculty under the terms and conditions of this Article for those holding the appropriate terminal degree in their discipline, or equivalent as defined in C above, will normally be to the pre-tenure-stream faculty, at the Assistant Professor rank.
- G. For all pre-tenure faculty members their probationary period will normally be six (6) years.
- H. Reduction in Probationary Period for Former Limited Term Faculty or Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors
 1. The provisions of paragraph 4.3.G immediately above notwithstanding, when faculty members are hired into the Tenure stream within twelve

(12) months after the end of an appointment as either Limited Term Faculty or Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors in the employ of the University, consideration shall be given to a reduction in the length of their period of probation upon recommendation by the DHC and approval by the Dean. In no case shall a probationary period be less than three (3) years and normally the amount of the reduction to the probationary period will not exceed one year of reduction for every two years of such service.

2. The Association shall be notified of any reduction in the probationary period below six years.

I. Reduction in Probationary Period for External Candidates

1. The provisions of paragraph 4.3.G above notwithstanding, external candidates who have a demonstrated record of relevant teaching experience, service and SRC activity at another post-secondary educational institution, or commensurate professional experience, and former Limited Term Faculty and Limited Term (Contract) instructors who have not been employed by the University in the twelve months and one day, or more, immediately prior to the date of their appointment to a tenure-stream faculty position may be granted a reduction in length of their period of probation upon recommendation by the DHC and approval of the Dean and Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.
2. The probationary period may be reduced to three (3) or four (4) years.
3. The Association shall be notified of any reduction in the probationary period below six years.

1. Tenure-stream faculty whose start date is from January 1st to June 30th shall be referred to as “Off-step” hires with respect to the Normal Tenure Review Process.
2. Off step hires with a probationary period of three (3) years will serve an approximate three and one-half year probationary period in order to place them on the tenure review timeline as outlined in Article 5.
3. Off step hires with a probationary period of four (4) years or longer will have the choice to adjust their probationary period by decreasing or increasing their probationary period by an approximate six (6) months in order to place them on the tenure review timeline as outlined in Article 5. Such election will be confirmed in their letter of appointment. Regardless of whether or not they choose to increase or decrease their probationary period by six months, such members will have the option to elect to be reviewed for tenure commencing May 1st of their fourth probationary year.

4.4 PROFESSORIAL RANKS

- A. For faculty members there are three professorial ranks:
 - 1. Assistant Professor
 - 2. Associate Professor
 - 3. Professor
- B. Faculty members who attained the rank and title of Professor under the terms of Mode I shall hold such rank and title until their retirement or separation from the University. This clause forms part of the Agreement until all faculty members hired before January 1, 1992 have retired or separated from the University.
- C. Clause B above, and this clause, cannot be altered or deleted by arbitration.

4.5 ACTING ASSISTANT PROFESSORS

- A. Clause 4.3.E above notwithstanding, where appropriate, applicants without a terminal degree may be considered. Section 4.5 applies to positions where a terminal degree will be necessary for transfer to the tenured faculty. In circumstances in which that degree is not necessary for transfer to the tenured faculty, Section 4.5 does not apply.
- B. In some circumstances, a candidate may be appointed who has not yet achieved the terminal degree which would be required pursuant to paragraph 4.3.E above, but whom the DHC and the Dean reasonably expect will achieve it within no more than a two-year period.
- C. When a faculty member is appointed with the requirement of completing a terminal degree in accordance with paragraph B above, they will be appointed to the rank of Acting Assistant Professor for a maximum period of two years. If they are awarded the terminal degree within the two-year period, they will be transferred to Assistant Professor on the following July 1 at which time their probationary period will begin. Members who receive their terminal degree in the summer, prior to commencement of teaching in the fall semester, will be transferred retroactively to July 1 of that year. The Faculty Association will be notified at the time of transfer.
- D. At the time of transfer to the pre-tenure faculty, the member will receive an increase in base salary equal to one Career Development Increment.

- E. The terms of employment of Acting Assistant Professors are those included in this agreement for tenure-stream faculty, with the following exceptions and clarifications:
1. The time in Acting status does not count towards the members' probationary period.
 2. They have the normal teaching load for a pre-tenure faculty member in their first or second year as appropriate.
 3. They have the service requirement normally expected of a pre-tenure faculty member in their first or second year, as appropriate.
 4. The only SRC requirement is the completion of the terminal degree.
 5. If and when they apply for transfer to the tenured faculty, their accomplishments in the period of Acting Assistant Professor shall be fully recognized.
 6. As per Article 6.1 E, they accrue sabbatical credits at half the normal rate.
 7. They will undergo teaching assessments as would a pre-tenure faculty member, pursuant to Article 5.5. Once the member has been transferred to probationary status these assessments will count towards the total required in Article 5.5. However, they will still be assessed at least once per year during each year of their probationary period. As a result, their number of assessments may exceed the range of 8 to 12 assessments in the light of their Acting Assistant period.
 8. Acting Assistant Professors may use the designation Assistant Professor in their day-to-day activities and correspondence.
- F. If a member in Acting status does not complete the terminal degree within the two year period, their employment will be ended. In such a case, notice shall not be less than six months, or six months' pay in lieu thereof, or a combination of the two.

4.6 APPOINTMENTS: NON-TENURE STREAM FACULTY

- A. Limited Term Faculty
1. Appointments to the Limited Term Faculty may be made to replace faculty members on extended leave, or who have been assigned duties outside the Department/School, or to serve in a Department/School where there are specific Department/School workloads that do not require tenure-stream appointments. Appointments to the Limited Term Faculty may require only the teaching and service components of the Academic Duties and Responsibilities described in Article 10 (Workload). Moreover, the service component may be limited to service within the Department/School and/or Faculty.

2. Limited term appointments shall be for defined periods of not less than one but not more than a cumulative total of four years. These appointments shall lapse at their terminal date specified therein and shall not carry with them any expectancy of transfer to the pre-tenure or the tenured faculty. In other respects, Limited Term Faculty members shall be subject to the terms and conditions of employment of pre-tenure faculty as specified in this Agreement, except that the provisions of Articles 22 through 24 (with the exception of Article 24.B.1 which does apply) and Article 6.1 shall not apply to them.
3. In circumstances where the University takes steps to bring to an end the Limited Term Contract earlier than the originally agreed to terminal date of the LTF contract, the Limited Term Faculty member shall be entitled to the benefits of the notice period set out in Article 24.B.1 (a) and, in addition, a severance payment. The severance payment shall be paid as a lump sum payment and shall be equal to the salary that would have been earned (if any), had the contract remained in effect until the terminal date between the end of the paid notice period under Article 24.B.1 (or pay in lieu) and the original terminal date of the LTF contract.

The terms and conditions of such appointments shall be reported to the Association in the list referred to in Article 2.4.A. (Terms of Agreement).

4. During each semester of their appointment, a Limited Term Faculty member shall be assessed once for teaching competence, normally by members of the Department/School in which the appointment is held. A Limited Term Faculty member shall have the right to one additional teaching assessment in any given semester. This decision to exercise this right shall be indicated in writing to the Chair of the DEC, at least two (2) weeks before the last date on which teaching assessments are allowed for that semester under the provisions of Article 5. Assessment procedures shall be as those set forth in Article 5.5. Limited Term Faculty members may respond, in writing, to any teaching assessment. Such response shall be placed in the member's Performance and Conduct File.
5. Limited Term Faculty shall file a Faculty Annual Report each year. They will not, however, receive a year-end assessment by the DEC.

6. If, during the period of a Limited Term appointment, a vacancy should occur in the tenure-stream faculty, a Limited Term Faculty member may compete for the appointment.
7. Where a member in a Limited Term Faculty appointment is offered a probationary appointment, the University and the member shall be free to negotiate the starting salary of the probationary appointment. Nonetheless, in no case shall the member's starting salary as a pre-tenure faculty member be less than the salary (including retroactive adjustments) they would have received had they continued in service as a Limited Term Faculty member.

B. Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors

1. Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors may be hired to replace faculty members on leave, for special assignments, or for unusually heavy temporary teaching commitments. These appointments will be for a defined period of less than one year. Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors are not members of the Association. Before hiring such Instructors the University will have first considered, by a process entirely within its discretion, making the work available to a faculty member as a paid overload; however, consistent with Memorandum of Understanding 12 (Overload Teaching), the Administration has no obligation to offer overload teaching assignments to faculty members.

C. Limits to the LTF and Temporary Instructor Complement

1. Defining each tenure-stream position and each Limited Term Faculty member as 1.0 FTE, and every 30 academic course hours of instruction by Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors as 1.0 FTE, the combined FTE total of appointments made under A. and B. above will not exceed 31.5% of the approved faculty complement (i.e., the total faculty FTE).
2. Should the 31.5% ceiling defined in 1. above be exceeded, the balance will be restored by the creation of additional tenure-stream positions for the following academic year.
3. Accompanying the first list of faculty members following the list of faculty members referred to in Article 2.4 A. (Terms of Agreement) the University will provide information on the FTE total referred to in 1. above on March 1st.

4.7 APPOINTMENTS: ACADEMIC ADMINISTRATIVE FACULTY

A. Tenured Decanal and Associate Decanal Level Appointments:

A tenured faculty member who assumes academic administrative duties above the level of Chair/Director will normally become an associate member of the Faculty Association while they are so employed in an academic administrative role above the level of Chair/Director. 2. A person in a probationary position who is appointed to an academic administrative position at the level of Dean (or Associate Dean) shall normally teach a minimum of one-half course per academic year in their field of competence and undertake SRC activities, and this will form the basis upon which their teaching and scholarly effectiveness shall be assessed. The tenure review shall be undertaken by an ad hoc committee consisting of the elected members of the DEC, the Chair/Director and one member appointed by the Provost. The appointments to the ad hoc committee shall be made in accordance with Article 5.1.F This tenure review will examine the teaching and SRC performance in the context of the written expectations of the Provost and Vice-President, Academic (or the administrator's superior). The academic administrative responsibilities shall be assessed in accordance with relevant University policy and procedures. Following the recommendation of the ad hoc committee, the steps of the tenure process are as outlined in Article 5.

and obligations of a tenured faculty member, within their original appointing Department/School.

4. In circumstances where a pre-tenure faculty member, who was appointed from outside the tenure-stream faculty to an academic administrative position, resigns from their academic administrative duties, but not from the University, prior to completing the first full term of office, the University will make reasonable efforts to find a full-time workload for that faculty member. If the University is unable to do so, and where the member and the University have reached no agreement concerning the terms of the resignation, the University shall have the right to provide the member with a reduced teaching workload, with reduced salary, at not less than 50% of the normal teaching workload for the Department/School and shall have the right to continue this reduced workload for the balance of the administrator's originally contracted term of office. This paragraph does not diminish the right of the member to be considered for tenure, where applicable, under the terms of this agreement.

4.9 ACADEMIC CHAIRS

- A. An Academic Chair is a distinguished faculty appointment financed in whole or in part by endowment, or by special grant, either from an external source(s) or by the University or by a combination of the University and external sources.
 1. While an Academic Chair appointment normally extends over a period of time, appointments to Academic Chair positions are limited term appointments made by the University. Such appointments may be renewable by the University, depending on the specific conditions of individual Academic Chairs.
 2. An Academic Chair may be attached to a Department/School, to a Faculty, to two or more Departments/Schools or Faculties, to a graduate program, or to a Research Centre.
 3. The process for the appointment of Academic Chairs will be conducted in consultation with the Departmental Hiring Committee of the Department/School/Faculty/Research Centre, although the approval of the DHC is not a precondition to the University making a limited term Academic Chair appointment. However, no Academic Chair shall be appointed to a tenure-stream position without the approval of a DHC as provided for in this Article.
 4. Where the appointment is for a tenure stream faculty position, the Parties agree to the following:
 - a) Where the tenure stream position of an Academic Chair appointment is allocated to a Department/School then the hiring shall be undertaken by the DHC of the Department/School in accordance with the normal processes of 4.2.
 - b) Where a home Department/School for the tenure stream position of an Academic Chair appointment is not identified, it is agreed that the process below will be followed:

- i. An Academic Chair Hiring Committee will be struck by the University Administration which will include representation from the DHC of each potentially engaged Department (or where there are more than three Departments, the three most applicable).
- ii. The DHC will elect their representative member on the Academic Chair Hiring Committee having consideration to the focus of the Academic Chair position.
- iii. The Faculty Association will be given notice in writing that the Academic Chair Hiring Committee has been struck including the names of the Committee Members and the potentially engaged Departments/Schools.
- iv. It is understood that notwithstanding the obligation of confidentiality, DHC members on the Academic Chair Hiring Committee may report back to their local DHC on the progress of the Committee and these reports will be held in confidence.
- v. The Academic Chair Hiring Committee is responsible for identifying Preferred Candidate(s) and when this has occurred it will provide the name(s), CVs and application(s) of the Preferred Candidate(s) to members of the DHC in the applicable Department(s)/School(s).
- vi. The Academic Chair Hiring Committee, in consultation with the applicable DHCs, will then arrange for the Preferred Candidate(s) to make a public presentation to which individuals associated with the applicable Departments/Schools (faculty, instructors, staff, undergraduate and graduate students) are invited. In order to make their recommendation in (viii) below, the applicable DHC will conduct its own interview with the Preferred Candidate(s). The Preferred Candidate(s) may meet with other groups or individuals.
- vii. The applicable DHCs will solicit input from all departmental faculty members before providing its written report.
- viii. Following the DHC's meetings, each applicable DHC shall provide a written report to the Academic Chair Hiring Committee, including:

Approval and/or ranked approval of Candidate(s) with reasons in support of its recommendation(s) with respect to rank, if other than Assistant Professor, and period of probation, if a reduced probationary period.

5. Existing practices with respect to the negotiation of the terms and conditions of employment for Academic Chairs to continue and the University may set special allowances and make special compensation arrangements and offer other recruitment and retention inducements for holders of Academic Chair positions.
6. If the faculty member, at the time of appointment to an Academic Chair, held an appointment in the tenure-stream at the University, they retain the right, upon completion of the appointment to the Academic Chair, to return to their former position.

4.10 APPOINTMENTS - INTERDEPARTMENTAL TRANSFERS OF FACULTY

A faculty member who is assigned courses in another Department/School will remain a member of their original Department/School, unless an authorized permanent transfer is arranged by written mutual agreement of the receiving Department/School and the individual faculty member, or unless a cross appointment is made pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

In the case of an authorized permanent transfer, a written transfer request is to be submitted by the faculty member seeking the transfer to the Dean of the Faculty into which they seek to transfer. If the Dean receiving the request is supportive of the transfer, taking into consideration the academic needs/priorities and positions available within the Faculty, the Dean will forward the request to the Chair of the relevant DHC of the (potential receiving) Department/School, copying the Chair/Director of the Department/School if they are not the Chair of the DHC.

The potential receiving Department/School's DHC, in conjunction with the Department/School, will collegially determine and document a review process, which at minimum should include the circulation of the CV; facilitate appropriate consultation with departmental colleagues; and hold a vote by secret ballot amongst tenure stream faculty in the department/school. Based on review of relevant documentation, and information gathered through the departmental consultation process, including the vote, the Chair of the DHC will make a recommendation regarding the faculty member's transfer to the Department/School to the Dean, on behalf of the DHC.

In considering the recommendation, the receiving Dean will have access to the Performance and Conduct File of the faculty member seeking the transfer. If approved by the Dean and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, that recommendation will constitute the written mutual agreement of the receiving Department/School.

4.11 SPOUSAL APPOINTMENTS

Where a candidate who self-identifies as a member of an equity-seeking group has been recommended for a tenure-track or tenured appointment, and the candidate has a spouse or partner who may be qualified for a full-time faculty appointment, a DHC in the spouse/partner candidate's proposed Department/School will be convened at the request of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs where the following conditions are met:

1. The Provost has authorized a position for the purpose of this clause.
2. A spousal appointment is a non-renewable Limited Term Faculty (LTF) appointment for up to 4 years. The appointment shall not replace positions that have been previously approved - it will be supernumerary and funded above budget – and an LTF hired as a spousal appointment shall not be included in the complement calculation found in Article 4.6.C.

Prior to any spousal appointment under this provision, the DHC from the applicable Department/School must consider and approve the appointment. The DHC will be provided with an application file from the spouse/partner. In deciding whether to approve the appointment, the DHC shall consider all relevant factors including the academic qualifications and experience of the spouse/partner and the needs of the Department/School. The DHC shall provide a written report to the Dean, including its recommendation with respect to whether an appointment should be made, and at what rank.

The Dean shall forward the DHC report, along with their own recommendation, to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, whose responsibility it is to authorize appointments.

At any time during the limited term appointment under this Article, the spouse/partner may apply for any advertised limited term, tenure track or tenured position. If the spouse/partner has met the posted academic qualifications and experience for the position, the relevant DHC shall add their name to the “preferred candidates’ list”.

ARTICLE 5 EVALUATION5.1 DEPARTMENT EVALUATION COMMITTEE

- A. A Department Evaluation Committee (DEC) will be established within each Department/School for the evaluation of pre-tenure faculty members. This will include the coordination and conduct of teaching assessments, annual assessments, intermediate tenure reviews and recommendations with respect to tenure. In the School of Law this committee is referred to as the School Evaluation Committee (SEC), and the Chair/Director shall be read as “Dean or designate” and the duties and responsibilities of the Chair/Director in this article shall be carried out by the Dean or their designate.
- B. By no later than February 15 of each year the Chair/Director of a Department/School shall establish a Department Evaluation Committee (DEC). The term of office for members of a DEC shall commence on September 1 and terminate on the following August 31.
- C. The DEC normally consists of five members. The Chair/Director of the Department/School shall be an ex officio voting member of the DEC although they may designate a tenured faculty member from within the Department/School to act for the Chair/Director. Three tenured faculty members from the Department/School shall be elected by the tenure-stream faculty members. The Chair/Director shall appoint a faculty member from the Department/School. All members of the DEC must be tenured.
- D. The size of the DEC can be reduced to three or increased to seven members, as noted below. In small Departments/Schools the DEC may have only three members, composed of the Chair/Director or designate, plus one elected and one appointed member. Where a seven member DEC is deemed appropriate, it will consist of five members elected by and from the Department/School faculty, the Chair/Director and one appointed by the Chair/Director. Normally, any Department/School with 8 or more tenured faculty will have at least five members on the DEC, and any Department/School with more than 20 tenured members will have seven members on the DEC.
- E. Elections to the DEC are always by and from the tenure-stream faculty members of the Department/School and shall be completed before the Chair/Director makes their appointment. Individuals may not be appointed for more than two consecutive terms; those terms may, however, be preceded or followed by election to the DEC.
- F. When making an appointment to the DEC, the Chair/Director shall take into account the University’s equity, diversity and inclusion obligations, including those concerning equity-seeking groups, and/or the need to broaden the areas of expertise represented within the committee. The Chair/Director shall, no later than March 15, send a written report to the Department/School, Dean, the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the Association, explaining the rationale for the appointment including the membership of the committee as provided for in Article 5.1.G below.

- G. No later than February 28 of each year, the Chair/Director shall convene a meeting of the members of the newly chosen DEC to elect from amongst themselves a Chair of the DEC. Members of the new DEC will also select/elect an Equity Advocate from among the members of the DEC. The newly elected Chair shall report the names of the members of the DEC, and the name of the person elected as Chair of the DEC and the name of the person selected/elected as the Equity Advocate, to the Chair/Director who will incorporate the names into the report referenced in Article 5.1.F.
- H. In any Department/School in which there are pre-tenure faculty members and/or Limited Term faculty members whose teaching must be assessed, the DEC shall meet no later than the end of the second week of each term, in order to determine the schedule for such teaching assessments.
- I. The Chair of the DEC shall provide a copy of this schedule of teaching assessments to the Dean, Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and to the President of the Association, within one week of the meeting of the DEC.
- J. Until there are sufficient tenured faculty members within the School of Law, tenured faculty members from other Faculties with disciplinary expertise may sit on the School Evaluation Committee.

5.2 FACULTY TENURE COMMITTEE

- A. A Faculty Tenure Committee (FTC) is established within each Faculty to consider recommendations with respect to tenure received from the Department Evaluation Committees to assess that the process was fair and that due process was followed, and to make tenure recommendations to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.
- B. The FTC normally consists of six tenured members from the Faculty, plus the Dean who chairs the committee. The Dean votes only in the case of a tie. Normally, the members of the FTC cannot be members of a DEC, unless no other tenured faculty members are available from a Department/School. The members are elected by the tenure-stream members of the Faculty as indicated in 5.2 D or E below.
- C. Normally, members serve for a two year term on the FTC, the terms to be overlapping.
- D. In Faculties with six or more Departments/Schools, no more than one member of the FTC may be from a single Department/School. In Faculties with more than six Departments/Schools, to ensure that every Department/School has representation over time on the committee, elections to the committee will be from the Departments/Schools next on the Faculty ordering established in 5.4.F, in rotating order. When a Department/School has a member on the committee, they will be elected by and from that Department/School.

- E. In Faculties with fewer than six Departments/Schools, there must be at least one member of the FTC from each Department/School. No more than two members of the FTC may be from a single Department/School. In such a Faculty, the Faculty may decide by majority vote to establish an FTC with fewer than six elected members but with at least one position for each Department/School in the Faculty. The decision as to which Departments/Schools shall have one or two representatives shall be made according to the ordering established in 5.4.F. When a Department/School has a member on the committee, they will be elected by and from that Department/School.
- F. By no later than May 31 of each year, the Dean shall have established the membership of the FTC for the following September 1 to August 31. Members of the FTC will also select/elect an Equity Advocate from among the faculty members on the FTC. By June 15 the Dean shall forward the names of the members of the FTC to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the Association.
- G. Normally, a member may not serve on the FTC for more than two successive terms.
- H. When a member of their own Department/School is being considered for tenure, an FTC member may participate in the discussion but may not vote.
- I. For members in the School of Law, the recommendation of the FTC will be replaced with a recommendation by the Dean (using the same timelines as the FTC). The Dean will consider the School Evaluation Committee's recommendations, assess that the process was fair and that due process was followed and make the applicable recommendations to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.
- J. With any necessary modifications, within the School of Law any other functions assigned in this agreement to the FTC shall be assumed by the Dean or designate, respectively.

5.3 FACULTY PROMOTION COMMITTEE

- A. Faculty Promotion Committee (FPC) is established within each Faculty, to make recommendations to the Dean with respect to applications for promotion to Professor and for salary transfer.

- B. All standing members of the FPC shall hold the rank of Professor save that up to one member may be an Associate Professor (where to do so provides enhanced representation on the FPC in either an unrepresented discipline or an unrepresented equity seeking group), and all shall be members of the Faculty for which the FPC is established. There shall be six elected standing members of the FPC.
- C. Normally members serve for two years on the FPC, the terms to be overlapping.
- D. In Faculties with six or more Department/School, no more than one member of the FPC may be from a single Department/School. In Faculties with more than six Departments/Schools, to ensure that every Department/School has representation over time on the committee, elections to the committee will be from the Departments/Schools next on the Faculty ordering established in 5.4.F, in rotating order. When a Department/School has a member on the committee they will be elected by and from that Department/School.
- E. In Faculties with fewer than six Departments/Schools, there must be at least one member of the FPC from each Department/School and no more than two members of the FPC may be from a single Department/School. In such a Faculty, the Faculty may decide by majority vote to establish an FPC with fewer than six elected members, but with at least one position for each Department/School in the Faculty. The decision as to which Departments/Schools shall have one or two representatives shall be made according to the ordering established in 5.4 F.
- F. For each separate case of promotion or salary transfer, the applicant may name one additional member of the committee by September 30, that member to have rights equal to the rights of the standing members, in the consideration of that case. The applicant's appointee must hold the rank of Professor at the University, be an active member of the bargaining unit, and will participate in all FPC discussions regarding the assessment of the candidate against the criteria for promotion and voting on the FPC recommendation.
- G. By no later than May 31 of each year, the Dean shall establish the standing membership of the FPC. Terms shall start on September 1 and end on August 31. By June 15, the committee shall meet to elect a chair. Members of the FPC will also select/elect an Equity Advocate from among the faculty members on the FPC. The chair shall identify themselves to the Dean, and shall forward the composition of the committee, including the name of the Equity Advocate, to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the Association.
- H. Until there are sufficient faculty members at the rank of Professor within the School of Law, faculty members from other Faculties with disciplinary expertise who hold the rank of Professor may sit on the School Promotion Committee.

5.4 PROVISIONS APPLYING TO THE DEC, TO THE FTC AND TO THE FPC

- A. Each DEC, FTC and FPC will have assigned to it a member of the University's Human Resources Department who can be called upon by the committee to provide guidance and training to the committee members in complying with the terms of this Agreement, with other University policies and with applicable laws and regulations. The Human Resources Department representative will not participate in the deliberations of the committees and will not attend committee meetings unless requested by the committee.
- B. The University will arrange training workshops for members of the DEC, the FTC and the FPC, to be held each year. The workshops will be conducted jointly by the Association and the Administration and shall include instruction by the Administration with regard to legal obligations and applicable duties under the Agreement and University policies including the values of equity, diversity and inclusion. The Equity Advocate will complete additional EDI training delivered by the University. A member who does not attend a workshop will not be eligible, for the period until the next annual workshop, to be a member of the DEC, the FTC or the FPC unless the member who missed the workshop provides a reasonable explanation for their absence to their Chair/Director (or where it is the Chair/Director of the Department/School who is concerned, to the Dean) in which case training will be provided.
- C. Members of the DEC, the FTC and the FPC are responsible for declaring any conflicts of interest and shall respond to such conflicts according to the provisions of Article 21.
- D. Members of the DEC, the FTC and the FPC are bound by confidentiality in their deliberations about individual applicants. They may have confidential discussions with Association or Administration representatives on any matter of concern. Otherwise, only the Chair of the committee is authorized to communicate, as specified in this Article, on behalf of the committee.
- E. Should a member of a DEC, an FTC or an FPC need to be replaced for any reason, the replacement shall be chosen in the same manner as the person being replaced. Where necessary, the new member shall attend a special workshop, under the conditions outlined in this Article.
- F. In determining the makeup of the FTC and FPC within a Faculty, an ordering of the Departments/Schools within the Faculty is to be used to ensure Department/School representation over time. A copy of the ordering for each Faculty shall be forwarded to the Association. The ordering shall attempt to balance the interests, disciplines and the sizes of Departments/Schools within the Faculty. This is a permanent ordering which cannot be altered except by mutual agreement of the parties.

- G. Where there are insufficient elected tenured faculty members of the necessary rank to constitute a committee as described above, the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, in consultation with the Association's President, will determine an appropriate composition.
- H. It is understood that the timelines in this Article may extend into the summer period. In such cases, the timelines will be extended into the fall academic term. Nonetheless, when such decisions are delayed past September 1, any resulting CDI payments shall be made retroactively.
- I. All members of these committees are required to adhere to the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI).

5.5 TEACHING ASSESSMENTS

- A. For pre-tenure faculty members, in each of the first two semesters of the probationary period, the faculty member shall be assessed for teaching competence by two different members of the DEC, at least one of whom is an elected member.
- B. If the faculty member does not teach in the first and/or second semesters of their appointment, the requirement of the two assessments shall be delayed to the earliest semesters in which the member does teach. Members who have had a period as Acting Assistant Professor may have any assessments in this period counted towards their total for the number of assessments required for tenure.
- C. After the first two semesters in which assessments occur, assessments may be carried out by any tenured faculty member designated by the Chair of the DEC. In the assignment of teaching assessments, the Chair of the DEC will use their best efforts to ensure a broad selection of assessors.
- D. In the following eight semesters of the probationary period, the faculty member shall be assessed once per semester, for an overall total of 12 assessments. If the faculty member's teaching is deemed to be overall good performance (with no areas of concerns) based on relevant evidence, including the previous year's teaching assessment(s), the DEC may, at its discretion, reduce the teaching assessments for the following year by one assessment. In such cases, the Chair of the DEC will advise the faculty member, in writing, with a copy to the Association. This written communication will be placed in the faculty member's Performance and Conduct File. The total number of assessments would thus range from 8 to 12, subject to Article 4.5.E.7 for those who commenced their employment as an Acting Assistant Professor.

- E. A pre-tenure faculty member shall have the right to one additional teaching assessment in any given semester. This decision to exercise this right shall be indicated in writing to the Chair of the DEC, at least 2 weeks before the last date on which teaching assessments are allowed for that semester under the provisions of this Article.
- F. In circumstances where the pre-tenure faculty member's probationary period has been reduced, the total number of teaching assessments will also be reduced in accordance with paragraph D. above.
- G. Where possible, at least 6 of these assessments will be made by tenured faculty members in the pre-tenure faculty member's field of expertise.
- H. Notwithstanding the above, should the probationary period for a faculty member be extended for any reason with regard to teaching competence, 2 assessments per semester will be permitted for the extended period of probation.
- I. Each faculty member who assesses the teaching competence of a faculty member will submit to the Chair/Director a letter of assessment or a completed evaluation form within 3 weeks of the date of the assessment. The Chair/Director will provide copies of this letter or completed form to the faculty member, to the Dean, to the Chair of the DEC, to the Office of the Vice-Provost, Faculty of Affairs and to the Association within one week of receipt. Except in cases where there are extenuating circumstances, any letter which is not so submitted within 4 weeks of the assessment shall not be included for consideration by the DEC and no extra teaching assessment shall be conducted to replace the one(s) not so included.
- J. Assessments may not be conducted within either the first 2 or the last 2 weeks of the teaching semester. Pre-tenure faculty members must receive at least one week's prior notice for any in-class assessment of their teaching.
- K. If through no fault of a pre-tenure faculty member an assessment of their teaching competence is not done in a given teaching semester, a letter must be written by the Chair of the DEC stating that an assessment was not done of the pre-tenure faculty member's teaching performance and stating the reasons why. The Chair/Director of the Department/School shall place a copy of that letter in the member's Performance and Conduct File (PCF) and copies are to be sent to the member, the Dean, the Chair/Director and the Association. In the case of one or more such letters in the pre-tenure faculty member's PCF, the absence of those teaching assessments may not be used as grounds for extension of the probationary period, or the denial of tenure. No assessments above the number stated in A – D above may be conducted in subsequent terms to compensate for such missed assessments.

- L. By the end of the third week of every semester, the Chair of the DEC must inform each pre-tenure faculty member of the total number of assessments to be carried out that semester and the names of those faculty members conducting them.

5.6 YEAR END ASSESSMENT REPORT

- A. By June 15 of each of the first, second, fourth, and fifth years of probation of pre-tenure faculty members, the DEC shall have met to assess and have prepared a report of the overall progress towards fulfilling the criteria for transfer to the tenured faculty.

Off step hires will receive an additional year-end review in June of their first year of employment despite not having been employed for a full year.

- B. In order to prepare this report, the DEC shall have access, from the Performance and Conduct File of the pre-tenure faculty member, to the letter of appointment, all teaching assessments, earlier year-end assessments, the applicant's annual reports and updated curriculum vitae in an approved University format, the applicant's response (if any) to teaching and/or year-end assessments, to any letters giving reasons for non-assessments and to any material (including record of disciplinary action against the member) placed in the PCF that bears on their progress towards fulfilling the criteria for transfer to the tenured faculty. In addition, the DEC shall have access to any matters of discipline arising out of the applicant's teaching, service and/or SRC performance.
- C. Where an applicant requests, the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs shall notify the Chair of the DEC, who shall in turn notify the members of the DEC, if the applicant and/or the Association has/have filed a complaint and/or grievance with regard to any disciplinary action that has also been reported to the DEC under the terms of this Article.
- D. The year-end assessment shall be submitted by June 15 of each respective year by the Chair of the DEC, through the Chair/Director, to the pre-tenure faculty member with copies to the PCF, the Dean, the Chair/Director and the Association.
- E. Within a further six weeks the pre-tenure faculty member, if they wish, may respond to the DEC in writing to any of their assessments.

5.7 TRANSFER TO THE TENURED FACULTY

- A. Criteria for Tenure
 - 1. Pre-tenure faculty members will be assessed for transfer to the tenured faculty in terms of their demonstrated capacity for, achievements in and commitment to the Teaching, SRC and Service components of the duties and responsibilities of faculty members described respectively in Articles 10.12 A, 10.13 and 10.14. They may also be assessed in terms of

- a) their obligations as faculty members under Article 7.3;
- b) their satisfaction of such conditions of probation as were specified in their letter of appointment; and,
- c) their progress in overcoming weaknesses identified in their year-end assessments, if any.

Assessment shall be based upon the criteria for tenure stated in clause A above. Any deficiencies shall be identified and explained in specific terms, supported by concrete examples, and conveyed in writing in such a way that the pre-tenure faculty member can formulate a response or rebuttal if they desire.

2. The assessment of a pre-tenure faculty member's SRC and teaching will take into account the principles of equity, and the diversity of the academic and professional disciplines, including the diverse career paths, ways of knowing and forms of communicating knowledge.

B. Deferral of Process

1. If disciplinary proceedings are in progress at the same time as the pre-tenure faculty member is being considered for tenure or intermediate review, the employer or employee may request that the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs defer the process until a decision has been taken whether to impose discipline. In cases of tenure consideration, the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs may extend the employee's contract by the length of the deferral where necessary to allow for completion of the tenure process.
2. Should a faculty member, during their probationary period be absent for an extended period due to pregnancy, parental, sick leave or unpaid leave the member shall have the right to defer the normal or final tenure review process and any teaching assessments that would have been carried out during the leave will be carried out during the extended probationary period. Regardless of the duration of the pre-tenure faculty member's leave, the member shall have the right to defer the normal or final tenure review process for a period of twelve months (one year). Any such extension agreements must be put in writing and signed by the administration, the faculty member and the Association.

Upon the pre-tenure faculty member's return from leave, they will be offered the option of a one-year extension to their probationary period to give them more time to satisfy the criteria for tenure. The pre-tenure faculty member will be provided with a specific date by which they must respond to this option, which will be two months from the date of the initial communication offering the option to extend their probationary period.

If the pre-tenure faculty member declines to extend their probationary period, a Memorandum of Agreement will be prepared for their signature reflecting this decision. Further, if the pre-tenure faculty member's decision is to extend their probationary period, a Memorandum of Agreement will be prepared for the signature of the parties modifying the pre-tenure faculty member's Letter of Appointment and provide a detailed schedule of the new assessment and tenure review timelines. The decision made by the pre-tenure faculty member will be irrevocable.

3. Before the final tenure review process has taken place, the faculty member may request of the University through the Dean that the process be deferred for health or compassionate reasons which may have arisen during the probationary period. The reasons must be verified by the applicant and approved by the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, for the deferral to be granted.

5.8 TENURE DOSSIER

- A. The dossier has four principal parts: Overview, Teaching Dossier, SRC Dossier, Service Dossier as outlined below. In addition, where appropriate, the Chair/Director will submit to the DEC any other material (including record of disciplinary action taken against the applicant) placed in the PCF that bears on the applicant's progress towards tenure.
- B. The Overview must include, but is not restricted to, the following documents:
 1. Table of Contents of the dossier;
 2. Curriculum vitae, covering the applicant's entire professional career, in an approved University format;
 3. Letter of appointment (the starting salary can be blacked out);
 4. The applicant's annual reports;
 5. Earlier year-end assessments;
 6. The applicant's response(s), if any, to the year-end assessments;
 7. Any letters giving reasons for non-assessments
- C. The Teaching Dossier is intended to provide a description and record of an applicant's major teaching accomplishments and strengths in a manner that conveys the scope and quality of the applicant's teaching. The Teaching Dossier should include, but is not restricted to, such items as the following:

1. A statement of the applicant's philosophy, objectives and methods of teaching;
 2. A list of undergraduate and graduate courses, including directed studies and thesis supervisions, taught by the applicant;
 3. An explanation of the ways in which the applicant has maintained currency in their teaching field(s) and, where appropriate, professional field;
 4. Examples of course revision, curriculum development, and teaching methods as evidenced by course outlines, assignments, final examinations and other materials the applicant deems appropriate;
 5. A record of the applicant's role in curriculum and instructional developments such as administrative and committee service for the Department/School, Faculty, and/or University related to pedagogy, and including directing and coordinating programs, guest lectures, and other presentations;
 6. The results of the Course Operations Survey (COS) where faculty members choose to include them, and any letters and testimonials and an indication whether solicited or not solicited. No student surveys other than the COS can be included.
 7. A record of the applicant's special contribution to any teaching, including teaching awards, publications and presentations, instructional development grants, participation in conferences and seminars on education/pedagogy;
 8. All teaching assessments (where available) as well as any responses to those assessments and any letters giving reasons for non-assessments;
 9. An applicant may submit any other material that they deem relevant to their teaching role.
- D. Evidence of SRC activities, which may include, but is not limited to the following:
1. A statement of the applicant's philosophy, objectives and methods of SRC;

2. Single copies of the SRC works the applicant wishes to have considered in the examination of the application, it being understood that the applicant may attach a clear and detailed description of these works when the works are such that their physical submission is not practical;
 3. Examples of published reviews of the applicant's published work;
 4. Letters of testimonial and an indication of whether solicited or unsolicited;
 5. A list of relevant awards and/or grants from University or external sources.
 6. An applicant may submit any other material that they deem relevant to their SRC role, including evidence relating to the quality and influence of the applicant's SRC.
- E. Description of contributions of Service to the University and outside professional activities.

5.9 INTERMEDIATE REVIEW

For pre-tenure faculty members with a six-year, five-year or four-year probationary period there will be an intermediate review by June 15 of the third probationary year. At the end of the third probationary year the DEC will conduct an intermediate review by performing a substantive review of the pre-tenure faculty member's overall performance throughout all the years of their probationary appointment for the principal purpose of providing constructive feedback to the member in terms of their overall performance toward satisfying the criteria for tenure. The terms of Article 5.6.B., C., D., and E. shall apply in carrying out this intermediate review.

5.10 NORMAL TENURE REVIEW

- A. A pre-tenure faculty member will be reviewed for tenure commencing on May 1st of the fifth (5th) probationary year. Notwithstanding this, a member can elect to be reviewed for tenure commencing May 1st of the fourth (4th) probationary year. Such request shall be in writing to the Dean by no later than March 31st of the fourth probationary year. This review shall be the Normal Tenure Review and as such reversion as per B. and J. below is not an option.
- B. A pre-tenure faculty member with a reduced probationary period (i.e. three (3), or four (4) years) may request for reversion to the normal six year probationary period. This request will be made by the member in writing to the Dean. Such a request must be made by March 31st of the term that the normal tenure review would normally commence. No requests for reversion will be considered after March 31st. Reversion requests will not be unreasonably denied. This reversion will not prejudice any future reviews or assessments of that member.

- C. The pre-tenure faculty member will submit to the DEC the SRC portion of their tenure application dossier containing the materials outlined in section 5.8, including the names of five potential external referees, as specified in Article 5.10.C., by May 17th. All other portions of the pre-tenure faculty member's tenure dossier, as specified in Article 5.8, including the year-end assessment for the year just completed, as well as any responses to that assessment, shall be submitted by the pre-tenure faculty member by August 1st. Such dossier may be submitted in an approved electronic format.

No later than May 1st the pre-tenure faculty member should consult with their Chair/Director, or the Chair/Director's designate, who must be a member of the DEC, to ensure the dossier is as complete as possible.

The pre-tenure faculty member shall, included in their tenure dossier, provide the names of five potential external referees who are tenured faculty members and/or experts in the pre-tenure faculty member's discipline, from which the Dean shall choose at least two after consultation with members of the DEC. The Dean will solicit evaluative letters from three (3) external referees. If the third referee is not from the applicant's list, the Dean will, in consultation with the DEC, provide the applicant with an additional list of potential referees from which the Dean will select the third referee. The applicant will have an opportunity to review the pool of potential referees identified by the Dean and make an objection, in writing, regarding any of the potential referees on the basis of a lack of expertise or because of some direct academic or personal dispute, and the Dean will consider the applicant's concerns.

In certain circumstances, where the list of potential external referees is so small that providing the applicant with an opportunity to review the pool of potential referees would jeopardize the anonymity of the external referees chosen, the Dean shall meet with the applicant, and the Association if the applicant wishes, to discuss how to review the referees for lack of expertise or because of some direct academic or personal dispute without breaching the anonymity.

The Dean solicits the evaluative letters from the external referees. The letter of request shall state the tenure action under consideration and the deadline by which a response is needed.

The Dean's letter soliciting referees' judgments shall be added to the applicant's tenure file and that letter will attach Article 10.13 and a copy of the applicant's Curriculum Vitae and the SRC component of the dossier. External referees shall be asked to assess only the applicant's performance in SRC; it will make clear that they are not being asked to assess teaching and service.

No individual may act as an external referee where there is a real or perceived conflict of interest, or where they have been a research partner or collaborator with the pre-tenure faculty member within the past five (5) years, or a supervisor of the pre-tenure faculty member's work at any time.

The Dean will provide these evaluative letters to the DEC for consideration as they become available. Any external assessment that is not available by the time the DEC meets to consider the applicant's file shall not be considered by the DEC or any subsequent level.

- D. The tenure decision is to be based only on material in the tenure file. The applicant will be given an opportunity to respond to any material placed in the file as set out below. All communications set out below between the DEC, FTC, VPFA, and the applicant shall be added to the applicant's tenure file, together with the applicant's written response. Solicitation of information or requests for clarification shall be made in writing with a copy to the pre-tenure faculty member.
- E. A pre-tenure faculty member undergoing this review shall have the right to address the DEC concerning their record of employment prior to the DEC's recommendation.
- F. The DEC shall meet in September to deliberate on the file. On the basis of the criteria listed in 5.7.A above, the DEC will make a tentative recommendation and will draft a letter containing a detailed written rationale for this recommendation by September 30th. The DEC recommendation letter will be prepared by DEC members and signed by all members confirming their views are reflected. If there is disagreement within the DEC, instead of a single letter, they may elect to provide a cover letter recording the vote (without names), signed by all members of the DEC and attach majority and minority recommendation letters.
- G. The letter will be sent to the applicant for their comments, including the external referee reports (with the names and any identifying information redacted). If the pre-tenure faculty member wishes to respond, they shall provide their comments in writing to the DEC within two weeks of receipt of the DEC's recommendation. Requests for extension will not be unreasonably denied.
- H. At its discretion, the DEC may modify its letter, after taking into account the comments of the applicant. The DEC may change its comments on matters contained in its draft letter, and it may respond to issues raised in the pre-tenure faculty member's letter, but it may not introduce completely new issues. Within two weeks of receiving the comments of the applicant, the DEC provides a letter, containing its final recommendation (which may or may not be a revised version of the draft recommendation letter) to the Dean and the Faculty Tenure Committee, with a copy to the applicant. The DEC recommendation letter will be prepared by the DEC and signed by all members confirming their views are reflected. With its final recommendation the DEC sends to the FTC the full file, including the dossier, the external referee reports, and any other relevant material, excluding the DEC's initial draft recommendation and the pre-tenure faculty member's response to that draft recommendation.

- I. The applicant has two weeks to comment, in writing, on the DEC's final recommendation to the Dean, who will forward a copy to the FTC. Requests for extensions will not be unreasonably denied.
- J. In the case where a pre-tenure faculty member is being considered before the normal six- year term, because the applicant's letter of appointment specified a shorter probationary period, and the DEC concludes that the pre-tenure faculty member does not presently meet the criteria for transfer to the tenured faculty, the DEC may recommend to the Dean (not the FTC) that the pre-tenure faculty member revert to a regular six (6) year tenure period. The Dean will consider the file, including the dossier, the DEC's recommendation and the response of the pre-tenure faculty member (if any) and make a final decision within two weeks. If the decision is to revert to the normal probationary period, the next review for tenure will be considered a "normal" tenure review under the terms of this Article. In recommending reversion, the DEC letter to the pre-tenure faculty member shall be written knowing it may become the pre-tenure faculty member's Intermediate Review as provided in 5.9, i.e. in circumstances where the pre-tenure faculty member has not had an intermediate review. If the decision of the Dean is to not revert, the DEC will make a recommendation to the FTC as per the terms of this Article.
- K. If the DEC believes that the applicant does not presently meet the criteria for transfer to the tenured faculty, but that there is a good expectation that with additional time they would do so, it may recommend two additional years of probation.
- L. The FTC shall meet within three (3) weeks of receipt the pre-tenure faculty member's response or the lapsing of the interval in which the applicant can respond as outlined in 5.10.I., whichever is applicable, to review the tenure file, including the dossier, the DEC's written recommendation, the pre-tenure faculty member's response(s), if any, to that recommendation, and the external referee reports. Should the FTC have no questions, the FTC will have a further week to issue their written recommendation, including the rationale for the recommendation, to the VPFA, with a copy to the applicant and the DEC.

Should the FTC have any questions of the DEC, the FTC will provide such questions, in writing, within the three weeks mentioned immediately above. The DEC will respond, in writing, within two weeks of receipt of such questions. These communications are added to the tenure file, and will be copied to the applicant, who will be provided with an opportunity to respond within two weeks of the DEC's response. The FTC will issue its written recommendation, including the rationale for the recommendation, within two (2) weeks of receipt of the DEC's response or the pre-tenure faculty member's response, whichever is later, to the VPFA, with a copy to the applicant and the DEC.

The FTC recommendation letter will be prepared by the FTC and signed by all members confirming their views are reflected. The FTC will forward to the VPFA their recommendation letter, the tenure file, including the dossier, the recommendation of the DEC, the external referees' reports and any response(s) of the applicant.

- M. In cases where the DEC is recommending termination or an extension of two years, the pre-tenure faculty member undergoing this review shall have the right to address the FTC concerning their record of employment.
- N. The FTC has the following options for its recommendation:
1. If the DEC has recommended either immediate transfer to tenure or an extension, the FTC may recommend:
 - a) that an extension of two years be granted; or,
 - b) that the applicant be transferred to the tenured faculty.
 2. If the DEC has recommended that tenure be denied and that the applicant's employment be terminated, the FTC may recommend:
 - a) that the applicant be transferred to the tenured faculty;
 - b) that an extension of two years be granted; or,
 - c) that employment be terminated.
- O. The FTC's letter will be provided to the pre-tenure faculty member and the DEC and each will be provided an opportunity to provide comments. If the pre-tenure faculty member or the DEC wishes to respond, the pre-tenure faculty member and/or the DEC shall provide their comments in writing to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs within two weeks of receipt of the FTC's recommendation. Requests for extensions will not be unreasonably denied.
- P. In cases where the VPFA does not require additional information before making a decision, they shall make a final decision and shall advise the applicant in writing of their decision within four (4) weeks of the receipt of the pre-tenure faculty member's response or the lapsing of the interval in which the applicant can respond as outlined in 5.10.O. above, whichever is applicable.

In cases where the VPFA requires additional information before making a decision, they shall write to the DEC, the FTC or to the applicant, within the four (4) weeks mentioned immediately above, copying the other parties and the Association, and the DEC and/or the FTC and the applicant shall have two weeks to provide a response. The response from the DEC and/or the FTC shall be copied to the applicant and the Association. The applicant shall have two (2) weeks to respond to the VPFA with respect to the letters of the FTC and/or the DEC. The VPFA shall make a final decision within two (2) weeks of receipt of the last written response from the DEC, the FTC, or the applicant. The decision of the VPFA shall be based solely on the information contained in the pre-tenure faculty member's tenure file and additional information, if any, as set out in this section.

The decision of the VPFA shall be one of the following:

- a) Transfer to the tenured faculty;
- b) Extension of two years of probation; or
- c) That employment be terminated.

The Vice-Provost's decision, including the rationale, will be forwarded to the applicant with copies to the DEC, the FTC, and the Association.

- Q. If both the DEC and the FTC have recommended termination, the VPFA may terminate the employment of the pre-tenure faculty member, transfer the pre-tenure faculty member to the tenured faculty, or extend the probationary period for two years. In every other case, the VPFA may transfer the pre-tenure faculty member to the tenured faculty, or may extend the probationary period for two years, but may not terminate the employment of the pre-tenure faculty member.
- R. In the case of termination, the applicant's employment will cease at the end (July 31) of the academic year in which the decision to refuse to transfer to tenure is taken. Notice shall be not less than six months, or six months' pay in lieu thereof, or a combination of the two.

5.11 FINAL TENURE REVIEW

- A. When an applicant has not been transferred to the tenured faculty as a consequence of the process outlined in Article 5.10, and has had their probationary period extended, they shall submit a tenure dossier to the DEC not later than two and a half months before the end of the extended probationary period.
- B. When the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, on the recommendation of the DEC, has determined that the teaching record is satisfactory, and that problems in teaching were not the cause of the extension, the requirement for additional teaching assessments may be waived and teaching performance will be deemed satisfactory in any subsequent review. Otherwise, the DEC will conduct at least one teaching assessment in each semester of the extended period.

- C. The DEC shall, not later than two months before the end of the extended probationary period, but after the completion of the teaching assessments of that semester if such were required, reassess the overall performance of the pre-tenure faculty member.
- D. The process of consideration by the DEC, the FTC and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs is as outlined in Article 5.10, except as noted below:
 1. The DEC and the FTC may not recommend an extension of employment, and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs may not grant an extension.
 2. The DEC and the FTC may recommend either transfer to tenure or termination of employment, and the Vice-Provost may decide upon either.

5.12 PROMOTION TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

- A. When an Assistant Professor is transferred to the tenured faculty, they are promoted at the same time to the rank of Associate Professor.
- B. When a salary increment is associated with promotion to Associate Professor, the salary increment will be awarded as of September 1 of the academic year following the pre-tenure faculty member successfully completing their probationary period, even if the decision is rendered at a later date. However, the use of the designation of Associate Professor is effective on the date that the promotion decision is communicated to them.

5.13 PROMOTION TO PROFESSOR

- A. Definitions

For Article 5.12 the term “promotion” applies to advancement from the rank of Associate Professor to the rank of Professor. For the purposes of this Article, “Salary Transfer” refers to transfer from the Associate Professor pay scale to the Professor pay scale of those members hired before January 1, 1992 (See Article 13.1.F.), who at time of application under this Article hold the rank of Professor. An application for “Salary Transfer”, whether successful or unsuccessful, shall have no effect on the rank of the applicant.

- B. Eligibility

For promotion to the rank of Professor, a faculty member will be eligible to apply only after five (5) or more years of service as an Associate Professor. If successful, the salary increments associated with promotion will be retroactive to September 1st, of the academic year of the application, however use of the designation of Professor is effective on the date the promotion decision is communicated to them. This experience requirement is not applicable to applicants for Salary Transfer.

C. Criteria

1. A Professor is a member of the University who is recognized for the combined quality of their scholarship, research and creative activity, teaching, commitment to relevance, accessibility, the success of students, lifelong learning and engagement in the University and broader community.

Eligibility for promotion should be considered holistically, taking into consideration an applicant's total contribution to the University, the academic community and/or discipline and considering the diversity of academic roles, responsibilities, and contributions within a University.

The rank of Professor should be within the expectancy of all Associate Professors.

Promotion or salary transfer of faculty members should be based on their performance in the three broad areas of Teaching, SRC, and Service and Other Professional Activities.

Promotion to the rank of Professor recognizes a significant record of sustained and productive achievement in SRC and teaching, together with satisfactory performance in service.

Emphasis at promotion is normally placed on SRC activities, including evidence of significant contribution of SRC activities, at the national or international level, acknowledging the often inextricable relationship between SRC and teaching activities.

In certain cases, an outstanding teaching and/or service record may be given greater emphasis, accompanied by a continuing and long-standing record of satisfactory or better performance in the other areas. An applicant may request external assessors address this aspect of their record pursuant to the process under 5.13.E.1.d.

2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1 above, in cases of Salary Transfer, it is understood that the salary transfer decision may be based primarily on outstanding teaching contributions.
3. There are a variety of different forms of SRC activities at the University, and different disciplines may have differing criteria for how these activities are to be evaluated with respect to promotion. In such evaluations, where the evidence does not rest on publications alone (broadly defined), other evidence of SRC activity as presented must be considered, but the burden of proof must rest upon the applicant.

4. Service includes service to the University and the Association, service to the profession and the community, and outside professional activities.
 5. An applicant's career-to-date contributions shall be considered, and activities since promotion to the rank of Associate Professor will normally be given greater weight.
- D. The assessment of an applicant's teaching performance shall be based on:
1. The teaching-related portions of the applicant's annual reports;
 2. The applicant's teaching dossier;
- Reports, if any, of in-class teaching evaluations. These are not required, but the applicant may, if they so wish, ask the chair of the FPC to arrange for one or two such evaluations, conducted under the same terms as those of pre-tenure faculty members.
- E. The members of the FPC must consider the assessment of the applicant's SRC activity as judged by three external referees.
 - a) The applicant shall provide the names of three potential referees who must be at the rank of Professor. From the applicant's three potential referees the Dean shall choose two, after consultation with members of the applicant's Department/School. The final referee is appointed by the Dean after consultation with members of the applicant's Department/School. No individual may act as an external referee where there is a real or perceived conflict of interest, including where they have been a research partner or collaborator with the applicant within the past five years, or a supervisor of the applicant's work at any time.
 - b) In certain circumstances, where there is a limited availability of potential referees at the rank of Professor, it is understood that the applicant may provide up to two names of nationally or internationally recognized authorities in the applicant's SRC field and will explain their inclusion and ability to judge the scholarly merits at a Professor level.
 - c) It is understood that in providing potential referees in relation to teaching or service, the applicant may provide the names of Professors with recognized accomplishments in teaching and/or service under a. above or, in certain circumstances, recognized authorities as outlined in b. above.

- d) The Dean solicits the evaluative letters from the outside referees. The letter of request states the promotion action under consideration and the deadline by which a response is needed. It asks the referee to assess only the SRC contributions of the applicant and the impact of those contributions; it will make clear that assessment of teaching and service is not asked for. Should an applicant wish, the letter of request will also ask the referees to assess on the basis of outstanding teaching and/or service.

F. Application

1. Faculty members shall apply for their own promotion or for Salary Transfer. Applications shall be made on the prescribed application forms, which shall be consistent with the terms of this Agreement, and forwarded to the office of the applicant's Dean, together with copies of all necessary and relevant documentation. It shall be the responsibility of the Dean to produce copies of this material for members of the FPC. Applicants are, however, expected to provide sufficient copies of the materials described in Article 5.13.F.2. below, which are to be sent to their external evaluators.
2. By September 30, the applicant shall provide to the Dean a promotion dossier, which contains a teaching SRC and service dossier, as described in Article 5.8 C, D and E respectively, except that teaching assessments (where available). The applicant shall include an additional three copies of SRC works they wish to have sent to external reviewers. The applicant shall also provide the names of their nominee to the committee pursuant to Article 5.3.F and the names of three external referees pursuant to Article 5.13.E.1. The applicant may also include a list of people they do not want considered as referees. In addition the applicant should include an overview including, but not limited to, the following documents:
 - a) Table of Contents of the dossier;
 - b) Curriculum vitae, covering the applicant's entire professional career, in an approved University format;
 - c) The applicant's annual reports for the last five years.
3. An applicant for promotion has the right to address the FPC before their case is considered.
4. The FPC, through its Chair, may make a written request to the applicant for clarification of any aspect of their application, such reply to be made in writing within five working days of the receipt of the request to do so.

G. Procedure

1. Members of the FPC shall be provided the application package by October 1. A copy of the external assessments will be provided to members of the FPC committee as they become available. Any external assessment that is not available by March 1 shall be deemed invalid. Furthermore, such late reference shall not be held against the applicant.
2. The FPC shall meet by March 15 to decide if the applicant has met the criteria for promotion. This decision shall be based solely on the material submitted by and for the applicant. It then makes a written recommendation to the Dean. The letter shall contain the reasons for the recommendation. If the FPC is not unanimous, the letter states the vote (without names) and the reasons for the disagreement.
3. The FPC shall provide a copy of the letter to the applicant, as well as copies of any in-class assessment and of the external referee reports with the names and any identifying information redacted. If the applicant wishes to respond, they shall provide their comments in writing to the Dean within two weeks of receipt of the FPC recommendation.
4. The Dean will review the assessment and recommendation of the FPC, the faculty member's response, if any, along with the Performance and Conduct File (PCF), for each faculty member who has applied for promotion or for "Salary Transfer". After this review, the Dean will, not later than April 15 or two weeks following receipt of the applicant's response or the lapsing of the interval in which the applicant can respond as per 5.13.G.3. above, whichever is later, forward to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs the promotion dossier, the summary of assessments and recommendation of the FPC, including any response by the applicant, in-class teaching assessments, and a copy of the evaluations by the external referees, along with their own recommendation.
5. The Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs will examine all recommendations and documentation to ensure that a reasonable and equitable standard for promotion is applied across the University, taking into account the differing patterns of activity which characterize each Faculty. The Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs will inform the applicant and the FPC, in writing, of the decision and, if the decision is negative, of the reasons for the decision.

ARTICLE 6 LEAVES OF ABSENCE6.1 LEAVES WITH PAY FOR TENURED FACULTY MEMBERS

- A. The University and the Association mutually agree that the taking of paid leaves of absence by tenured faculty members for the purpose of academic refreshment or expansion of experience is to the benefit of the University and its students. Therefore, the University agrees to grant a faculty member a paid leave of absence depending on such factors as length of service, availability of alternative faculty or instructors, and the priority of the need in each case, subject to the provisions of this Article.
- B. The University acknowledges the importance of sabbatical leave to the intellectual vibrancy of the Faculty and therefore of the University. A tenured faculty member will normally be eligible for a sabbatical leave after the accumulation of the requisite number of credits as provided in 6.1.I.
- C. A tenured faculty member must apply in writing on a University supplied form and submit it to their Chair/Director by October 15 prior to the academic year in which they plan to start their leave. A faculty member's application must be approved by a meeting of the tenure-stream faculty members of the applicant's Department/School and by the Dean. Review and approval of sabbatical applications shall not take into consideration any factors which might later result in deferrals in a given year. Sabbaticals may only be deferred in exceptional academic circumstances, in which case they shall be dealt with as per 6.1.O below. By the following January 31 the applicant shall be advised of the University's decision through the Office of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs. The faculty member shall complete and sign the requisite memorandum of agreement with the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs by March 31.
- D. Paid (sabbatical) leave is considered an investment toward increasing both the quality of programs of study and the scholarly, research, and creative activities at the University by allowing an eligible member:
1. to devote more time to scholarship, research and/or creativity, and/or
 2. to acquire relevant experience in areas related to their specialization, with the objective of enabling them to make their teaching more complete and more appropriate to the needs of their Department/School or other units within the University;
 3. Leave after a period as Chair/Director is also intended to provide sufficient time to re-establish or enhance research and/or teaching skills to prepare for return to the professoriate.

- E. Pre-tenure faculty members and tenured faculty members accrue one sabbatical credit for each half year of full-time service. Acting Assistant Professors accrue half a sabbatical credit for each half year of full-time service. Half-years of part-time service receive sabbatical credits on a pro-rated basis. Periods of leave of 6 months or more with or without pay, including periods on long-term disability, do not lead to the accrual of sabbatical credits. Periods on pregnancy/parental/adoption leave and secondments will accrue full credit.
- F. For the purposes of this Article, one teaching term is equivalent to one half year of service for faculty members. Faculty members accrue sabbatical credits for no more than two terms per year.
- G. Members who serve as Chair/Director on or after July 1, 2020 shall receive extra credits, in addition to credits received as per 6.1.E, as follows:
- Year 1 – 1 credit (0.5 per half year)
 - Year 2 – 1.5 credits (0.75 per half year)
 - Year 3 – 1.5 credits (0.75 per half year)
 - Year 4 – 1.5 credits (0.75 per half year)
 - Year 5 – 1.5 credits (0.75 per half year)
- H. Faculty members hired into the tenure-stream immediately following a Limited Term Faculty appointment will receive 0.5 credit for each half year spent as a Limited Term Faculty Member to a maximum of two credits.
- I. Sabbatical credits may be used, by tenured faculty members, to provide sabbatical leave according to the following schedule:
1. half-year leave at 85% salary, 6 credits
 2. half-year leave at 90% salary, 7 credits
 3. half-year leave at 95% salary, 8 credits
 4. half-year leave at 100% salary, 9 credits
 5. full-year leave at 85% salary, 12 credits
 6. full year leave at 92.5% salary, 14 credits
 7. full-year leave at 100% salary, 16 credits
- J. Notwithstanding Article 6.1. I. above, the first career sabbatical of a tenured faculty member will be at 100% salary. Such a member may opt to take a first paid leave for half a year, at 100% salary, by means of 6 credits. If the next paid leave is also for a half year, it will also carry a 100% salary by means of 6 credits.

Alternatively, such a member may opt to take a full-year paid leave, at 100% salary, by means of 12 credits. In this clause, the term “career sabbatical” means a paid sabbatical leave at any university.

- K. Members may not use credits prior to having accrued them.
- L. Members may choose to use as many or as few credits as they wish for their sabbatical according to the table in I above. Remaining credits will be retained and may be used for future sabbaticals.
- M. Notwithstanding the number of credits remaining after a sabbatical leave has been completed, a member must serve for at least half a year after taking a half-year sabbatical leave, and at least one year after taking a one-year sabbatical leave. For those intending to resign or retire on completion of their sabbatical, returning after the sabbatical for a half-year or one year, as applicable, is not required. Another exception occurs under the terms of Article 6.1.J, where a member completing a second half-year sabbatical leave at 100% salary may, if they have sufficient credits, embark immediately upon a third half-year sabbatical leave, using up credits according to Article 6.1 I. A member may not take a paid sabbatical leave for longer than one year at a time.
- N. For faculty members who normally teach an uneven number of courses across an academic year: In cases where a full year sabbatical is taken across two academic years, the total number of courses in the teaching terms over the two years shall not exceed the faculty member’s normal teaching standard. In cases where a half sabbatical is taken, in the corresponding teaching term the member shall teach not more than 2 courses. Notwithstanding this, the sum of teaching of the current and next half year sabbatical cannot exceed the faculty member’s normal teaching standard.
- O. In exceptional academic circumstances, a Department/School may not be able, in a given year, to accommodate all Department/School approved sabbatical leave requests of all faculty members who are entitled to such leave. In such cases, the Chair/Director and the members whose leaves were approved shall attempt to work out a schedule acceptable to all parties.

Where agreement cannot be reached in such a case, the leaves shall be arranged in the following order of priority:

1. any faculty member who has their sabbatical leave postponed shall have priority claim to sabbatical leave in the next period of half-year or full-year leave, as is applicable;
2. members with the greatest number of credits;
3. in the case of a tie, the order of the leaves shall be arranged by lot.

- P. A faculty member's first work obligation while on sabbatical leave is the fulfillment of the terms of their leave duties. Faculty members may engage in outside employment while on paid leave only to the extent that such employment does not interfere with the faculty member's leave obligations to the University. A faculty member on paid leave shall report to the University any outside remuneration received while on leave, which would not have been received had they not been on leave. Such reporting shall be made at the time of application for sabbatical leave; or in circumstances where the faculty member requests a substantive change to the sabbatical plan as previously approved and upon submission of the faculty member's sabbatical report.
- Q. During the first academic semester after returning from paid leave, a faculty member shall provide to the Dean and the Chair/Director a written report of activities undertaken and objectives accomplished while on paid leave, including any outside remuneration received whilst on leave, consistent with clause P above.
- R. While on leave, the faculty member's entitlement to increment will not be interrupted, save and except as provided for in Article 13 and Appendix A, paragraph D.6.
- S. The faculty member on leave will be deemed to be a member of the Faculty and will therefore continue to participate in the medical, dental, extended health, and Group Life Insurance benefits.
- T. In addition to the benefits covered above, the faculty member on leave must contribute to their pension based on salary while on leave and will continue to be covered by the Long-term Disability Plan. Members of the Toronto Metropolitan University Pension Plan have the option of contributing to the pension plan on the basis of their notional Faculty Association salary. In the case of disability, the benefit will be 80 per cent of the faculty member's notional Faculty Association salary. The premiums for the benefits will be shared as if the faculty member were in active employment.
- U. When a sabbatical is interrupted by pregnancy/parental/adoption leave, or sick leave of more than three months, or other such extenuating circumstances, and when such conditions or circumstances are documented by the member and approved by the University, such approval not to be unreasonably denied, sabbatical credits shall be returned to the member for time planned but not taken on sabbatical leave. In such cases, credits are rounded to the nearest 0.5 credit.

6.2 LEAVES WITHOUT PAY

- A. A faculty member may be granted leave without pay, subject to the operational requirements of the member's Department/School.

- B. In order to receive service credit in the Toronto Metropolitan University Pension Plan, a faculty member on leave without pay who is a member of this Plan is required to contribute to the Plan an amount equal to the contributions due on the basis of notional Faculty Association salary. These contributions are to be paid in two equal installments - the first at the beginning of the leave and the second at the end of the leave.
- C. A faculty member on leave without pay is eligible to continue their Group Life Insurance at the rate in effect immediately prior to the commencement of leave and to participate in the Long-term Disability Plan.
- D. The cost of participation in the available benefits will be paid entirely by the faculty member annually in advance. Where the approved leave was granted for educational or compassionate reasons, the University will refund to the faculty member upon their return to active employment that portion of the premiums which it would normally have paid had the faculty member been in active employment.
- E. Association dues will be paid by the faculty member concerned in advance for the period of the authorized leave without pay. Payment will be made to the University, which will turn over any such collected dues to the Association together with the next remittance of dues deducted from the salary of other members (Article 2.4.C.).

SPECIAL LEAVES

6.3 COMPASSIONATE AND BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

A leave of absence of up to five (5) working days with pay may be granted by the Chair/Director for compassionate and/or bereavement reasons. The Dean/Vice-Provost, Students/Dean of Libraries may, in exceptional circumstances, extend this period to twenty (20) working days.

6.4 PREGNANCY, ADOPTION AND PARENTAL LEAVE

General

The employee will continue to accrue seniority during their pregnancy, adoption or parental leave, and the University will continue the employee's benefit coverage during this leave period, unless the plan is contributory and the employee has elected to discontinue contributions. This means that employees who contribute to the Toronto Metropolitan University Pension Plan may elect to continue their contributions to the Plan during their pregnancy, adoption and parental leave.

Recognizing that a faculty member may be unable to fulfil teaching commitments due to a pregnancy, adoption or parental leave of absence conflicting with the semester, it may be necessary therefore for the member to be withdrawn from instructional duties during the entire semester of the leave. Notwithstanding this clause, if a faculty member wishes to continue to teach they may apply to continue to teach and permission will not be unreasonably denied. If a member is withdrawn from instructional duties other employment within the University will be made available at the member's regular salary.

6.5 PREGNANCY LEAVE

Members of the Association shall be entitled to pregnancy leave as from time to time as provided for in the Employment Standards Act. During such leave the University will pay to the member a Supplementary Unemployment Benefit (SUB) at the time that normal salary payments would be paid.

During pregnancy leave the University shall pay 95% of the employee's weekly salary minus any payments to which the employee is entitled under the Employment Insurance Act as outlined below:

A. Pregnancy Leave Benefit Level

It is understood that for the duration of the pregnancy leave, which will not exceed 17 weeks, the combined weekly level of Employment Insurance benefit, SUB payments and other earnings will not exceed 95% of the member's normal weekly earnings.

In accordance with the SUB Plan requirements, for the first weeks of the pregnancy leave, the employee shall receive 95% of their weekly salary from the University.

For the next 16 weeks of pregnancy leave the member shall receive payment(s) equal to the difference between the sum of the weekly Employment Insurance benefits and any other earnings received by the employee and the 95% of the weekly salary which they were receiving on the last day worked prior to the commencement of the pregnancy leave.

B. Application

The members of the Association must apply for and be in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits before the SUB payments become payable.

C. Non-Receipt of Employment Insurance Benefits

A member of the Association who is not in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits will not be eligible for SUB payments except if the member of the Association:

1. has insufficient insured weeks to qualify for Employment Insurance benefits
2. has exhausted their Employment Insurance benefits
3. is serving the Employment Insurance waiting period.

D. Approval of SUB Plan

The implementation of the pregnancy leave provisions as mutually agreed to by the parties and reflected in the SUB Plan as outlined above, is subject to required approval by the applicable federal agencies. The members do not have the right to SUB payments except for supplementation of Employment Insurance benefits for the unemployment period as specified in this Article.

- E. Payments in respect of guaranteed annual remuneration or in respect of deferred remuneration or severance pay benefits will not be reduced or increased by payments received under this plan.

6.6 ADOPTION LEAVE

- A. Adoption Leave is available to an adoptive parent, other than a biological mother, who has the primary responsibility for the care of a child during the seventeen (17) weeks immediately following the coming of a child into the custody, care and control of a parent for the first time.

Adoption Leave must be applied for in writing with a minimum of two (2) weeks' notice.

Should the arrival of the child into the custody, care or control of the member be unanticipated or unscheduled the member will provide as much notice as possible.

- B. A member of the Association making such an application must confirm in writing that they will in fact have the primary responsibility for the care of the child during the period of the leave.

C. Application

The members of the Association must apply for and be in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits before the SUB payments become payable.

D. Non-Receipt of Employment Insurance Benefits

A member of the Association who is not in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits will not be eligible for SUB payments except if the member of the Association:

1. has insufficient insured weeks to qualify for Employment Insurance benefits;
 2. has exhausted their Employment Insurance benefits;
 3. is serving the Employment Insurance waiting period.
- E. The University shall pay ninety-five 95% of the member's weekly salary during the one-week waiting period for Employment Insurance benefits and for the next sixteen (16) weeks of Adoption Leave, shall pay the difference between Employment Insurance benefits and ninety-five (95%) of the member's weekly salary which they were receiving on the last day worked prior to the commencement of the Adoption Leave, provided that the employee applies for and receives Employment Insurance benefits.
- F. A member of the Association who takes adoption leave under Article 6.6 is entitled to a parental leave of absence for a period of up to sixty-one (61) weeks or such shorter or longer period as prescribed by the Employment Standards Act, as per Article 6.7. The parental leave of a member of the Association who takes adoption leave must begin when the adoption leave ends.
- G. In the case of a Limited Term Faculty member, Adoption Leave will be limited to and not extend beyond the period of time remaining in the defined term.
- H. Notwithstanding 6.6.A., a member may request that the adoption leave begins up to two weeks before the child is expected to arrive into the custody, care or control of the member, and such requests shall not be unreasonably withheld. However, the payment referred to in Article 6.6.D. will only apply following the date upon which the child comes into the custody, care and control of the member.
- I. If both adoptive parents are members of the Faculty Association, the adoption leave benefit of 17 weeks can be taken entirely by one parent or it may be divided between the two, so long as each of the parents confirms that they will have primary responsibility for the care of the child during the period of the leave.

6.7 PARENTAL LEAVE

- A. Every member of the Association who becomes a parent of a newborn or adopted child is entitled to an unpaid parental leave in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Standards Act. The University will further provide such employees with up to ten (10) weeks paid leave of absence at 95% of salary less any EI payments to which the employee is entitled. Normally, such paid leave will be in respect of the first ten weeks of this absence and is contingent upon the employee applying for EI and being in receipt of EI benefits. In the case of a one-week EI waiting period, once an employee has received EI benefit approval, the University will pay the full 95% of the member's weekly salary for that week. In respect of the next nine (9) weeks of this absence the University will pay the difference between 95% of the member's weekly salary and the EI benefit amount.

- B. The above paid and partially paid period of leave shall not increase the total eligible time away from work which shall be as provided for by the Employment Standards Act.

- C. Application

The members of the Association must apply for and be in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits before the SUB payments become payable.

- D. Non-Receipt of Employment Insurance Benefits

A member of the Association who is not in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits will not be eligible for SUB payments except if the member of the Association:

1. has insufficient insured weeks to qualify for Employment Insurance benefits;
2. has exhausted their Employment Insurance benefits;
3. is serving the Employment Insurance waiting period.

- E. Parent includes an employee with whom a child is placed for adoption and an employee who is in a relationship of some permanence (in accordance with the Family Law Act) with a parent of a child and who intends to treat the child as their own.

- F. Parental leave must begin within seventy-eight (78) weeks from the day the child is born or comes into the custody, care and control of the member for the first time. Parental leave must be taken in a consecutive time period.

- G. Where a pregnancy leave is taken, parental leave must begin immediately when the pregnancy leave ends, unless the child has not yet come into the custody, care and control of a parent for the first time.

- H. The member's parental leave can last up to sixty-three (63) weeks. However, if the member also took pregnancy leave or adoption leave, their parental leave cannot exceed sixty-one (61) weeks.

- F. Arrangements involving full time leave of absence normally shall hold for one term of public service or five years, whichever is the longer. If the member of the Association continues to serve after the five year period, then they will be expected to resign their University post. If thereafter, they wish to return to the University, their appointment shall be by a procedure similar to that used for an original appointment. Arrangements involving part time leave of absence may be renewed beyond the five year period so long as the duties of the member of the Association to the University do not suffer.
- G. After the expiry of their term of public service, the member of the Association, if they have not resigned from the University in accordance with the provisions of F., shall return to the University and it shall be incumbent on the Chair/Director of their Department/School to arrange their program so as to facilitate their return to full academic effectiveness.

ARTICLE 10 WORKLOADWORKLOAD PROVISIONS - MODE I

The workload provisions of Mode I apply to all faculty members hired before January 1, 1992, who have not elected the option described in 10.9 following.

10.1 ASSIGNED TEACHING AND RELATED WORKLOAD

Assigned teaching and related work averaged over a faculty member's two teaching semesters in the academic year will not exceed 50 hours per week, as measured by the aggregate of the following factors:

A. Academic Course Hours

1. Faculty members will teach from 9-16 academic course hours per week. An academic course hour is a fifty minute period scheduled for the instruction of a group of students.

2. Teaching after 6 p.m.

A faculty member, who in a span of any six of their teaching semesters teaches after 6 p.m. a total of more than the equivalent of three academic course hours per week for one semester, will be given extra credit as follows: Each academic course hour taught after 6 p.m. in excess of the above limit will be credited as a 1-1/2 academic course hour for all purposes of this Article except for the purpose of calculating course preparation hours under B. below, and for the purpose of calculating student contact hours under 10.2.

3. The maximum daily teaching span will be seven hours, including a meal period, except that once a week it may be eight hours, including a meal period. However, at the faculty member's request the daily teaching span will be extended to ten hours to achieve a four day work week. Should the Chair/Director be unable to accede to the request they shall so notify the faculty member in writing with reasons. Should the faculty member be dissatisfied with the reasons, they may appeal to an ad hoc committee consisting of an appointee of each of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs or designate, the Registrar, and the Association President. The decision of this committee shall be final.

B. Course Preparation Hours

1. For the first section of a new course, or a course not taught by the faculty member in the previous four years, three preparation hours for each academic course hour.

2. For the first section of a course taught within the previous four years, but not within the previous two years, including superseded courses in the same subject at the same level, two preparation hours for each academic course hour.
3. For the first section of a course taught within the previous two years, including superseded courses in the same subject at the same level, one preparation hour for each academic course hour.
4. If a course which would otherwise be covered by 2. or 3. above has undergone major changes in content or methodology since the last time the faculty member taught it, first section preparation credits will be as follows:
 - a) For a course not taught in the previous three years, three preparation hours for each academic course hour.
 - b) For a course taught in the previous three years, two preparation hours for each academic course hour.
5. For courses with more than six academic course hours per week, the first section preparation credits for the first six academic course hours will be as indicated in 1., 2., 3. and 4. above. For academic course hours after the first six, one preparation hour per academic course hour.
6. For each additional section of a course in 1., 2., 3., 4. or 5. above, 1/3 preparation hour for each academic course hour.

C. Student Evaluation and Academic Counselling Hours

1. For marking assignments, assessing student performance on tests and examinations, developing evaluation techniques, academic advising, and individual instruction, one evaluation and counselling hour for each nine students in each course taught. In courses where with the agreement of the faculty member marking assistance is provided, this credit will be reduced to a level determined by the Chair/Director. For the purpose of calculating evaluation and counselling hours, the number of students in any class or section is the number of students registered on July 1, November 1, or February 1.
2. Each faculty member will schedule at least one counselling hour per week for every three academic course hours assigned.

D. Routine Department/School Duties

No faculty member will be credited with less than one half-hour per week for the performance of routine Departmental/School duties such as Department/School Council meetings.

E. Curriculum Development

1. Before a faculty member undertakes to design a new course, or revise an existing course, the faculty member and the Chair/Director will agree in writing on the amount of time to be allowed for the task, on an hour-for-hour basis.
2. The amount of time so allowed will be deemed to be distributed evenly over the academic term for the purpose of this Article only.

F. Research Projects

Before a faculty member undertakes a research project with workload credit, the faculty member and the Chair/Director will agree in writing that at least 6 academic course hours per the academic year will be allowed for the task.

G. Special Assignments

1. Before a faculty member undertakes a special assignment, such as committee work or course coordination, the faculty member and the Chair/Director will agree in writing on the amount of time to be allowed for the assignment, on an hour-for-hour basis. Appropriate time on an hour-for-hour basis will also be allowed for assigned students in project, thesis, or independent study courses.
2. The amount of time so allowed will be deemed to be spread evenly over the academic term for the purpose of this Article only.

10.2 STUDENT CONTACT HOURS

The number of weekly student contact hours averaged over a faculty member's two teaching semesters in the academic year will not exceed 540. For the purpose of determining student contact hours, the number of students in any class or section is the number of students registered on July 1, November 1, or February 1.

10.3 PERMISSIBLE REASONS FOR REFUSAL OF TEACHING ASSIGNMENTS

A faculty member is entitled to refuse their teaching assignment before the beginning of a semester for any of the reasons listed below. Such refusal will not be cause for disciplinary action.

- A. The number of assigned weekly academic course hours for the semester exceeds 16.
- B. The sum of assigned weekly academic course hours over the two teaching semesters in the academic year exceeds 32.
- C. The teaching span exceeds eight hours on any one day or seven hours on any two or more days.
- D. The teaching span exceeds ten hours on any one day for a faculty member who, by their own request, is on a four day work week.
- E. The potential aggregate of weekly workload hours for the semester exceeds the faculty member's maximum average for the academic year by 20 per cent or more.
- F. The potential number of weekly student contact hours for the semester exceeds the faculty member's maximum average for the academic year by 20 per cent or more.

Note: The potential measures referred to in subsections E and F above are calculated by assuming that the number of students in any class or section on the official count date will equal the maximum number of students that will be allowed to register in that class or section.

10.4 REDRESS FOR ACTUAL WORKLOAD INFRACTIONS

- A. As soon as practicable after the February 1 count date, but not later than March 31, every faculty member will be issued a Workload Statement indicating their actual aggregate workload hours and student contact hours for the academic year. Copies of all Workload Statements will be forwarded to the Association at the time that they are issued to faculty members. Any subsequent changes or corrections will also be forwarded to the Association.
- B. Infractions of the aggregate workload hour limit and/or student contact hour limit will be redressed by reducing the faculty member's corresponding limit or limits for the next teaching year by 110% of the excess incurred. If these infractions are not addressed in the next teaching year, the reduction in the faculty member's corresponding limit or limits will accumulate until the redress is provided.
- C. To assist in the settlement of disputes involving the facts of the Workload Statement, a Workload Facts Committee consisting of an appointee of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs or designate, an appointee of the Association President, and a third person jointly appointed will review and verify relevant data.

10.5 CLASS OR SECTION SIZE

- A. A faculty member is entitled to refuse to teach the class or classes involved if, at any time during the semester, any one of their classes has a registered enrolment of more than 48 students or any two of their classes have registered enrolments of more than 44 students in each. Such refusal will not be cause for disciplinary action.
- B. Normally, class or section sizes will not reach the above refusal limits. With the agreement of the faculty member, a Chair/Director may combine classes or sections, provided effective teaching is not prejudiced thereby. With the agreement of the Chair/Director, a faculty member may combine classes or sections, provided effective teaching is not prejudiced thereby.

10.6 WORKLOAD INTERPRETATIONS

- A. In courses designated in the University Calendar as having two distinct teaching modes each of at least two academic course hours per week and having two distinct evaluation systems each weighted at least 25 per cent of the final grade, an evaluation and counselling credit of one hour for every nine students will be assigned for each teaching mode.
- B. When more than one faculty member has an assigned responsibility for a common group of students in a course, each faculty member will be credited with an appropriate share of the teaching workload factors, except as in C. below.
- C. For team-taught courses that, with the Dean's approval, require the simultaneous presence in class of more than one faculty member, each team member will be credited with the full academic course hours of the simultaneous instructional periods, and the preparation credits will be the average of full credit and prorated credit.

10.7 DECREASED TEACHING LOAD

With the approval of the Chair/Director, a tenured faculty member who has embarked on a program of professional improvement may accept a decreased teaching load at the University with a proportionate reduction in salary.

10.8 VOLUNTARY REDUCED WORKLOAD

- A. A tenured faculty member will be granted up to fifty percent reduction in teaching workload with a proportionate reduction in salary, provided that:
 - 1. the faculty member has a minimum full-time service of five years;
 - 2. the reduction normally will be effective for a twelve-month period;

3. the request is made to the Chair/Director six months in advance;
 4. the Chair/Director is able to make suitable arrangements to cover the remaining teaching workload;
 5. the University reserves the right to limit the number of faculty members on reduced workload at any one time to not more than ten per cent of the total number of faculty members;
 6. the University reserves the right to limit the number of faculty members on a fifty percent reduced teaching workload in a given Department/School at any one time to not more than ten per cent of the total number of faculty members of the Department/School.
- B. In order to facilitate gradual retirement, for tenured faculty members whose age plus years of University service equals 80 or more:
1. The provision of 10.8.A.4. above shall not apply;
 2. The University shall make every reasonable effort to accommodate such faculty members who request a fifty per cent teaching workload reduction with all of the required teaching done in one specified semester. Where the number of applicants for such a reduced teaching workload exceeds the limit in 10.8.A. 6. above, those applicants with the highest total of age and years of University service shall be granted the teaching workload reduction.
- C. Notwithstanding section 10.8.A.2. above, the University will make every reasonable effort, upon request, to grant voluntary reduced workload for periods longer than twelve months and/or renewals of twelve-month reduction periods, subject to the other provisions of 10.8.
- D.
1. During the period(s) of reduced workload/reduced salary, a faculty member shall receive benefits coverage as if they were employed on a full workload/full salary basis, and they shall make contributions accordingly, except that, as regards the Long-term Disability Plan, this provision shall be operative only for a maximum of two years and that thereafter for any remainder of the reduced workload/reduced salary period, the coverage under that Plan shall be provided on the basis of the reduced salary.
 2. Subject to applicable Pension Plan provisions, the faculty member and the University will continue to contribute to the Pension Plan on the basis of the faculty member's full normal salary level, with the objective of not affecting adversely either the faculty member's future pension or the funding basis of the Pension Plan. Each faculty member should seek the advice of the Human Resources Department in advance of requesting reduced workload to determine the effect, if any, of the specific provisions of the Pension Plan in which the faculty member is participating. In cases where the Pension Plan prohibits contributions on the basis of full normal salary, the University will pay the faculty member the balance of the contribution it would otherwise have had to make.

10.9 WORKLOAD OPTIONS

Faculty members appointed before January 1, 1992, may elect to accept the same range of academic duties and responsibilities required of faculty members appointed after December 31, 1991, and described in Mode II below as follows:

- A. A change in workload mode will be effective at the beginning of the Fall term and cannot be changed during an academic year.
- B. The faculty member will indicate in writing to their Chair/Director with a copy to the Dean on or before December 15 of their desire to change to Mode II workload provisions the following Fall term.
- C. On or before the following March 31 the faculty member and the Dean will agree in writing as to which focus of emphasis (Teaching or SRC duties as defined below in Mode II) will prevail.
- D. Once a faculty member commences working under the provisions of Mode II below they lose all rights to the workload provisions and protections of Mode I except those mentioned in this section on Workload Options. They also lose all rights, privileges, obligations and protections reserved elsewhere in this Agreement for faculty members appointed before January 1, 1992, and listed in Article 2.5 (Terms of Agreement – Grand Parenting Provisions), for as long as the faculty member is working under the provisions of Article 10, Mode II (Workload).
- E. During the first three years of working under the provision of Mode II the faculty member may, by giving notice in writing to the Chair/Director, with a copy to the Dean, on or before December 15, return to the workload provisions of Mode I effective the following Fall semester.
- F. The right to choose the provisions of Mode II of Article 10 (Workload) as articulated in 10.9.B. and 10.9.C. above may be exercised a total of three times. It is understood that the third such choice is final and binding such that the faculty member's workload and consequent rights, privileges, obligations, and protections will, until retirement, be those applicable to faculty members hired after December 31, 1991.

- G. No faculty member who has not exercised for the third time the choice described in 10.9.B. and 10.9.C. above will be required to elect the workload provisions applicable to faculty members hired after December 31, 1991.

10.10 CHANGES TO THE PROVISIONS OF MODE I

- A. Changes to Mode I of Article 10 (Workload) require negotiation and ratification by two-thirds of the faculty members hired before January 1, 1992, and still working under the provisions of Mode I.
- B. Changes to Mode I of Article 10 (Workload) cannot be made as a result of arbitration.
- C. Mode I of Article 10 (Workload) forms a part of this Agreement until all faculty members hired before January 1, 1992, have retired or are permanently under the provisions of Mode II of Article 10 (Workload), whichever comes first.

WORKLOAD PROVISIONS - MODE II

The workload provisions of Mode II of Article 10 (Workload) apply to all faculty members hired after December 31, 1991, and to those faculty members hired before January 1, 1992, who have made the choice described in 10.9 B. and C. of Mode I above.

10.11 ACADEMIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- A. The academic duties and responsibilities of faculty members shall be an appropriate combination of:
 1. teaching, curriculum development and student counselling, evaluation and supervision (hereinafter, "Teaching duties");
 2. administrative duties and service to the profession and community (hereinafter, "Service duties"); and,
 3. scholarly, research and creative activities (hereinafter, "SRC duties").
- B. The distribution of these responsibilities may vary among Departments/Schools and may vary between individual faculty members. The "appropriate combination" mentioned in A above is determined by University standards and local norms (i.e., within the Department/School and Faculty). All references, in earlier Collective Agreements, to Focus of Emphasis (Teaching or SRC) shall have no further force and effect in the administration of the Collective Agreement; but this notwithstanding, Focus of Emphasis shall be considered in tenure and promotion decisions as part of the faculty member's career history.

10.12 TEACHING DUTIESA. Teaching Responsibilities

Faculty members are obligated to develop and maintain their scholarly competence and effectiveness as teachers, and perform the teaching duties assigned to them. Faculty members' teaching responsibilities include, but need not be limited to, the following:

1. to prepare and to present courses which reflect the current state of knowledge and the course description in the University Calendar;
2. to adhere to the Senate's policy on Course Management;
3. to be available for student consultations, including the posting and observance of reasonable office hours (a minimum of one appropriately scheduled hour per week for every three academic course hours assigned);
4. to meet at scheduled times with lecture, tutorial, seminar, studio and laboratory groups; and to obtain advanced approval from the Chair/Director for any deviation from their teaching schedules or courses of studies;
5. to be responsible for the preparation, supervision, coordination and grading of all course assignments, tests and examinations;
6. to submit final grades as required by the University;
7. to serve as academic advisors in the preparation and defence of theses or projects;
8. to undertake special assignments; and,
9. to supervise the work of Teaching/Academic Assistants assigned to them.

B. Teaching Workload

Each faculty member shall receive a provisional teaching workload for the next academic year by May 15. This provisional workload may be changed at a later date, due to unforeseen operational requirements. Faculty members shall be provided their teaching schedule not less than ten (10) weeks prior to the commencement of the term. In the event of previously unforeseen circumstances this schedule may be changed before the commencement of the term. In such cases the change must be made as early as possible and with the agreement of the faculty member, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

Assignment of teaching load to a faculty member shall be determined in a fair, equitable and transparent manner, based on the existing Department/School Teaching Standard and shall depend on relevant factors including but not limited to the following:

1. the number of different courses or course areas taught by each faculty member;
2. the number of scheduled hours per course;
3. teaching and evaluation methods, and the number of hours of preparation, grading and administration per course;
4. the expected student enrolment in each class, and the total number of students in a faculty member's classes;
5. the number of hours of academic counselling and consulting per course;
6. the degree of teaching and/or marking support provided to the faculty member teaching a given course;
7. the type (lecture, studio, placement, fieldwork, practicum, laboratory, seminar, etc.) of each course;
8. the level (introductory, upper year, graduate etc.) of each course;
9. the availability of academic assistants;
10. additional hours of preparation for a new course or substantially revised course;
11. the amount of field, clinical, research, thesis, and other academic supervision of students;
12. supervisory responsibility for laboratory or tutorial sessions;
13. off-campus teaching.

C. Teaching Standard - Mode II

1. The maximum course load for tenure-stream faculty members will be four half course equivalents during an academic year, generally with two half course equivalents assigned in one semester and two half course equivalents in the other semester. This is the cap, but in the case of individual Departments/Schools, it may be lowered when Department/School practices or norms, as approved by the Dean, provide for a lower teaching load or through the process described in Article 10.17. Departments/Schools which have already achieved lower teaching assignments that are financially sustainable and academically sound will continue with their existing standard.
2. In individual cases where a tenured faculty member prefers a variation in the relative balance of teaching, SRC, and service activities, they may choose a teaching assignment one half course greater than the member's Department/School teaching standard. Where a tenured faculty member chooses such an increase in teaching assignment, there will be a reduced expectation of SRC engagement. A tenured faculty member shall notify their Chair/Director of their desire for increased teaching workload no later than December 1 of the preceding academic year. While a faculty member is entered into such an arrangement they cannot be assigned an additional course under Article 10.12.C.4 and entering into such an arrangement shall not be used as a reason to assign an additional course under Article 10.12.C.4. The change in relative levels of activities in teaching, SRC, and service resulting from such a voluntary arrangement will not be used as a rationale to give the faculty member a teaching assignment greater than the Department/School's teaching standard in the academic year immediately following the end of the voluntary arrangement. The Association shall be notified of all such arrangements.
3. Faculty members will teach a minimum of one half-course in each of the required two teaching terms. It is understood that there may be exceptions which are beneficial to both the faculty member and the Faculty and Department/School having regard to the workload assignment provisions of 10.12.B and a faculty member may request this and seek written approval from the Dean and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.
4. Notwithstanding 10.12.C.1. above, in unusual cases a tenured member's teaching assignment may be greater than the teaching standard in their academic unit, even where that standard is already at the cap provided for in 10.12.C.1. above, where such an increase is justified by that individual member's total contributions in teaching, SRC, and service activities over time.

If the Dean, based on an assessment that the faculty member has not met an acceptable level of SRC activity over the past two years, proposes to increase the teaching load of the faculty member to a level above the teaching standard in their academic unit, the Dean will notify the faculty member of the basis for this proposal in writing and provide the faculty member an opportunity to demonstrate

- a) that the member meets or has met an acceptable standard of SRC, including ongoing SRC activity that is reasonably expected to result in dissemination of research outcomes or scholarly/creative activities that is reasonably expected to result in dissemination of research outcomes or scholarly/creative activities over a reasonable period of time (by reference of their contributions over the last two years) or
- b) that the member has a plan for engaging in an acceptable level of SRC over the next twelve months.

The Dean will meet with the faculty member to discuss the matter, and if the Dean nonetheless concludes that the faculty member's SRC activities or planned SRC activities (as defined in a) and b) above) is unacceptable, the Dean may in writing notify the member of the assignment of additional teaching load in the upcoming academic year, with a statement of reasons for the increase, with a copy to the Association. If the faculty member produces a plan acceptable to the Dean, but over the next twelve months there has been no reengagement as proposed in the plan, the Dean may assign an additional teaching load in the upcoming academic year. In any event, the increase in the teaching workload shall be no more than one half course equivalent per academic year.

In determining whether a faculty member should be assigned the additional teaching load, the Dean shall have regard to any other relevant factors affecting the faculty member's total contributions in teaching, SRC and service activities. This is a collegial process intended to re-engage a faculty member in SRC activities.

At the faculty member's request, after at least one year and thereafter no more than once per year, a meeting will be held to review any changes to the total workload contribution and a return to the teaching standard.

5. Faculty members will not teach more than twelve (12) academic course hours per week averaged over the term. An academic course hour is a fifty minute period scheduled for the instruction of students. For the purpose of calculating academic course hours the time spent teaching in studio format is deemed to be equivalent to that spent in classroom teaching.

6. Subject to Article 10.12.C.1. above, in a given academic year, a faculty member may, with their consent, teach more than two or three half-course equivalents in one semester (whichever is applicable), provided there is a corresponding reduction in their academic course hours in the other semester. The Association will be notified of any such arrangement.
- D. The maximum daily teaching span will be seven hours, including a meal period, except that once a week it may be eight hours including a meal period. However, by mutual agreement, the daily teaching span may be extended to ten hours to achieve a four day teaching week.
- E. A faculty member shall not be required in any academic year to teach more than one full course (one two-semester course) or two half-courses that begin at or after 6 p.m. (A course taught on a Saturday shall be deemed equivalent to an evening course as mentioned in this paragraph.) Where there are available scheduled courses, a faculty member may request up to two (2) evening courses per academic year as part of their regular normal workload but in no case will this be required.
- F. Faculty members will not be required to teach more than two semesters in any academic year. Notwithstanding the fact that the non-teaching term is normally Spring-Summer, in any given year by mutual agreement a faculty member may elect the Fall or Winter as a non-teaching term.
- G. The University is committed to supporting faculty members through the provision of Academic Assistants and hence the level of support from Academic Assistants will, as a minimum, be maintained at the 2015/16 academic year and continue in accordance with current Faculty and Department/School practices or as indicated in the Department/School teaching standard. It is understood that where there is a change in course delivery, enrolment or other similar factors that reduces the need for Academic Assistants, reallocation may be made within individual Faculties.
- H. Pre-tenure faculty members in their first year will teach one less half-course than the Department/School standard. At the pre-tenure member's request this half-course reduction may be deferred to any semester during the probationary period.
- I. Notwithstanding the local definition of a course, a member who is assigned three courses in one semester and two in the other semester of an academic year will have fewer assigned academic course hours in the two-course semester than in the three-course semester.
- J. Workload Redress

1. A faculty member who believes that the workload provisions, as they apply in the member's Department/School, have been violated may ask that the Dean review their teaching assignment in terms of the Department/School teaching standard and SRC and Service activities. If the Dean agrees with the faculty member they shall record in writing a mutually satisfactory resolution of the violation. Such resolutions may be, but are not limited to, agreements involving adjustment of the current workload, appropriate workload reduction in the following semester or academic year, or support from academic assistant(s).
2. If the Dean disagrees with the faculty member, the faculty member may request that their workload be evaluated by a three person ad hoc committee drawn from the membership of the FPC, one selected by the faculty member, another by the Dean and a third mutually agreeable person to serve as chair. If there is a dispute involving the facts of the teaching workload assigned, a Workload Facts Committee consisting of an appointee of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs or designate, an appointee of the Association President, and a third person jointly appointed will review and verify relevant data. The decision of the ad hoc committee is binding on both the Dean and the faculty member.

The ad hoc committee referred to in this section will normally report its decision no later than 45 days after the request for a review of their workload as made by the faculty member.

- K. With the approval of the Chair/Director, a tenured faculty member who has embarked on a program of professional improvement may accept a decreased workload at the University with a proportionate reduction in salary.

10.13 SRC DUTIES

- A. Faculty members have the right and responsibility to devote a reasonable proportion of their time to scholarly, research or creative activities so as to contribute to the advancement and application of knowledge in their discipline/field as well as to maintain discipline currency.
- B. Faculty members shall indicate in their published or exhibited work(s) their affiliation with the University and acknowledge the work and cooperation of others.
- C. Faculty members have the right to choose the topics or areas in which they will carry out their SRC duties.
- D. As set out below, SRC can and does take on a diversity of forms.

Beyond applying for grants and/or other forms of support from appropriate public and private agencies, it is understood that peer review of SRC activities constitutes a cornerstone of academic scholarship. In those disciplines where peer refereed publication is not the norm, the results of such work shall be accessible to and recognized through impartial assessment by the relevant scholarly community.

SRC shall include but not be limited to the following:

1. research, scholarly or creative projects/investigations or works conducted individually or in cooperation with others, so that the results or products/creations are (i) published in academic and/or professional journals, public reports, conference proceedings, or as patents or (ii) presented/exhibited at conferences, seminars or showings;
2. studies, works, writings or creative productions that are published as books, chapters in books, monographs or disseminated by other suitable means;
3. experimentation with classroom, laboratory, studio and fieldwork techniques and formats, creative works and processes, etc.;
4. active supervision of graduate students to successful degree completion and/or in the activities in listed 1 and 2 above;
5. other scholarly, research or creative activities as recommended by a Department/School and approved by the Dean.

10.14 SERVICE DUTIES

A. Service to the University

1. Consistent with their primary teaching and scholarly responsibilities, faculty members shall share in the governance of their Department/School to a reasonable extent and their Faculty through active membership on appropriate bodies such as Department/School councils, and shall participate to a reasonable extent in other University bodies including Department/School, and University committees, Senate and the Board, when called upon to do so or when elected to such bodies.
2. While carrying out administrative duties, faculty members shall treat academic colleagues, other employees and students ethically, so that objectivity and fairness are maintained in all deliberations, including assessment of performance of any colleague, other employee or student. Faculty members shall observe the principles of confidentiality in a manner consistent with the performance of their collegial responsibilities.

- B. Service to the Profession and the Community
1. Faculty members have the right to participate in the work of learned societies, professional associations and union/labour organizations, including the Faculty Association, the Ontario Confederation of University Faculty Associations, and the Canadian Association of University Teachers. When a faculty member's service to such bodies conflicts with scheduled teaching and/or administrative duties, the faculty member shall make alternate arrangements subject to the approval of their Chair/Director or equivalent to ensure that such scheduled teaching and/or administrative duties are fulfilled. A faculty member's service to such societies and associations shall be considered in the assessment of the academic performance of the faculty member.
 2. Faculty members are encouraged to serve the community in a manner that enhances the reputation of the University. However, except when specifically authorized to speak on behalf of the University, faculty members must make it clear that their positions and opinions are personal.

10.15 VOLUNTARY REDUCED WORKLOAD

- A. A tenured member of faculty will be granted up to a fifty per cent reduction in academic workload with a proportionate reduction in salary, provided that:
1. the faculty member has a minimum full-time service of five years;
 2. the reduction normally will be effective for a twelve-month period;
 3. the request is made to the Chair/Director six months in advance;
 4. the Chair/Director is able to make suitable arrangements to cover the faculty member's teaching and Departmental/School service functions which are part of the reduction;
 5. the reduction, unless otherwise agreed to by the Chair/Director and approved by the Dean, will be prorated across the Teaching, SRC and Service components of the faculty member's normal workload;
 6. the reduction does not abrogate the faculty member's obligation to complete any contractual obligations that form a part of an SRC or Service project to which the faculty member was obligated prior to requesting a reduced workload; and
 7. it is understood that the University reserves the right to limit the number of faculty members on reduced workload at any one time to not more than ten percent of the total number of faculty and to limit the number of faculty members on a fifty percent reduced workload in a given Department/School to not more than ten per cent of the total number of faculty members of the Department/School.

- B. In order to facilitate gradual retirement, for tenured faculty members whose age plus years of University service equals 80 or more:
1. the provision of 10.15.A.4 above shall not apply; and,
 2. the University shall make every reasonable effort to accommodate such faculty members who request a fifty per cent workload reduction with all of the work done in one specified semester. Where the number of applicants for such a reduced workload exceeds the Department/School limit in 10.15.A.7 above, those applicants with the highest total of age and years of University service shall be granted the workload reduction.
 3. The maximum number of years a faculty member is eligible for reduced workload under 10.15.B is limited to four (4) years over a six (6) year period. This does not include any years prior to July 1, 2020 that the faculty member was on a reduced workload pursuant to these provisions.
- C. Notwithstanding section 10.15.A.2 above, the University will make every reasonable effort, upon request, to grant voluntary reduced workload for periods longer than twelve months and/or renewals of twelve-month reduction periods subject to the other provisions of 10.15.A above.
1. During the period(s) of reduced workload/reduced salary, a faculty member shall receive benefits coverage as if they were employed on a full workload/full salary basis, and they shall make contributions accordingly, except that, as regards the Long-term Disability Plan, this provision shall be operative only for a maximum of two years and that thereafter for any remainder of the reduced workload/reduced salary period, the coverage under the Plan shall be provided on the basis of the reduced salary.
 2. Subject to applicable Pension Plan provisions, the faculty member and the University will continue to contribute to the Pension Plan on the basis of the faculty member's full normal salary level, with the objective of not affecting adversely either the faculty member's future pension or the funding basis of the Pension Plan. Each faculty member should seek the advice of the Human Resources Department in advance of requesting reduced workload to determine the effect, if any, of the specific provisions of the Pension Plan in which the faculty member is participating. In cases where the Pension Plan prohibits contributions on the basis of the full normal salary, the University will pay the faculty member the balance of the contribution it would have otherwise have had to make.

10.16 THE ACADEMIC YEAR

It is recognized that the three components of the academic duties and responsibilities described in 10.11 A above will generally be distributed unevenly across the three terms depending on such factors as when the faculty member is assigned to do their teaching, the balance among Teaching and SRC duties, the amount of administrative responsibilities involved in the service component, etc.

10.17 DEPARTMENTAL/SCHOOL TEACHING STANDARD FOR MODE II TENURE STREAM FACULTY

- A. Definition of Teaching Standard: The teaching standard is the normal teaching workload in a Department/School, including the definition of a course. The teaching standard may vary from discipline to discipline.
- B. The Department/School teaching standard shall be made available to Mode II members through Department/School offices and shall be distributed to all new members.
- C. Each Faculty will constitute a Faculty Teaching Standards Committee which shall consist of the Department Chair/School Director and one elected Mode II faculty member from each Department/School. Normally members serve for two (2) years on the Faculty Teaching Standards Committee, the terms to be overlapping. In the first year of this agreement, half the terms will be for one year, the decision to be made by lot. A chair will be elected by and from the members of the Faculty Teaching Standards Committee. The purpose of the Faculty Teaching Standards Committee is to review and comment on Departmental/School proposed teaching standards to promote equity, transparency, and academic quality across the Faculty. This committee will develop its own procedures. By September 30 of each year the Chair of the committee shall forward the names of the members of the committee and the name of the Chair to the Dean, the Vice-Provost, Faculty affairs and the Association.

- D. Each Department/School may develop or alter a teaching standard provided that the standard:
1. Is in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, including Article 7 and the academic responsibilities of members in Article 10;
 2. Ensures that the academic program obligations of the Department/School can be met;
 3. Ensures that the assignment of scheduled duties of members in the Department/School is carried out as equitably as possible;
 4. Addresses normal teaching activities, including but not limited to: curriculum development and revision, preparation and presentation of courses (including mode of delivery); supervision of students (including interns, placement, practicum, field, clinical, thesis and research supervision of undergraduate and graduate students); evaluation; academic counselling; supervising teaching and academic assistants, course administration, instructional development;

1. When a vacancy has been approved for staffing, the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing shall convene a meeting of the Counselling Appointment Committee (CAC).

Where appropriate, the University shall arrange a training workshop. The workshop shall be conducted jointly by the Association and the University and shall include instruction by the University with regard to the CAC's legal obligations and duties under the Agreement and Any CAC member who does not attend the workshop(s) shall not be eligible to be a member of a CAC, except when a member who missed their workshop provides a reasonable explanation for their absence to the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing or designate. In addition, the University will deliver training workshops for Equity Advocates and for any CAC members who also wish to attend. The Office of the Vice-President, Equity and Community Inclusion (OVPECI) shall provide to the Equity Advocate and the committee chair relevant information from the University's Employee Diversity Self-ID Data.

Members of the CAC are responsible for declaring any conflicts of interest and shall respond to such conflicts according to the provisions of Article 21.

The Human Resource Department representative will not participate in the deliberations of the CAC and will not attend CAC meetings with members or interviews with potential Professional Counsellors. 3. The probationary Professional Counsellor shall sign the report to signify that they have read the review and has discussed their performance at the meeting with the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing and the clinical supervisor. The signature does not indicate that the member agrees with the performance evaluation.
4. The member shall have the right to respond in writing to the assessment review.
5. If at any time during the probationary period, the probationary member is not demonstrating satisfactory progress in meeting the standards expected of a career Professional Counsellor, the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing and the clinical supervisor shall indicate clearly any areas of performance which need improvement, and shall provide the probationary member with a reasonable period of time for such improvement. If after this period of time the probationary member is still not demonstrating satisfactory progress, the clinical supervisor may recommend dismissal to the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing.

 - a) That the member be transferred to Career status;
 - b) That the probationary period be extended for up to one year either where the probationary member's performance has been marginally satisfactory and may be expected to improve, or where the probationary period has not provided a suitable opportunity for the

- member to demonstrate satisfactory performance; or,
- c) That the member's employment be terminated for failure to meet the standards expected of a career Professional Counsellor.
8. The Vice-Provost, Students, and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs shall review the recommendation of the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing. The Vice-Provost, Students, and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs shall either
 - a) confirm the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing's recommendation and cause it to be implemented, or

 4. The Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing shall consider such a request and, within one month of the date of receipt of the request in writing, inform the Counsellor, in writing, of the approval or denial. Operational requirements shall be the determining factor in granting or denying such leave. All requests shall be considered and the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing shall not unreasonably deny a bona fide request submitted.
 5. While on Leave of Absence without pay, the member is responsible for the payment of their benefit costs and premiums and pension contributions, if so elected. The cost of participation in the available benefits will be paid entirely by the Professional Counsellor annually in advance. Where the approved leave was granted for educational or compassionate reasons, the University will refund to the Professional Counsellor upon their return to active employment that portion of the premiums which it would normally have paid had the Professional Counsellor been in active employment.
 6. Association dues will be paid by the Professional Counsellor concerned in advance for the period of the authorized leave without pay. Payment will be made to the University, which will turn over any such collected dues to the Association together with the next remittance of dues deducted from the salary of other members (Article 2.4 C.).

Vacation credits shall accumulate on a monthly basis, at a rate of 2.083 days per completed month of service during the first twelve (12) years of service; thereafter, vacation credits shall accumulate at the rate of 2.5 days per completed month of service. Vacation credit may be accumulated to a maximum of double the annual entitlement. No further credits will be granted once a member reaches the maximum accumulation, unless the vacation balance is reduced below the maximum entitlement.

15.9 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT TIME

Effective July 1, 2023, Professional Counsellors are entitled to ten (10) professional development days. All professional development days are, where reasonably practical, to be requested seven (7) days in advance and will be granted subject to operational requirements. Requests for professional development days made less than 7 days in advance are at the discretion of the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing. In either case, approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

Article 14 (Performance and Conduct File) shall apply to the Professional Counsellors.

15.15 HUMAN RESOURCE REDUCTIONS

- A. The first duty of the University is to ensure that academic priorities remain paramount. When faced with financial constraints, Human Resources reductions would be a measure of last resort in solving budget difficulties.
- B. Should a reduction in the number of Professional Counsellors be necessary for any reason, the University will utilize where possible normal retirement, voluntary early retirements, voluntary reduced workloads, and unpaid leaves of absence to ameliorate the effects of redundancy.
- C. Should there be a need to reduce the number of Professional Counsellors on staff the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, the Vice-Provost, Students, and the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing shall consult with the Professional Counsellors about the need to reduce.
- D. Once confirmed by the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, the need to reduce the number of Professional Counsellors shall be communicated in writing to the President of the Association. The Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the President of the Association together will review the formal academic qualifications of all Professional Counsellors with a view to determining whether there are any who hold academic qualifications and have had the professional experience required by any academic Department/School in the University.
 - 1. Professional Counsellors with such qualifications and experience shall be consulted as to their willingness to be assigned to a teaching workload in the relevant Department/School. Such willingness shall not entail any loss of relative seniority in the counselling centre should a transfer assignment be arranged.
 - 2. If one or more Professional Counsellors expresses interest in assignment to an academic Department/School, the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the President of the Association shall seek a meeting with the appropriate Dean(s) and Chair(s)/Director(s) to ascertain whether there is available a suitable teaching load. If such work is available, the DHC(s) shall assess the qualifications and experience of the Professional Counsellor(s) for the available load and interview the Professional Counsellor(s). The DHC(s) will recommend to the Dean and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs that an acceptable and willing Professional Counsellor be assigned to the teaching load identified. If this teaching load is a full workload and is judged to be available for three or more years, the Professional Counsellor so assigned shall be deemed a probationary faculty member in the Department/School and the provisions described in Article 5 (Evaluation) shall be followed with the understanding that should the decision of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs concerning transfer be unfavourable the candidate shall return to the Counselling Centre at the end of the term during which the decision was rendered.

Should the receiving Department/School at some future date be faced with a redundancy situation (see Article 22, Financial Exigency and Article 23, Redundancy), the aforementioned Counsellor's seniority within the receiving Department/School shall be interpreted as commencing from the date on which they assumed the full teaching load. Should the result be the identification of the Professional Counsellor as redundant within the receiving department then they will be transferred back to the Counselling Centre with a seniority equal to their original seniority plus the additional amount developed within the receiving Department/School.

- E. If the provisions of clause D. above are not successful:
1. Professional Counsellors who may be considered for lay-off shall be those with least seniority and the total number under consideration shall not exceed twice the number of redundant positions.
 2. The Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing, after consultation with the Professional Counsellors, will determine on the basis solely of seniority and ability which Professional Counsellors are to be laid off and will so recommend to the Vice-Provost, Students and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs. For this determination, seniority and ability shall weigh equally. In assessing ability, the following are some of the guidelines to be followed:
 - a) performance as a Professional Counsellor;
 - b) professional self-development;
 - c) contribution to the counselling centre environment.
 3. If a Professional Counsellor who has expertise in a counselling specialization where no other Professional Counsellor has or can acquire within a reasonable time such expertise, then such a Counsellor may not be considered for layoff. A written rationale for such a situation shall be reported to the Counselling Redundancy Review Committee (CRRC) - see 4. immediately below.

4. As soon as a proposed Counselling Centre redundancy list is completed, it will be reviewed by the CRRC consisting of three members of the Association: an appointee of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, an appointee of the Association Executive and a mutually acceptable third appointee as chair. No Professional Counsellor will serve on the CRRC.

The CRRC will establish its own procedures and will review the recommendations of the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing, the Vice-Provost, Students, and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, which will set out the results of the consultation with the Professional Counsellors. On completion of the review, the CRRC will issue a confidential report to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs with copies to the President, the Association President, and the Vice-Provost, Students.

5. After due consideration of the CRRC report, the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs will notify the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing and the Vice-Provost, Students of their decision. Within ten days of receipt from the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs of a written decision to proceed with the lay-off(s), the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing will notify, as soon as possible and in no case later than six months before the date of lay-off, the affected Professional Counsellor(s) of their lay-off status and the options open to such Professional Counsellor(s). In all cases the lay-off date shall be the immediately next January 1 or July 1 following the six months' notice from the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing.

- F. From the date of notice to the date of lay-off, the Professional Counsellor shall retain their status as a Professional Counsellor unless a voluntary separation agreement has been arranged. On the separation date:
 1. they will receive a separation allowance equal to one-half month's salary per year of service to a maximum of six months' salary;
 2. they will waive all rights of participation in the Professional Counsellor Re-employment Service; and
 3. they will retain their right of recall (see H. below) and their right of Grievance (see Article 9 (Grievances)) with respect to recall.
- G. If the Counsellor has not exercised the right of voluntary separation (F. above) by the lay-off date, or in the case of a grievance extending beyond the lay-off date, within seven days of the confirmation of the lay-off, then on the appropriate date they shall either:

1. accept employment separation in accordance with paragraph F. above, or
 2. enter the Counsellor Re-employment Service described in Appendix C (Re-employment Program (Professional Counsellors)).
- H. Within three years of being laid off, the Counsellor shall be offered by registered mail the first available Counsellor appointment for which they are qualified. Where more than one Counsellor has been laid off, offers shall be made to laid-off Counsellors in inverse order of their lay-offs. A reasonable period shall be provided for taking up the offer in order to enable the laid-off Counsellor to fulfill any current employment obligations. An offer made to a laid-off Counsellor under this paragraph, but refused by the Professional Counsellor without compelling grounds, extinguishes all rights under the provisions of this paragraph.
- I. Within three years of the date of lay-off, a Professional Counsellor who has been laid off may apply in writing to the Chair/Director of a Department/School for which they feel qualified for an appointment to the probationary faculty to be notified by registered mail of all probationary teaching positions which become available and which have not been filled by faculty entitled to these positions under the provisions of Article 24.1. The Professional Counsellor, should they apply for such a position within twenty-one days of the mailing date, shall be interviewed by the appropriate hiring committee for the available position(s). This interview shall take place before any general advertisement of the position(s) is/are undertaken.
- J. Within three years of the date of lay-off, a Professional Counsellor who has been laid off may apply in writing to the Chief Human Resources Officer to be notified of any support position vacancy for which they are qualified or could become qualified within twelve months on the job. Should they apply for such a position, they will be subject to the usual hiring practices of the University, and they will be considered along with other internal candidates for the position and in accordance with any other relevant collective agreement, having due regard to the promotion expectations of others within the department, but before outside advertisement is undertaken. Where a larger LAC is appropriate the committee may be expanded through the addition of one elected career status Librarian and one appointed member; the latter may be drawn from other than the Library depending on the needs of the LAC for particular expertise, but shall normally be either a career status Librarian or a tenured faculty member. Members of the LAC will select/elect an Equity Advocate from among the members of the LAC.

The LAC will take into account the University's strong commitment to fostering equity, diversity and inclusion within its community, in all aspects of the recruitment efforts including establishing equity goals for the search, developing a diversity outreach strategy and considering ways to remove barriers to candidates in the recruitment process.

When required, the University shall arrange a training workshop. The workshop shall be conducted jointly by the Association and the University and shall include instruction by the University with regard to the LAC's legal obligations and duties under the Agreement and University policies, including equity. Any LAC member who does not attend the workshop(s) shall not be eligible to be a member of a LAC, except when a member who missed the workshop provides a reasonable explanation for their absence to their Associate Dean of Libraries. Members of the LAC are responsible for declaring any conflicts of interest and shall respond to such conflicts according to the provisions of Article 21.

Members of the LAC are bound by confidentiality in their deliberations about individual candidates. They may have confidential discussions with Association or Administration representatives on any matter of concern. Otherwise, only the Chair of the committee is authorized to communicate, as specified in this Article, on behalf of the committee.

2. The responsibilities of the LAC shall be to conduct suitable search procedures for new positions, to recommend a candidate for each position, and to conduct assessments of probationary members.

All notices of vacancy will include a statement confirming that the position falls within the Faculty Association, a link to the Faculty Association Collective Agreement, a link to the Faculty Association's website, and a link to University's Faculty Association Benefits Summary.

Each LAC will have assigned to it a member of the University's Human Resources Department in order to assist that LAC in complying with the terms of this Agreement with respect to the recruitment, selection and assessment of members. The Human Resource Department representative will not participate in the deliberations of the LAC and will not attend LAC meetings with members or interviews with potential Librarians. The contribution of the Human Resource Department representative will consist of guidance, coaching and training of members of the LAC, where the members of the LAC and the Human Resources Department Representative both see such as appropriate, on the terms of the Agreement and University policy, as they apply to the activities of the LAC.

3. The Chair of LAC shall forward a report including a section prepared by the LAC Chair with the Equity Advocate, regarding how the hiring was consistent with the obligations and suggested practices provided in LAC training and guides, along with their own recommendation, to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, whose responsibility it is to authorize appointments.

Any reference

within this letter to SRC and/or professional development activities shall be broad and qualitative in nature. The letter of appointment will include the probationary member's start date and their annual salary rate. Further, the letter of appointment will state that this annual salary rate is for the applicable appointment year (the appointment letter will include the start and end date of the appointment year), and that such salary rate will not be increased by any increments during the applicable appointment year which have been, are being, or will be negotiated between the University and the Association.

D. Probationary Period

1. The probationary period for Librarians shall be two years.
2. The probationary appointment may be extended for up to one year in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 16.6.E.

The Associate Dean of Libraries shall be responsible for the LAC conducting the formal review and for producing an assessment report. The formal assessments by the members of the LAC, or summaries of them, shall be incorporated into the LAC's report. The LAC shall also consult with the probationary member's administrative unit/department head, if any. The report shall indicate clearly any areas of performance which are not meeting the standards expected of a career Librarian. The Dean of Libraries shall meet with the LAC to review the assessments and the LAC report. 2. The Dean of Libraries shall provide the member with a written copy of the report, as well as their letter as referenced in paragraph 1. above, at least five days in advance of meeting with the member to discuss their performance.
3. The probationary Librarian shall sign the report to signify that they have read the review and has discussed their performance at the meeting with the Dean of Libraries. The signature does not indicate that the member agrees with the performance evaluation.

4. The member shall have the right to respond to their assessment review and the Dean of Libraries' letter.
5. If at any time during the probationary period, including prior to or subsequent to any of the sixth or fourteenth month reviews, the probationary member is not demonstrating satisfactory progress in meeting the standards expected of a career Librarian, the Dean of Libraries shall indicate clearly any areas of performance which need improvement, and shall provide the probationary member with a reasonable period of time for such improvement. If after this period of time the probationary member is still not demonstrating satisfactory progress, the Dean of Libraries may recommend dismissal pursuant to Article 16.6.E, or Article 20.2 D.
6. No later than one month before the end of the probationary period, that is at the twenty-third month, the LAC shall have concluded a final assessment of the probationary member's performance in accordance with Article 16.6.E. A copy of this report shall be given to the probationary member, to the Dean of Libraries and to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, and shall include the recommendation of the LAC, and all LAC assessments or summaries thereof, including any written opinions dissenting from the LAC's recommendation.

The LAC's recommendation and supporting rationale will be provided to the probationary member for their comments. If the probationary member wishes to comment, they shall provide their comments in writing to the LAC and the Dean of Libraries within two (2) weeks of the LAC's recommendation.

The LAC shall render one of three recommendations to the Dean of Libraries:

- a) that the member be transferred to career status;
- b) that the probationary period be extended for up to one year either where the probationary member's performance has been marginally satisfactory and may be expected to improve, or where the probationary period has not provided a suitable opportunity for the member to demonstrate satisfactory performance; or
- c) that the member's employment be terminated for failure to meet the standards expected of a career Librarian.

Where (b) above is the recommendation, the LAC, through the Chair of the LAC, will indicate in writing to the probationary member any areas of improvement required in order to meet the standards expected for a career Librarian.

7. The Dean of Libraries shall, upon receipt of the LAC recommendation and any written comments provided by the probationary member, render one of two recommendations:
 - a) they accept the recommendation of the LAC and recommends its implementation to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs; or

The workshop shall be conducted jointly by the Association and the University and shall include instruction by the University with regard to the LPC's legal obligations and duties under the Agreement and University policies, including the values of equity, diversity and inclusion. Any LPC member who does not attend the workshop(s) shall not be eligible to be a member of a LPC, except when a member who missed the workshop provides a reasonable explanation for their absence to an Associate Dean of Libraries LPC Chair in which case the training will be provided. In addition, the University will deliver training workshops for the Equity Advocate and for any LPC members who also wish to attend.

- b) In the case of application for promotion to the rank of Librarian IV, at least two of the three Librarian committee members shall be from the rank of Librarian IV only. - c) Notwithstanding b) immediately above, for the initial transition, and unless there are at least two Librarians promoted to the rank of Librarian IV or recommended and approved by the Vice-Provost for such promotion, and who are available to serve on the LPC, an applicable number of external career (tenured) Librarians deemed to be at equal to or greater rank being sought shall be asked to join the LPC. One shall be appointed by the Dean of Libraries and two shall be elected, provided they have been nominated, by the Librarians. Where fewer than three external Librarians are required, the first shall be elected and the second shall be appointed. The external Librarians will be added to the LPC formed as provided for in Article 16.6.D.1(a) and this expanded LPC will only assess the applications for promotion to Librarian IV. Any other applications for promotion to Librarian III that year will be assessed by the LPC formed as provided for in Article 16.6.D.1(a).
- d) Members of the LPC are bound by confidentiality in their deliberations about individual candidates. They may have confidential discussions with Association or Administration representatives on any matter of concern. Otherwise, only the Chair of the committee is authorized to communicate, as specified in this Article, on behalf of the committee.

Members of the LPC are responsible for declaring any conflicts of interest and shall respond to such conflicts according to the provisions of Article 21.

Reasonable notice shall be given. The candidate has a right to decline such an invitation. The candidate can also choose to meet with the LPC.
2. For promotion from the rank of Librarian II to Librarian III, the members of the LPC must consider the assessment of the applicant's satisfaction of the criteria in Article 16.7.E.1 as judged by two (2) external referees. The referees shall normally hold the rank of Librarian III or its faculty equivalent or higher in an academic institution and shall be recognized in the applicant's area of SRC or librarianship. One of the referees is to be named by the applicant and the other referee will be named by the Dean of Libraries. All external evaluations shall come to the LPC Chair, duly signed by the author. A copy of all external evaluations shall be provided to each member of the LPC.
3. For promotion from the rank of Librarian III to Librarian IV, the members of the LPC must consider the assessment of applicant's satisfaction of the criteria in Article 16.7.E.2 as judged by three (3) referees external to the Library and at least two of which will be external to the University. The referees shall normally hold the rank of Librarian IV or its faculty equivalent in an academic institution. The LPC shall provide a copy of the letter of recommendation to the candidate, and the external referee reports with the names of any identifying information redacted. If the candidate wishes to respond, they will provide their comments in writing to the Dean of Libraries within two weeks of receipt of the LPC recommendation.

In cases of promotion from the rank of Librarian II to Librarian III or in cases of promotion from the rank of Librarian III to Librarian IV where all of the external referees recommend against the promotion of the applicant to the rank of Librarian III or IV, denial of the promotion shall be automatic unless the promotion is recommended by the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.

The Dean of Libraries will review the assessment and recommendation of the LPC, the Librarian's response, if any, the evaluations of the external referees, along with the Performance and Conduct File (PCF) for each member who has applied for promotion and will meet with the LPC to discuss their recommendation and response from the member, if any. After this review, the Dean of Libraries will forward to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs the summary of assessments, recommendation of the LPC, the response from the member, a copy of the evaluations by the external referees, (as outlined in 16.7.G.2 and 3 above), along with their recommendation. At the same time, the Dean of Libraries will inform the applicant, in writing, of the LPC's recommendation and their recommendation and the reasons for such decisions and provide the applicant with copies of the summary of assessments and the LPC's and their recommendation.

The Dean of Libraries shall render one of two recommendations:

10. A copy of the LPC's assessment and recommendations as well as any rebuttal shall be placed in the Librarian's PCF.
11. Librarians who are denied promotion shall not be eligible, for a period of two years, to apply for promotion from the date of application.
12. Denial of promotion may be grieved only if the Vice-Provost overturns the decision of the Library Promotion Committee, and/or in cases based on alleged discrimination or lack of due process.

6. any other documentation relevant to a Librarian's professional activities, SRC or service duties in addition to the above.

16.8 LEAVES OF ABSENCE

A. Without Pay

1. Leave of absence without pay may be granted to a career Librarian for a period of time mutually agreeable to the University and the member. In no case shall such a leave exceed a period of 12 consecutive months.
2. A member desiring a Leave of Absence without pay shall apply in writing to the Dean of Libraries stating the purpose and duration of the leave. Such requests shall be made with as much notice as possible, but in no case, with less than six months' notice prior to the requested date of such leave.
3. The Dean of Libraries shall consider such a request and, within one month of the date of receipt of the request in writing, inform the Librarian, in writing, of the approval or denial. The Library's operational requirements shall be the determining factor in granting or denying such leave. All requests, however, shall be considered and the Dean of Libraries shall not unreasonably deny a bona fide request submitted within the process and time limits established.
4. A member on leave without pay is eligible to continue their Group Life Insurance at the rate in effect immediately prior to the commencement of leave and to participate in the Long-term Disability Plan.
5. The cost of participation in the available benefits will be paid entirely by the member annually in advance. Where the approved leave was granted for educational or compassionate reasons, the University will refund to the member upon their return to active employment that portion of the premiums which it would normally have paid had the member been in active employment.
6. Association dues will be paid by the member concerned in advance for the period of the authorized leave without pay. Payment will be made to the University which will turn over any such collected dues to the Association together with the next remittance of dues deducted from the salary of other members (Article 2.4 C. (Terms of Agreement – Membership in the Association)).

B. Leaves with Pay

1. The University and the Association agree that taking paid (sabbatical) leave is considered an investment toward increasing both the quality of programs of study and the scholarly, research, and creative activities at the University by allowing an eligible Librarian:
 - a) to devote more time to scholarship, research and/or creative activities, and/or
 - b) to acquire relevant experience in areas related to an area of specialization, with the objective of enabling them to make their professional practice more complete and more appropriate to the needs of the Library or other departments within the University.
2. Paid (sabbatical) leaves will be for periods of 6 months or 12 months. Twelve-month leaves are taken September 1 to August 31, or January 1 to December 31. Six-month leaves are taken January 1 to June 30, or July 1 to December 31.
3. A career Librarian must apply in writing on a University supplied form and submit it to the Dean of Libraries by October 15 prior to the academic year in which they plan to start their leave. The application will state the purpose of the leave and the accomplishments expected.
4. By December 1 the Dean of Libraries makes a decision based on the operational requirements of the Library and if the leave cannot be approved based on operational requirements, the provisions of 16.8.B.8 below apply. By the following January 31 the applicant shall be advised of the University's decision through the Office of the Vice- Provost, Faculty Affairs. The applicant shall complete and sign the requisite memorandum of agreement from the Office of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs by March 31.
5. The Dean of Libraries may approve up to three positions per year, or a combination of more than three, but adding up to no more than the equivalent of three career positions; for example six Librarians at six months each.
6. Only career Librarians with a minimum of six years' service may apply. Periods of leave of 6 months or more with or without pay, including periods of long-term disability, do not lead to qualifying years of service. Periods on pregnancy/parental/adoption leave and secondments qualify as years of service. Years of service for the purposes of paid leaves will accrue on a prorated basis during periods of reduced workload.
7. With the exception of the first career sabbatical as provided for in (c) below, the years of qualifying service outlined below refers to the years of service since the Librarian's previous sabbatical. Salary paid during such approved leave shall be as follows:

- a) 100% of the Librarian's salary for a six (6) consecutive month sabbatical upon the completion of a minimum of four and a half (4.5) years of service.
 - b) If taking leaves of 12 months in duration the following salary rate applies:
 - i. 85% of the Librarian's salary upon completion of six years' service
 - ii. 92.5% of the Librarian's salary upon completion of seven years' service
 - iii. 100% of the Librarian's salary upon completion of eight years' service
 - c) whether six (6) months or twelve (12) months in duration, the first career sabbatical of a career Librarian will be at 100% salary.
8. In some circumstances, the Dean of Libraries, due to operational requirements, may not be able, in a given year, to accommodate all eligible leaves. In such cases, the Dean of Libraries and the eligible members shall attempt to work out a schedule acceptable to all parties. Where agreement cannot be reached, deferred members will have first priority, then members having the greater period of time elapsed since the last paid leave. Ties shall be decided by lot. In such circumstances, paid leaves may be delayed up to one year with reasons provided to the member in writing by the Dean of Libraries, with reasonable notice.

A Librarian Member retains any credited academic service time under 16.8.B.6, including the period of deferral and may apply it to the service period required for a subsequent paid leave. A deferred leave does not count towards the limit in 16.8.B.4 in the year in which the leave is taken, unless the reason for the deferral was due to exceeding the limit in the previous year.

9. A Librarian's first work obligation while on paid leave is the fulfilment of the terms of their leave duties. Librarians may engage in outside employment while on paid leave only to the extent that such employment does not interfere with the Librarian's leave obligations to the University. A Librarian on paid leave shall report to the University any outside remuneration received while on leave, which would not have been received had they not been on leave. Such reporting shall be made at the time of application for leave; or in circumstances where the Librarian requests a substantive change to the leave plan as previously approved.

10. During the first academic semester after returning from paid leave, a Librarian shall provide to the Dean of Libraries a written report of activities undertaken and objectives accomplished while on paid leave, including any outside remuneration received whilst on leave, consistent with clause 9 above.
11. While on paid leave, a Librarian's entitlement to increment will not be interrupted, save and except as provided for in Article 13, Article 16, and Appendix A, paragraph D (6).
12. A Librarian on paid leave will continue to participate in the medical, dental, extended health, and Group Life Insurance benefits.
13. When a paid leave is interrupted by pregnancy/parental/adoption leave, or sick leave of more than three months, or other such extenuating circumstances, and where such conditions or circumstances are documented by the Librarian and accepted by the University, the time in such status shall not be counted as paid leave under the terms of this Article.
14. Except in cases where a Librarian gives notice of their intention to resign or retire at the end of a sabbatical leave, a Librarian must return to active service following their paid leave and is not eligible for another sabbatical leave until they have accrued sufficient service as provided for in paragraph 7(a) and (b), above.

C. Special Leaves

Section 6.3, 6.4, 6.5, 6.6, 6.7, 6.8, 6.9, 6.10, 6.11, 6.12 and 6.13 under Special Leave of Article 6 (Leaves of Absence) shall apply to Librarian members.

16.9 VACATION FOR LIBRARIANS

Librarians shall be entitled to five (5) weeks of paid vacation after completion of each year of service; after twelve (12) years of service the entitlement shall be increased to six (6) weeks per year. Vacation credits shall accumulate on a monthly basis, at a rate of 2.083 days per completed month of service during the first twelve (12) years of service; thereafter, vacation credits shall accumulate at the rate of 2.5 days per completed month of service. Vacation credit may be accumulated to a maximum of double the annual entitlement. No further credits will be granted once a member reaches the maximum accumulation unless the vacation balance is reduced below the maximum entitlement.

16.10 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT TIME

Effective January 1, 2023, Librarians are entitled to sixteen (16) professional development days per annum. Unused professional development days may be carried forward to the next year, provided that the total accrued does not exceed 24 days. All professional development days are, where reasonably practical, to be requested seven (7) days in advance and will be granted subject to operational requirements. Requests for professional development days made less than 7 days in advance are at the discretion of the Dean of Libraries. In either case, approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

16.11 GRIEVANCES

Librarians are entitled to the rights of grievance set out in Article 9 (Grievances), except as stated in Article 16.7.G.12.

16.12 BENEFITS

The benefits applicable to Librarians shall be those specified for Faculty members in Article 12 (Benefits), and Appendices and Memorandum referred to therein.

16.13 RETIREMENT

The retirement of a career-stream Librarian will be as provided for in Article 19.

16.14 RESIGNATIONS

In the first four months of employment a Librarian member may resign on one month's written notice. Thereafter, three months' written notice is required.

Resignation of a Librarian member must be in writing, addressed and delivered to the Dean of Libraries with a copy to the Human Resources Department.

16.15 PERFORMANCE AND CONDUCT FILE

Article 14 (Performance and Conduct File) shall apply to the Librarians.

ARTICLE 17 MIDWIFERY FACULTY17.1 GENERAL

- A. The terms and conditions of employment for Midwifery faculty shall be the provisions of the current collective agreement between the Faculty Association and the Board of Governors as it applies to faculty members hired after December 31, 1992, save and except where said agreement is modified by this Article.
- B. Midwifery faculty members shall not be required to reduce their financial entitlement from the University in light of any remuneration received from their work as registered midwives, except as foreseen by the limitations in Article 6.1.P of the collective agreement.
- C. Midwifery faculty members will teach a proportion of the full time academic teaching load in any academic year according to their letter of appointment. The Director shall normally have a 100% FTE during their appointment.
- D. For purposes of calculating periods of time for eligibility for tenure and promotion reviews, for sabbatical leave, for salary increases, and for vacation, Midwifery faculty members shall be considered full-time employees as of their date of employment with the University. Teaching and clinical terms shall be included in calculating eligibility for the above. The actual benefit level for vacation, sabbatical salary, and salary increases will be proportional to the actual workload of the individual faculty member consistent with the relevant paragraphs of this Article.

17.2 WORKLOAD PROVISIONS

- A. The workload provisions as articulated in the Collective Agreement between the University and the Faculty Association, specifically, Article 10, clauses 10.11 through to 10.14 inclusive, as amended by Article 17.2 B, C, and D, shall apply to the Midwifery faculty in the Midwifery Education Program (“MEP”).
- B. Midwifery faculty members will be hired by the University at 50% (0.5 FTE), at 75% (0.75 FTE) or at 100% (1.0 FTE) of a full-time position. Midwifery faculty members will maintain a midwifery practice sufficient to qualify for, and to maintain, current registration with the College of Midwives or another midwifery professional regulating body (subject to the Dean’s recommendation and the approval of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs). Midwifery faculty members hired into a 0.75 FTE position will normally either be responsible for Preceptor Education and Development in addition to a 50% teaching load or have a teaching load of 75% of the departmental norm. Midwifery faculty members who are hired into a 0.75 FTE or 1.0 FTE position who are expected to teach midwifery-specific subject matter must demonstrate having maintained the equivalent of at least five years of full-time active midwifery practice at the time of hire

- C. Postings for tenure-stream faculty positions will specify whether the position sought is a 0.5 FTE, 0.75 FTE or a 1.0 FTE. If the MEP is allocated a 0.5 FTE position or a 0.75 FTE position by the Dean, the posting must specify a 0.5 FTE or 0.75 FTE position. If the MEP is allocated a 1.0 FTE position by the Dean, that posting can specify that the position can be either one 1.0 FTE position or two 0.5 FTE positions, subject to approval by the Dean.
- D. Subject to the approval of the Dean of Community Services, Midwifery faculty hired at 0.5 FTE may be offered and may accept to work 60% of a full-time position, averaged over a full rotation cycle, selecting the workload option described below, consisting of a teaching rotation and a clinical rotation. Within this context a teaching term or teaching rotation refers to Midwifery faculty members focusing on discharging their duties and obligations as set out in the Workload Provisions, Article 10. A clinical term or clinical rotation refers to Midwifery faculty members focusing their activities on their respective clinical practices.
- E. Where faculty members volunteer to teach courses beyond their allocated teaching workload, the overload provisions as set out in MOU-12 apply. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, in the specific context of clinical practice courses within the MEP, where tenure stream faculty members are unavailable for teaching, or existing tenure-stream positions are temporarily vacant, with the agreement of the faculty member(s), the Director of the MEP may request from the Dean a time-limited increase of the FTE of existing faculty members currently either at 0.5 FTE or 0.75 FTE in order to teach such clinical practice courses, instead of seeking approval for LTF allocations. It is understood that such an increase in FTE will only be approved where there are no other available options within the tenure stream faculty.

17.3 ROTATION OPTION

- A. Midwifery faculty may alternate one year (three teaching terms) of full time teaching, pursuant to the provisions of Article 10 (Workload), Mode II, and one year (three teaching terms) of full time clinical practice.
- B. When on clinical rotation, 1 day of every week will be available for University work, pursuant to the provisions of Article 10 (Workload), Mode II.

- A. For Midwifery faculty on approved rotation, salary will be paid as follows:
 - a) 100% of salary (1.0 FTE) during the year the Midwifery faculty member teaches full time at the University; and,
 - b) 20% of salary (0.2 FTE) during the clinical practice year.
 - c) The pay cycle shall be the cycle normally applicable to other Faculty Association members.
 2. For employment insurance purposes the parties agree that a 35 hour work week shall be deemed to constitute a full work week for individuals teaching a full load. Further, for individuals who work a percentage of a full load (reduced workload) the 35 hour work week shall be reduced accordingly by the appropriate percentage for employment insurance purposes only.
 3. Salary increases shall be in accordance with the processes applicable to other Faculty Association members, with actual salary paid pro-rated according to the percentage workload undertaken and approved.
 4. Salary paid to a faculty member on approved sabbatical leave shall be calculated in respect of all years contributing to the faculty member's entitlement based on the average of proportional workload during the qualifying period leading up to the sabbatical leave.

17.5 BENEFITS AND PENSION

- A. With respect to benefits, Midwifery faculty in the Midwifery Education Program shall participate in the benefits package that is available for faculty members as outlined in the collective agreement between the Faculty Association and the University. Specifically, the parties recognize that:
1. Salary related benefits shall be pro-rated according to the percentage workload undertaken and approved.
 2. Participation in the Toronto Metropolitan University Pension Plan is a mandatory condition of employment. The Midwifery faculty member shall contribute to the Pension Plan on the basis of actual salary paid, according to the rules of the Plan. Service credits in the Pension Plan shall also be adjusted accordingly, that is pro-rated according to percentage of actual salary paid relative to the full notional salary.

3. The Pension Plan shall be financed according to the rules of the Plan document and the employment insurance shall be financed as provided by the relevant regulations/legislation, and the other benefits shall be financed entirely by the University except Private Accident Insurance which shall be financed entirely by the individual Midwifery faculty member.

17.6 VACATION

For every three (3) terms, Midwifery faculty in the Midwifery Education Program will be entitled to 5 weeks vacation, normally to be taken within the span of every three teaching terms. Such vacation shall normally be taken during a non-teaching term of their teaching year. Following the completion of twelve years of service, this entitlement shall be increased to six weeks. It is understood that the five and six week periods do not include those periods when the University is closed.

17.7 GRIEVANCES

Except as provided in 17.2 and 17.3, Workload Provisions, above, Midwifery faculty may grieve other matters pursuant to the Faculty Association Collective Agreement, Article 9 (Grievances).

17.8 REDUNDANCY AND LAY-OFFA. Redundancy and Lay-Off

1. The provisions of Article 22 (Financial Exigency), Article 23 (Redundancy), and Article 24 (Layoffs), shall apply to Midwifery faculty except in the event that the government funding is withdrawn, in whole or in part, from the University as it relates to the funding of the Midwifery Program. In such an event, the Midwifery Program shall be closed or reduced at the sole discretion of the University.
2. Further to paragraph 1 above, in cases where the government funding is withdrawn, in whole or in part, from the University as it relates to the funding of the Midwifery Program, and the University decides to close or reduce the Midwifery Program, and such action results in layoffs of affected Midwifery Faculty it is understood that such layoffs are not as a result of a confirmed financial exigency or a Program Redundancy. Therefore, in such cases, the provisions of Article 22 (Financial Exigency), and Article 23 (Redundancy) of the Collective Agreement do not apply. In such cases, only the notice, severance, recall rights and 'benefits during recall' provisions found in Article 24 (Layoffs), shall apply to affected Midwifery Faculty.

ARTICLE 18 PROFESSIONAL EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT FUND

- A. The University recognizes that the duty of faculty members, Librarians and Professional Counsellors to maintain academic and/or professional competence and currency will, from time to time, necessitate the incurring of expenses.
- B. Recognizing that it is the principal beneficiary of such competence and currency, the University will establish a Professional Expense Reimbursement Fund (PERF) from which individual members of the Association shall be reimbursed for eligible expenses according to University policies and is strictly subject to the relevant provisions of the Income Tax Act and any interpretations made by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) regarding eligible expenses.
- C. Every faculty member is entitled to a reimbursement of $2,400 for July 1 of 2023 and July 1 of 2024, and July 1, 2025, and each year thereafter, with any unused portion being carried forward to the following provided that the total does not exceed an amount equal to three (3) years of PERF. Then a faculty member would only be entitled to receive a pro rata amount up to the maximum entitlement.

AND PHASED-IN RETIREMENT PROGRAM

NORMAL RETIREMENTS AND PHASED-IN RETIREMENT PROGRAM

19.1 RESIGNATIONS AND RETIREMENTS

1. "Retirement" means the cessation of employment with the University AND the coincident commencement of pension benefits under and pursuant to the provisions of the Toronto Metropolitan University Pension Plan.
2. "The Normal Retirement Date" means the end of the month in which active or disabled employees reach age 65, or for faculty, the end of the academic year after reaching age 65, that is August 31st. Normal Retirement Date will remain unchanged in respect of the Toronto Metropolitan University Pension Plan.

C. Members may retire earlier than the normal retirement date provided that the member is at least 55 years of age and has completed two years of Plan membership.

The pension payable on the Early Retirement Date is subject to reduction unless one of the following criteria are met:

1. if age is at least 60 years and credited service is at least 20 years; or
2. if age plus service equals 90 with a minimum age 55

D. Members who reach age 65 and elect to continue in active employment may choose to:

1. commence receipt of pension benefits under the Toronto Metropolitan University Pension Plan on the first of the month following their 65th birthdate; or
2. continue contributions into the Toronto Metropolitan University Pension Plan if the member has less than 35 years of credited service until such a maximum is reached.

ARTICLE 19 RESIGNATIONS, EARLY RETIREMENTS, NORMAL RETIREMENTS
AND PHASED-IN RETIREMENT PROGRAM

Notwithstanding (2) above, the Income Tax Act requires that a Pension Plan member commence receiving pension payments no later than the end of the year in which they reach age 71 even if employment continues. Since pension payments are effective the first of the month, the latest date a member can start receiving pension payments is December 1st of the year in which they turn 71.

Once receipt of pension benefits commences, contributions of both the member and the University cease.

E. Benefits

For members who take early retirement as per C above, the University will pay for benefits as per Article 12.11 until a member reaches age 65; thereafter the member is eligible for the modified benefits package, as outlined in Article 12.10.

F. Notice of retirement shall be provided to the University as far in advance as possible but in no case less than three months prior to the actual retirement date. Normally, a faculty member shall retire on August 31 or December 31 in any given year. Professional Counsellors and Librarians members shall retire at the end of the month of the declared retirement date.

G. Notice of resignation or retirement by a member must be in writing, addressed and delivered to the Dean, Dean of Libraries or Vice-Provost, Students with a copy to the Human Resources Department and the Faculty Association.

19.2 PHASED-IN RETIREMENT PROGRAM

ARTICLE 19 RESIGNATIONS, EARLY RETIREMENTS, NORMAL RETIREMENTS
AND PHASED-IN RETIREMENT PROGRAM

2. The program will commence each year on either January 1 or September 1. Participants choosing to enter the phased-in retirement program (“PRP”) must submit an application in writing to their Dean, Dean of Libraries or Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing by March 1 for September 1 start or July 1 for January 1 start.

3. Program Details:
 - a) The phased-in retirement program (the “PRP”) allows a faculty member to transition into retirement over a two (2) year period. The election to participate in the PRP is irrevocable.
 - i. Participants shall phase-in their retirement over a two-year period. The participant’s maximum workload in any of the two years shall be 25%, 50% or 75% in academic units with 2+2 teaching standard, as requested by the participant and with the agreement with their Dean; the participant’s request will not be unreasonably denied. The maximum workload over the entire PRP may not exceed 100% (for example, 75% in Year 1 and 25% in Year 2).
 - ii. In academic units with a teaching standard of 2+1 the participant’s maximum workload shall be 33% or 66% in any of the two years, as requested by the participant and with the agreement with their Dean; the participant’s request will not be unreasonably denied. The maximum workload over the entire PRP may not exceed 100% (for example, 66% in Year 1 and 33% in Year 2).
 - iii. Participants may request to carry out their full teaching obligation in one term and this will not be unreasonably denied. Participants are expected to maintain Service and SRC obligations throughout the academic year.
 - iv. Librarian and Counselor maximum workload in any of the two years shall be either 25%, 50% or 75% as requested by the participant and with the agreement with the Dean of Libraries/ Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing; the participant’s request will not be unreasonably denied. The maximum workload over the entire PRP may not exceed 100%
 - v. At the end of the two-year period, participants in a PRP will receive a Supplementary Payment in aggregate equal to 50% of the annual salary that they received (or would have received but for a period of leave, disability or any other temporary reduction in normal annual salary) in the year immediately before their participation in the phased-in retirement program, less deductions required by law and subject to the conditions in paragraph 3(b) below. This Supplementary Payment is not Salary (as defined in the TMUPP) for the purposes of the TMUPP.

- b) During the PRP, participants will continue the full range of their normal duties (teaching, research/scholarly/creative activity, and service for faculty; professional practice, research/scholarly activity, and service for Librarians and counselors) as agreed with the Dean, Dean of Libraries or Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing. Duties will be proportionate to the member's percentage workload in each year of the PRP as agreed between the Dean, Dean of Libraries or Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing and the participant. At the end of the PRP, the participants must retire.
- c) Notice of application for participation in the PRP, and the agreed to PRP agreement must include the workload in each year or semester, a plan to address supervision of graduate students (if any), and how the member will receive their retirement supplement, which will be set out in the member's individual PRP Agreement. Once arrangements are agreed to and the participant's application to participate in the PRP is approved, the choice to phase-in their retirement shall be irrevocable.
- d) Approval of PRP is conditional upon ensuring operational and academic priorities can be achieved. The application by the member must be approved by the Dean/Dean of Libraries/ Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing and by the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs as applicable.
- e) A decision to approve or not to approve participation in the PRP will be provided to the member in writing within six (6) weeks of the application deadline. If the request is denied, the decision to deny will be provided with reasons.

4. Conditions:

- a) During the course of their participation in the PRP, participants will be paid the salary paid immediately prior to participation in the PRP (excluding any stipends, allowances or income earned from non-Faculty Association appointments), prorated on the basis of the percentage workload appointment in each year. For greater certainty, any ATB and sector adjustments and CDI awarded during the PRP will be included in the salary. Faculty on a PRP are not eligible for overload teaching nor salary anomaly adjustments (except for salary anomaly adjustments on the basis of human rights grounds).

Participants in academic units with a 2+1 teaching standard who opt to teach two courses in the first year of the PRP and one course in the second year of the PRP may, at the participant's discretion, receive 50% of their salary in each year of the program. The overall workload across the two years would remain unchanged.

- b) If a participant is a contributing member of the TMUPP, the member will contribute to the TMUPP based on the participant's Notional Pensionable Salary (as defined in the TMUPP) throughout the PRP which would include any ATB and sector adjustments and CDI. The corresponding contribution made by the University, in accordance with the TMUPP will match the employee contribution. The contributing member will receive full Credited Service (as defined under the TMUPP) during the PRP.
- c) All benefits (including Professional Expense Reimbursement) and applicable cost-sharing will continue as though the participant has a full-time workload and will be based on the member's notional salary, including all entitled adjustments, in each year of the phased-in retirement program except as noted in subsections (d), (e) and (f) below.
- d) The participant shall be entitled to sick leave under the terms of the collective agreement and shall be compensated on the basis of the participant's actual salary received during the PRP.
- e) Should a participant qualify for Long Term Disability ("LTD") during the PRP, such benefits will be payable based on the provisions of Appendix A. The salary rate in place at the commencement of LTD will be used for the purpose of calculating the long term disability coverage. If a participant is in receipt of LTD benefits, no further salary adjustments will be made once the LTD benefits commence.
- f) The estate of a participant who dies prior to the end of the PRP is eligible to receive a Supplementary Payment calculated pro-rata to the PRP prior to their cessation of employment divided by 24 months.

- g) Members cannot use sabbatical credits, leaves with pay or initiate research leaves once they enter and exit phased-in retirement. Members do not accrue sabbatical credit during the PRP.
- h) Subject to section 2(c), a participant in the PRP shall have the option of receiving the Supplementary Payment in either:
 - i. a single lump sum payable during the final year of participation in the PRP or in the year immediately following participation in the PRP; or,
 - ii. in two lump sums in either the final year of participation in the PRP and the year immediately following participation in the PRP, or in each of the two consecutive years immediately following the final year of participation in the PRP.

Any Supplementary Payment paid will be reported in accordance with Canada Revenue Agency rules. In no case shall the member elect to receive a portion of the supplement that, when combined with actual salary for the year, exceeds the participant's notional salary for that year.

- i) For the duration of a member's participation in the PRP, the employer may hire Limited Term Faculty and Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors to replace the member and shall not be included in the complement calculation found in Article 4.6.C. Complement anomalies, on either side of the equation (4.3 and/or 4.6) occurring as a result of members who are currently participating under the PRP will not result in a breach of those Articles. In this case, the LTF or Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors hired for this purpose will be identified as well as the positions for which they are hired, and this information will be provided to the Association.

Immediately upon completion of the PRP, normal faculty complement calculations will resume.

- j) Access to phased in retirement under this provision is permitted so long as the member is otherwise eligible and has completed no more than 2 years of Article 10.8.B (gradual retirement teaching workload reduction), or Article 10.15.B (gradual retirement reduced workload).

ARTICLE 20 DISCIPLINE AND DISMISSAL20.1 DISCIPLINE

- A. Discipline normally will be considered in terms of appropriate progressive sanctions.
- B. A member may be disciplined only for just, reasonable and sufficient cause which would include, but is not necessarily limited to, demonstrable persistent failure to fulfill the obligations defined in Article 7 for faculty members, Article 15.2 for Counsellors and Article 16.2 for Librarians.
- C. Prior to imposing discipline, and in light of the belief of the two parties that correction rather than punishment is the preferred solution, the employer shall consider whether any alleged problem may be remedied by a course of personal and/or professional development under the guidance and advice of the Chair/Director or, in the case of a Librarian, the Dean of Libraries, or the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing.
- D. Where such remedial action is deemed inappropriate or has not proved successful, the employer may commence disciplinary action.
- E. A member has the right of Association representation at any meeting between the member and the Dean/Dean of Libraries/ Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing or Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs which may lead to disciplinary measures being imposed by the University. The member has the same right to representation at any meeting at which disciplinary measures are imposed.
- F. The Administration will provide the Association on a quarterly basis with a report on current investigations in which the Association has assumed a representational role, providing a progress report on each such investigation and, on a without prejudice basis, an anticipated date of completion.
- G. At the time that the employer imposes discipline against a member, the member shall be notified in writing both via the member's TMU email address and by registered mail to the member's last known address of the disciplinary action and the specific details of the alleged cause for the discipline.
- H. Letters of warning or reprimand must be clearly identified as being disciplinary measures and must contain a clear statement of the reasons for taking this action. A copy of such a letter shall be placed in the Performance and Conduct File of the member and they shall also be informed of this in the letter of warning or reprimand.
- I. Records of any disciplinary action taken against a faculty member, Librarian, or Counsellor shall remain in their Performance and Conduct File for a period of three (3) years and shall then be removed if no further disciplinary action has, in the three-year period, been taken against the member. Where further disciplinary action has been taken, the three-year period shall commence anew on the date of the further action. Records that have been removed shall not be considered in future disciplinary action.

- J. Except in cases of gross misconduct, disciplinary action against a faculty member, Librarian, or Counsellor shall use no documentary evidence other than that included in their Performance and Conduct File.
- K. Nothing in this article limits the University's reporting obligation to an applicable professional association/accreditation body.

20.2 DISMISSAL

- A. Dismissal means the termination of employment by the employer without the consent of the employee. It does not include non-renewal of a pre-tenured or limited term appointment, denial of tenure, retirement or redundancy (layoff), or non-transfer to Career status for Librarians and Counsellors.
- B. Action to dismiss a member lies within the authority of the President, following a recommendation for dismissal from the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the Dean/Dean of Libraries/ Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing.
- C. Tenured Faculty Members/Career Librarians/Career Counsellors
 - 1. A tenured faculty member or career Librarian or Career Counsellor may be dismissed only for continuing incompetence, or serious and persistent neglect of obligations as defined in Article 7 (Obligations) for faculty members, Article 15.2 (Duties and Responsibilities of Professional Counsellors), Article 16.2 (Duties and Responsibilities of Librarians) or for gross misconduct.
 - 2. Six (6) months' written notice of dismissal is required in the case of tenured faculty members, career Librarians, or Career Counsellors. At its discretion, the University may elect to pay six (6) months' salary in lieu of notice to dismissed tenured faculty members or career Librarians/Career Counsellors, or some combination of notice and pay in lieu of notice totalling six (6) months.
 - 3. Neither notice nor pay shall be necessary in cases of gross misconduct.
- D. Dismissal of Pre-tenure Faculty Members/Probationary Librarians/Probationary Counsellors

1. A pre-tenure faculty member or probationary Librarian or probationary Counsellor may be dismissed during the first twelve months of employment only where there is a demonstrable failure of the member to fulfill their obligations as defined in Article 7 (Obligations), Article 15.2 (Duties and Responsibilities of Professional Counsellors), Article 16.2 (Duties and Responsibilities of Librarians) or for gross misconduct. The decision to terminate a probationary faculty member or probationary Librarian/probationary Counsellor shall be made by the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, upon the recommendation of the Dean/Dean of Libraries/Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing. Prior to making this decision, the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs must satisfy themselves that the pre-tenure faculty member or probationary Librarian/probationary Counsellor was advised of the concerns and, if appropriate, was provided with an opportunity to improve.
2. After the first twelve months of employment, a pre-tenure faculty member or probationary Librarian/probationary Counsellor may be dismissed only for continuing incompetence, or serious and persistent neglect of obligations as defined in Article 7 (Obligations), Article 16.2 (Duties and Responsibilities of Librarians), Article 15.2 (Duties and Responsibilities of Professional Counsellors) or for gross misconduct.
3. Six (6) months' written notice of dismissal is required in the case of pre-tenure faculty members or probationary Librarians/probationary Counsellors. At its discretion, the University may elect to pay six months salary in lieu of notice to a dismissed pre-tenure faculty member, Career Counsellor/Career Librarian or some combination of notice and pay in lieu of notice totaling six months.
4. Neither notice nor pay shall be necessary in cases of gross misconduct.
5. Dismissal is grievable under Article 9 (Grievances).

20.3 CRIMINAL CHARGES

The parties recognize that a criminal charge or conviction is not in itself grounds for discipline or dismissal.

ARTICLE 21 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- A. Members are expected to avoid actual or potential conflicts of interest as defined in this Article.
- B. An actual or potential conflict of interest arises when a member is placed in a situation in which their personal or financial interests, or the interests of an immediate family member or of a person with whom there exists, or has recently existed, an intimate relationship, conflict with their responsibilities to the University as provided in this Agreement.
- C. Process
 - 1. The conflict or potential conflict must be formally disclosed in writing to the member's Dean, or to the Dean of Libraries, or to the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing, as appropriate, as soon as possible after the member becomes aware of it and before any decision or action is taken.
 - 2. The existence of a conflict or potential conflict does not necessarily preclude the member's involvement in the situation where the conflict has arisen or may arise. There may be situations where a conflict once declared can be managed so as to enhance rather than undermine the member's contribution to the University.
 - 3. Following consultation with the member and other appropriate persons, the Dean or Dean of Libraries or the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing will notify the member whether an actual or potential conflict exists and, if so, decide how it is to be resolved. The Dean or Dean of Libraries or the Director, Student Integrated Health and Wellbeing shall state in writing the appropriate manner in which to deal with the actual or potential conflict.
- D. No member shall knowingly participate in any decision-making process that directly and preferentially benefits the member or any individual with whom the member has an immediate family, intimate, financial or commercial relationship.

ARTICLE 22 FINANCIAL EXIGENCYA. PREAMBLE

1. The University and the Association agree that the primary goals of the University are teaching, scholarship and research, and that the first duty of the University is to ensure that its academic priorities remain paramount, particularly with regard to the quality of instruction and research and the preservation of academic freedom. Any reduction of faculty members or Librarians for budgetary reasons shall occur only as a last resort during a state of financial exigency.

B. DEFINITION

1. The term financial exigency is defined as substantial and recurring financial deficits in the total University operating budget which have occurred and are reasonably projected to continue, thereby placing the solvency of the University, as a whole, in serious jeopardy.
2. This Article is invoked only in the event of a declaration of financial exigency in which the layoff of faculty members and/or Librarians is proposed as part of the resolution to the situation.
3. The expectation of short term deficits is not financial exigency.
4. The closure, cessation, merger or elimination, in full or in part, of an academic program, based on academic reasons, is not a financial exigency.

C. DECLARING A FINANCIAL EXIGENCY

1. In the event that the President decides that a financial exigency exists within the meaning of B.1. above, they shall forthwith give notice to the Association of such decision. At the date of such notice, a University wide hiring freeze shall be imposed and no new positions shall be created until the exigency has been resolved.
2. The President shall prepare a report specifying the precise nature of the problem facing the University. Such report shall contain the economies taken to date to support their conclusion, set out the reasons supporting the layoff of faculty members and/or Librarians and disclose the number of faculty and/or Librarian layoffs that are deemed necessary. The report shall also specify whether any program redundancies are being recommended as a solution to the problem.
3. A copy of this report shall be given, inter alia, to the Association.

4. The President shall, within ten days of giving notice to the Association, establish a Financial Exigency Committee to review all documentation which it deems relevant and decide whether or not a financial exigency exists.

D. THE FEC

1. The FEC shall be composed of five members who are independent of and external to the University. Two members shall be appointed by the University and two members shall be appointed by the Association. Together they shall attempt to agree on an independent Chair. If the other four members are unable to reach a majority decision on a Chair, the Chief Justice of Ontario shall be asked to make the appointment.
2. In the event program redundancies are proposed as part of the resolution of the financial exigency, there will be no separate Redundancy Committee created as contemplated in Article 23 as the FEC will undertake the review of the need for layoff of faculty members and/or Librarians generated by such program redundancies.
3. The FEC shall determine its own terms of reference and decision making procedures which shall be consistent with generally recognized principles of natural justice.
4. All reasonable expenses of the FEC established under this Article shall be borne by the University.
5. The University shall cooperate with the FEC in its deliberations. The onus shall be on the University to establish to the satisfaction of the FEC that a financial exigency exists within the meaning of B.1. It shall provide all information that is related to the claimed financial exigency and/or is deemed relevant by the FEC. The Association is entitled to receive a copy of the material provided to the FEC by the University.
6. The FEC may consult with any person or groups it chooses and may consider oral and/or written submissions on the University's financial condition. It will also consult with, receive and carefully consider any input which the Senate may choose to provide regarding the proposed program redundancies.
7. The FEC shall consider, inter alia, and shall respond to each of the following:
 - a) Whether the University's financial position (as evidenced from the total operating budget and not just from the academic or salary components thereof) constitutes a bona fide budgetary crisis as contemplated in B.1;

- b) Whether, in view of the primacy of academic goals in the University, the reduction of faculty members and/or Librarians is a reasonable and justifiable way to effect a cost saving;
 - c) Whether all reasonable means of achieving cost savings in all other areas of the University budget have been explored;
 - d) Whether all reasonable means have been taken to reduce costs by reducing the number of faculty members and/or Librarians by voluntary early retirement, voluntary resignation, voluntary transfers to reduced workload status and redeployment;
 - e) Whether all reasonable means of improving the University's revenue position, including efforts to secure further assistance from the provincial Government have been explored and taken into account;
 - f) Whether enrollment projections are consistent with the proposed reduction in the number of faculty and/or Librarians.
8. The FEC shall make its report within forty (40) days of its establishment. The report shall analyze both the extent and nature of the financial problems identified by the President, as well as the potential impact of the President's plan on the academic programs of the University. The Report shall also state whether the FEC finds that a state of financial exigency does or does not exist.
9. If the FEC finds that a state of financial exigency does not exist, no reductions of academic staff members for budgetary reasons may take place.
10. If the FEC finds that a state of financial exigency does exist, the FEC report shall recommend the amount of reduction required, if any, in the budgetary allocation to faculty members' and/or Librarians' salaries and benefits.
11. The FEC Report shall also specify the number of faculty member and/or Librarian layoffs that may be required in order to address the financial exigency. If the number of layoffs specified by the FEC differs from the number proposed by the President, reasons for the difference will be provided.

E. BOARD OF GOVERNORS

1. The Board of Governors, through the President, has the responsibility for implementing Actions arising out of the FEC report.
2. It shall be open to both parties, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in the Agreement, to renegotiate provisions of this Agreement bearing directly on salaries and benefits or to reach other mutually acceptable emergency methods of reducing expenditures that could avert layoffs or decrease the number of layoffs.
3. If the parties do not reach agreement on measures to reduce salaries and benefits within seven (7) days of the FEC Report, the University may reduce the budgetary allocation for salaries and benefits for faculty members and/or Librarians as permitted in the FEC Report. In no case shall this amount exceed the amount the FEC stipulated in D.10. above.
4. Layoff is an exceptional action which shall be taken only after the University has exhausted all reasonable means to alleviate the financial exigency by applying rigorous economies in all areas of the University's present and projected expenditures, by using all reasonable means of improving its income and by using all other means of making the necessary reductions in the employee groups in a manner which best maintains the academic viability of the University.
5. When a declaration of financial exigency has been confirmed, and no satisfactory provision can be made by the University for the continued employment of all faculty members and Librarians, a plan for reduction in the number of faculty members and/or Librarians employed by the University shall be prepared by the President, the Provost and Vice-President, Academic and the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, in consultation with the Deans, Dean of Libraries and Association President. The plan shall be structured so that the University may continue to operate as far as possible in accordance with its mission, and may propose vertical cuts (involving full or partial program redundancies as defined in Article 23), across the board cuts, or some combination of vertical and across the board cuts.
6. Any layoffs under this Article shall occur only to the extent necessary to alleviate the financial exigency and shall not exceed the number which may be specified by the FEC.

F. TIME LIMITS

1. Any time limits under this Article may be extended by agreement, in writing, between the parties. Such agreement may not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 23 REDUNDANCYA. PREAMBLE

1. The University and the Association recognize the importance of sound academic planning in establishing or changing academic priorities.
2. No faculty member or Librarian shall be laid off or subject to an involuntary transfer requiring retraining except in accordance with this Article or Article 22 (Financial Exigency).

B. DEFINITION

1. Program Redundancy refers only to the direct termination of an academic program by Senate that either leads to the layoff of faculty members or to the transfer of faculty members or Librarians into academic units such that training will be required. It also refers to the reduction or restructuring of an academic program by Senate that leads to layoff of faculty members or Librarians.
2. An academic program for these purposes consists of a group of courses offered by the University which may lead to a diploma, certificate or degree, a designated sub-discipline within a Department/School, Faculty or the Library or any combination of the above.

C. INVOKING PROGRAM REDUNDANCY

1. An academic program may be declared redundant by the University upon a recommendation from Senate to the Board of Governors, solely for bona fide academic reasons as outlined in C.2.
2. Bona fide academic reasons arise from concerns about academic quality within the program or within the University in the context of an exigency, academic relevance or enrolment. Senate may strike a subcommittee to determine whether bona fide academic reasons exist for the declaration of a program redundancy.
3. Upon such declaration, the University shall impose a halt to the hiring of new faculty members or Librarians in the Department/School/Unit involved.
4. Following the declaration of a program redundancy, the University shall strike a Redundancy Committee (RC) as set out below.

D. THE REDUNDANCY COMMITTEE (RC)

1. The Redundancy Committee shall consist of three representatives appointed by the University, three members appointed by the Association and a Chair jointly selected by a majority of the appointees. If the appointees cannot agree on a Chair, they shall be chosen by lot from the nominees of each side.
2. All members of the RC shall be tenured faculty members or career Librarians at the University. No senior academic administrator at the level of Dean or above, no person who belongs to the academic unit affected by the proposed redundancy and no person who participated in the preparation of the University's declaration of program redundancy may be nominated to or participate on the RC.
3. The RC shall meet within ten (10) days of being appointed and shall establish its own procedures.
4. The reasonable cost of the RC shall be borne by the University.
5. The University shall cooperate with the RC in its deliberations including providing full disclosure of available information that is pertinent to any proposed layoff or transfer of faculty members or Librarians.
6. The RC shall consult with all faculty members and Librarians of the academic unit declared redundant who wish to be heard, either individually, in groups or through the Association. Generally, the RC may consult as broadly as it deems necessary in order to arrive at its recommendations to the University.

E. MANDATE OF THE RC

1. Within forty-five (45) days of being struck, the RC shall prepare a report which shall:
 - a) Assess the extent and nature of the impact that the program closure(s) will have upon the other academic programs at the University;
 - b) Recommend how to implement the program redundancy, including transfers or layoffs in the least disruptive manner;
 - c) Recommend specific implementation strategy in respect of each faculty member or Librarian affected either by a transfer to another academic unit, or layoff of a faculty member or Librarian.

2. The report shall be submitted to the President, Provost and Vice-President, Academic, Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the Association President.

F. IMPLEMENTATION

1. If the Report of the RC specifies that layoff of faculty members or Librarians is necessary as a result of Program Redundancy, the University shall, within thirty (30) working days prepare a detailed plan that it proposes to take. The Plan shall be in accordance with the collective agreement, shall affect faculty members' or Librarians' terms and conditions of employment only to the extent necessary to alleviate the academic problem identified hereunder and shall be based on sound academic reasons. The plan shall include:
 - a) a list of faculty members affected by the redundancy;
 - b) a list of the faculty members who are to be laid off and timelines for the layoffs;
 - c) a list of academic and administrative positions to which each faculty member or Librarian could be transferred, either without training or following a training period of not more than two (2) years, considering their academic and professional qualifications and their work experience;
 - d) a list of all options other than layoff, including but not limited to accelerated or partial sabbatical leaves, voluntary early retirement, voluntary resignation, voluntary transfer to Reduced Workload status and redeployment.
2. In the event the University chooses not to accept one or more of the recommendations contained in the RC Report because it believes other steps could be taken with less impact on the faculty members or Librarians, reasons for not accepting the recommendations must be presented in writing to the RC and to the Association President.
3. A copy of the University's Plan shall be presented to the Association which shall have twenty-one (21) working days to make written comments thereon.
4. Within a further ten (10) working days following receipt of the comments from the Association, the University shall prepare a final plan of action and provide a copy to the Association. If the University position rejects advice given in the comments from the Association, written reasons for rejecting that advice shall be included in the final detailed plan. If the University Plan proposes an implementation decision which is different from that of the RC or the Association's advice, then that decision may be the subject of a grievance by any affected faculty member or Librarian to determine whether or not it meets the requirements of sub Article H.1. below.

G. TIME LIMITS

1. Any time limits under this Article may be extended by agreement of the parties in writing. Such agreement may not be unreasonably denied.

H. GENERAL

1. Given the academic nature of the University, the RC, the Senate and the President shall act to protect the primacy of the academic work of the University. Thus, prior to effecting any layoffs of faculty members or Librarians, the University shall make every effort to offer each faculty member or Librarian in the redundant program a transfer to another Department/School to an unfilled complement position for which the faculty member or Librarian is academically qualified or could become qualified with a maximum of two (2) years of retraining.
2. A faculty member or Librarian who is offered a transfer under H.1. shall have fifteen (15) working days to accept or reject that offer. If the faculty member or Librarian accepts a transfer to another academic unit, they shall retain rank, base salary, benefits and seniority. If a faculty member or Librarian chooses not to accept the transfer, or if the University cannot offer such a position, then the faculty member or Librarian will be laid off in accordance with the Layoff Article.

ARTICLE 24 LAYOFFSA. GENERAL

1. Layoff pursuant to this Article is not dismissal for cause and shall not be recorded or reported as such.
2. For the purposes of this Article, seniority shall be established solely by the date upon which continuous employment within the bargaining unit commenced. Time spent as an Associate member of the Association shall be treated, for seniority and layoff purposes, in the same manner as active members of the Association. Seniority shall not be affected by leave taken in accordance with this Agreement or under any previous terms and conditions of employment.
3. All payments of pay in lieu of notice or severance pay hereunder shall be based on a faculty member/Librarian's notional salary, save and except those faculty members/Librarians who are on permanent reduced workload and salary.

 - a) academic performance;
 - b) professional self-development;
 - c) contribution to the instructional environment and process.

A faculty member or Librarian who chooses to apply shall have the right of first refusal for any position in their original Department/School (or the Library in the case of Librarians) for which the faculty member or Librarian is qualified or can be readily trained to be qualified. If more than one faculty member or Librarian satisfies these criteria, recall shall be by seniority among that group.
2. Thereafter, if the vacancy still exists, faculty members or Librarians on the recall list from other Departments/Schools or the Library who are qualified or who can be readily trained to be qualified shall be entitled to recall by seniority. A faculty member or Librarian who is recalled to an area or position at the University other than in their original discipline retains the right of first refusal for any opening in their original discipline or the Library as applicable.

ARTICLE 25 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- A. The University and the Association are committed to preserving the principles of academic and intellectual freedom and ensuring that all creators of intellectual property have their rights protected.
- B. GENERAL
1. The first consideration of the University in this Article is to promote the teaching, scholarly, research, and creative activity of Members. The University further recognizes that the community it serves may also benefit from inventive and creative advancements in artistic, creative, technical and scientific knowledge which have been achieved at the University.
 2. The parties agree that ownership of intellectual property is recognized as an integral part of academic freedom.
 3. No member shall be obliged to engage in the commercial exploitation of their work, nor to provide commercial justification for the direction of their research.
 4. Members are free to publish or use other means to disseminate the result of their teaching or SRC duties.
 5. Since the dissemination of knowledge is one of the primary functions of the University, SRC work should be such that the results may be freely published. The parties agree that where an external sponsor wishes to delay publication of work received under a contract with the sponsor, in no case shall publication be delayed longer than 24 months from the date of the submission of the final work to the sponsor. Such terms of external contracts also shall provide an exception to allow publication at any time of work done by the member where such disclosure is required in the public interest.
 6. Copies of agreements with the University or external sponsor(s) ("external sponsors" includes but is not limited to government bodies, non-governmental organizations, individuals and corporations) regarding the intellectual property rights of members shall be provided to the Faculty Association. The copies will be kept confidential but for the purpose of advising on or enforcing the collective agreement.
 7. The University agrees not to enter into any agreement to subcontract the services of any member without securing to the member whose services are subcontracted all the rights, privileges and benefits accorded to members in this Article, nor shall the University enter into any agreement to create a consortium of universities or government departments or private companies, for the purposes of research or development or commercial exploitation or the creation of intellectual property without securing to the members who may be seconded to or employed by such consortia, departments or private companies all the rights, privileges and benefits accorded by the Article. If the University makes an agreement contrary to this provision and fails to secure the said rights, privileges and benefits to said members, the agreement shall not apply to those members unless there is a special agreement in writing between the University and the Association to waive this provision in that case.

8. For the purposes of this Article, "extraordinary support" shall be understood as including support which is greater than "ordinary support". "Ordinary support" shall be understood as the faculty member's regular salary, stipends, allowances and benefits; personnel, equipment, supplies and facilities funded by regular Department/School or Faculty or Library or Counselling Services budgets; normal use of the Library and University computing facilities.
9. The University, the Association, member, or members shall have the right to grieve disputes concerning intellectual property rights under the provisions of Article 9 (Grievances).

C. COPYRIGHT

1. Copyright applies to all original scholarly, scientific, literary, dramatic, musical, artistic and recorded works in any material form. Articles C. 2 to C. 11 inclusive also apply to related intellectual property rights in know how and data.
2. Original works include but are not limited to: books, texts, articles, monographs, glossaries, bibliographies, cartographic materials, modular posters, study guides, laboratory manuals, correspondence course packages, interactive textbooks, course work delivered on the Internet, multimedia instructional packages, syllabi, tests and work papers, lectures, musical and/or dramatic compositions, choreographic works, performer's performances, unpublished scripts, films, filmstrips, charts, transparencies, other visual aids, video and audio tapes and cassettes, compact discs, computer programmes, data sets, databases, know how, live video and audio broadcasts, programmed instructional material, drawings, paintings, photographs, sculptures, and other works of art.
3. Subject to Article C. 10, the parties agree that the ownership of all know how and copyright to all forms of scholarly, scientific, literary, dramatic, musical, artistic and recorded works shall belong to the member(s) responsible for the creation of the know how or work.

4. Subject to Article C. 10, the member(s) may retain ownership and copyright throughout their lifetime. At their death, transferable intellectual property rights existing at that time shall devolve to their estate.
5. The University agrees that all rights in the copyright to lectures and all intellectual property prepared by and/or delivered by a faculty member in association with their teaching assignment(s) shall vest in the member.
6. No member shall claim any copyright in any assessment, grading, report, or correspondence produced pursuant to their normal administrative duties within the University. Moreover, no member shall claim copyright in any work provided to the member to assist them in carrying out their duties and modified by the member such as a laboratory manual or claim copyright in any work produced and designed to assist in the day-to-day administration, operation and/or management of the University's affairs.
7. Where copyright has been assigned to it by a member(s), the University shall inform the Association and the creators in writing of any agreements it enters into purporting to assign copyright materials to any party except that member(s).
8. In the event that the University or assignee relinquishes their right in any work, all economic and moral rights in the work shall revert to the member(s) who created the work. In the event that the member(s) is (are) deceased, the rights shall revert to the estate of the member.
9. A member who creates a copyrighted work in the course of their normal duties and responsibilities as defined by this Agreement shall grant the University a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable and non-transferable licence to use such works in other, non-commercial teaching and/or SRC activities of the University subject to copyright requirements of academic journals and other vehicles of scholarly publication. This licence shall not apply to a member's personal documents, including unpublished lecture notes, course notes, lab notes or any work-in-progress. The member may withdraw the right to use because of dating or other bona fide scholarly reasons provided that the member has provided the University with reasonable notice of the change being sought and has been unsuccessful in effecting such change.
10. All copyright belongs to the member(s) who created the work, even if it was created solely on the University's time and with the University's faculties and resources except in cases of commissioned works where there is a contract to the contrary between the creator and the University outside of the member's duties under the Agreement. All such commissioned works contracts shall be in writing and copied to the

- a) definition of the material(s) to be produced;
- b) scheduling and funding of the project;
- c) ownership and use of the material(s);
- d) rights of revision; and,
- e) definition, distribution and timing of payment.

A member also has the right to negotiate, upon such terms as the member and the University may agree, the sale of work produced for University courses where the following conditions are all met, that is, the work is delivered:

- a) outside the normal workload;
- b) outside overload;
- c) outside of the classroom; and,
- d) for the purposes of distance education.

In the case of such a sale, the member shall continue to be entitled to use the work in an unrestricted fashion for internal University purposes in the course of their duties under this Agreement, including teaching a course on the same subject matter, as well as for articles, conference presentations, textbooks and other derivative creations unless such entitlement has been expressly waived as a condition of sale. Such a sale does not preclude a member from requiring that the work not be associated with the member, if that is the wish of the member, or requiring should the work be modified, and should the member wish, that the member no longer be associated with the work if the member originally chose to be associated with it. Moreover, nothing in this provision precludes the member from negotiating any moral rights associated with the work.

- 11. When the University has invested extraordinary support, including but not limited to, a grant to subsidize publication, it may negotiate specific conditions with the member(s) who is (are) the creator(s) to participate in the royalties. Whenever such a publication subsidy is offered, the University shall stipulate at the time it offers the subsidy if it wishes to negotiate a claim to royalties that may accrue from publication thus supported; if it does not, it shall be deemed to have waived any claims to royalties or other income. All agreements between a member or members and the University pursuant to this paragraph shall be in writing and shall be copied to the Association. In no case shall the University's share of such royalties exceed 50% of gross royalties or other proceeds in any year. As soon as the University has recovered the full amount of the extraordinary support mentioned in this paragraph, its share of gross royalties or other proceeds shall be lowered to a figure no higher than 40% in any year. The University's share of such royalties or other proceeds which are in excess of the extraordinary support shall be used to fund activities in support of research and commercialization. Disbursements of these funds shall be reported to the Association annually, no later than 1 October for the immediately preceding academic year (1 September to 31 August). The burden of establishing the amount of extraordinary expenses incurred by the University shall lie on the University.

D. PATENTS AND RELATED INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

1. Articles D. 1 to D. 13 apply to inventions, integrated circuits, plant cultivars, trade-marks, and industrial designs. "Patents and related intellectual property" means any result of intellectual or artistic activity, created by a member or members that can be owned by a person excluding know how, data and works to which copyright alone attaches. Any provisions of this Article apply as well to a creator or a portion of patents and/or related intellectual property on a pro-rata basis.
2. Any decision concerning whether to seek patent protection rests exclusively with the creator(s).
3. Unless otherwise provided in the Article, the University makes no claim to any rights to any invention, improvement, design or development made by a member and the rights to such invention, improvement, design or development and any patents arising from them shall be the sole property of the member.
4. A member shall give notice to the University in writing of any patent application made by the member within three months of the date of such application and shall assert at that time whether it refers to an invention, improvement, design or development made with the "ordinary" or made with the "extraordinary" support of the University. If the University fails to challenge in writing the assertion of the member within three months of the receipt of notification of the application, the University shall be deemed to have accepted as accurate the assertions set out in the member's notice. Failure by the member to give notice of a patent application within the prescribed three month time period shall maintain the University's rights until such notification. The burden of establishing the amount of extraordinary expenses incurred by the University shall lie on the University.

5. A member may, at their sole discretion, make their own arrangements for an application for patent, and for the commercial exploitation of any invention, improvement, design or development so patented, at their sole expense. In such case, the member shall enter into an agreement with the University which agreement shall provide that where the University has provided extraordinary support (as defined in this Article), the University shall recover those costs by taking not more than 50% of the net revenues in each year until such time as the University has recovered its extraordinary support. Thereafter, the University shall receive 40% of net revenues in each year. Where the University has provided ordinary support, (as defined in this Article), the University shall be entitled to 10% of the net revenues in each year.
6. A member may, at their sole discretion, enter into an agreement with the University under which the University assumes carriage of costs (in Canada and elsewhere) of the patent application and of the costs (in Canada and elsewhere) of commercial exploitation. In such case, the member(s), or their designate(s), shall negotiate an agreement with the University, which agreement shall include provisions addressing the issues of patent ownership and revenues distribution. In no case shall such an agreement grant the creator less than 50% ownership (such amount to be divided among the creators where there are more than one), and in no case shall such an agreement grant the creator(s) less than 60% of net revenues in any given year, net revenues being understood as the revenues which remain after the University has recovered its extraordinary support costs.
7. For the purpose of Article D. 6 above, the member shall communicate to the Provost and Vice-President, Academic, their desire to negotiate an agreement. Within ten (10) days of the receipt of such a request, the Provost and Vice-President, Academic or designate, shall enter into negotiations with the member or their designate. If the parties fail to negotiate an agreement within thirty (30) days of the start of such negotiations, the member or the University may submit the issue to arbitration, under Article 9 (Grievances).
8. Members have the right to withdraw from agreements with the University where the University has failed to bring appropriate skill and effort to bear on the exploitation over a period of time. In such a case the member may require all rights in the intellectual property to be reassigned to the member. In such a case the member shall arrange to reimburse the University for costs incurred.

9. All proceeds resulting from patents of inventions, improvements, designs or developments which have been funded by an external organization shall be divided between the member and the external funding agency according to written agreement between the member and the external funding agency. University recovery of overhead costs from the external funding agency shall be separate from and shall not include any such division of proceeds.
10. The University shall be deemed to have and the member shall grant to the University a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable and non-transferable licence to use solely for the University's internal use any patented invention, improvement, design or development when such was made, discovered or developed using University facilities, support personnel, support services, equipment or materials. Such right shall not include the right to exploit commercially any such invention, improvement, design or development, or to licence anyone to do so except as allowed in this Article.
11. The member shall take reasonable and practicable steps to ensure that the name of the University not be used in connection with inventions, improvements, designs or developments without the prior written agreement of the University, although nothing shall prevent the member from stating their employment, rank and title in connection with such inventions, improvements, designs or developments. Such statement shall not in any way imply approval, promotion or use of such invention, improvement, design or development by the University.
12. Any revenue that the University may receive under the terms of this Article shall be dedicated to research and other forms of scholarly activity and the Association shall receive notice of same.
13. Any member or members entering into a collaboration to create any new invention, improvement, design or development with another member or members, or with other, non-member employees of the University, or with person or persons external to the University, shall inform their collaborators that, where there is not a contract governing the collaboration, the provisions of this Article shall apply.

- J. In the event a Chair/Director is going to be absent from campus for a period of one (1) month or longer, but not more than six (6) months, the Dean will appoint an Acting Chair/Director who will be provided an administrative stipend for the period of the Acting appointment, on a pro-rata basis as per. d. through f. above. In the event a Chair/Director is going to undertake a voluntary leave of absence under Articles 6.1 and 6.2 for a period of more than six (6) months, the Dean will initiate a search for a new Chair/Director and appoint an Acting Chair/Director as necessary.

Notwithstanding the above, the Dean may, after consultation with the members of the academic unit, to the extent possible, appoint an interim Chair/Director in cases where the Chair/Director's voluntary leave of absence is more than six (6) months. In cases where the Dean decides not to exercise this option and initiates a search for a new Chair/Director, such a decision is not grievable.

- K. Where the University determines that it is in the best interests of the University, faculty, students and staff that an appointment as Chair/Director be terminated prior to the expiry date this will occur upon the following basis:
 - 1. at any time with mutual written consent;
 - 2. by the employee upon providing the University with three (3) months written notice. Normally, the University would expect that the notice period would coincide with the completion of an academic term;
 - 3. by the University at any time.

In all cases, the member will be expected to resume the normal duties and obligations of a tenure-stream faculty member.

In cases where the University terminates the appointment of a Chair/Director, the Chair/Director may grieve this decision or, the University shall pay the Chair/Director the stipend for the remaining length of the appointment or twelve (12) months stipend, whichever is lesser.

26.3 APPOINTMENT OF A CHAIR

- A. Appointments to the position of Chair/Director are made by the Provost and Vice-President, Academic under the delegated authority of the President.
- B. At the time of a search for a Chair/Director, the Dean shall convene a Search Committee.
- C. Appointments to the position of Chair/Director shall be made on the advice of a search committee and a Dean.
- D. The committee structure and search process will reflect the values represented in the University's policies on Employment Equity, Harassment Prevention, and Access. The Committee shall consist of ten (10) persons as follows:
 - 1. Five tenured faculty members elected by and from the Academic Unit. In the case of an Academic Unit unable to provide enough faculty members, the Dean in consultation with the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs shall establish a search committee consistent with the principles of search and composition evident in this document. In this situation the most important principle is that a majority of the committee's voting members shall be elected faculty members. Therefore, if necessary, faculty members from other Academic Units may be elected to the search committee
 - 2. Two students elected by and from the students of the Academic Unit or currently taught by the Academic Unit in the case of a service Department/School if necessary, the chair of the search committee may appoint the students.
 - 3. Two appointees of the Dean, who must be tenured faculty members. In seeking qualified search committee members, the Dean shall take into account the University's equity, diversity and inclusion obligations, including those concerning equity-seeking groups.
 - 4. The Dean as Chair and non-voting member.
 - 5. Faculty members on the search committee will select/elect an Equity Advocate from among the faculty members on the committee. All members of this committee are required to adhere to the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI).
- E. The search committee for the Chair/Director stays in existence until the position is filled or the search is declared failed.

F. Procedures

1. Initiatives leading to the formation of a search committee shall be taken by the Dean commencing at least four (4) months before the end of a term of a Chair/Director, or as soon as is practicable should the position of Chair/Director become vacant.
 - a) The Dean is responsible for all nominations, election, and appointment procedures. Such procedures shall be consistent with standing practices at the University. Any unusual situations will be addressed in consultation with the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.
 - b) With the exception of students, all elected members of search committees must be tenured faculty members.
 - c) The incumbent shall not be eligible to sit on the search committee for the position to be filled.
 - d) Pre-tenure faculty and Limited Term Faculty may vote in electing tenured faculty to search committees.
 - e) Procedures for nomination and election of elected committee members will follow those normally used by the University's Senate including secret ballot. Nominations should be open for at least three days.
 - f) In cases where more than one election must be held to determine the membership of a search committee, all the elections shall be held simultaneously or as close to each other as practically possible. In any event, none of the election results shall be announced until all elections have been held.
 - g) In the event that practical problems in these procedures result in failure to elect sufficient faculty or student members, the Dean, after consultation with representative faculty and/or students, may initiate ad hoc procedures for striking a properly composed committee; a written record of actions shall be provided to all relevant faculty and students before the start of committee work.
 - h) A member who leaves a search committee before the first interview may be replaced. No replacement will be made after interviews have begun.
2. If the current Chair/Director is eligible for reappointment and wishes to be reappointed, they shall inform the Dean at least six months before the end of their term of appointment. In this case, the committee shall perform an assessment of the incumbent's performance, soliciting input from the incumbent and from members of the Department/School. After considering this review, the committee shall vote, according to the procedures in paragraph 26.3.F.6. below. In the event of a positive vote, the committee recommends to the Dean that the incumbent receive an additional term. In the event of a negative vote, the committee proceeds to search for a Chair/Director, according to the procedures outlined in this Article.

3. The names of the members of the Search Committee shall be announced to the members of the Academic Unit.
4. Staff members who report directly to a Chair/Director shall be given an opportunity to address the search committee at the stage of establishing criteria.
5. Once appointments to a search committee have been made and the committee has met once, no member of the committee may become a candidate.
6. The search committee shall first agree on its own procedures, including such matters as defining a quorum, such procedures to be consistent with applicable University policies and procedures.
7. The decision of the search committee shall require a double majority. The first is a simple majority of all voting members present and voting at a properly constituted meeting of the committee. The second is a majority of the following group: all elected members, plus appointed members who are members of the Department/School, voting at the same properly constituted meeting of the committee.
8. As a guiding principle the parties agree that it is usually in the interests of the community that the position of Chair/Director be filled by an internal search. "Internal" advertising of a vacancy means written notice throughout the University, and means eligibility for consideration of any candidate who is already a full-time career University employee, but precludes the eligibility of all other persons.
9. In exceptional circumstances, where an acceptable internal candidate cannot be found, the decision to advertise externally shall be made by the Provost and Vice-President, Academic after receiving the committee and Dean's recommendation. When approval is granted for an external search, the recruitment strategy of the search committee shall contain a diversity outreach component. When a position is advertised externally, both internal and external candidates are eligible to apply. The job advertisement will normally be placed at least in University Affairs and the CAUT Bulletin, and it must be posted on the University website. The search committee is encouraged to place the advertisement in other outlets that are appropriate to the discipline and to its diversity outreach and recruitment strategy and equity goals. The vacancy notice will stipulate that the position falls under the jurisdiction of the Faculty Association, a link to the Faculty Association Collective Agreement, a link to the Faculty Association website, and a link to University's Faculty Association Benefits Summary.

10. Advice, actions, and recommendations of the committee may be developed through informal consensus or through formal motions and voting, at the discretion of the committee.
11. Candidates on the short list meet with the Committee and make a presentation to which people associated with the Department/School (faculty, instructors, staff, undergraduate and graduate students) are invited. They may also meet with groups or individual faculty members in the Department/School and with the Dean.
12. The committee makes available the curricula vitae, and any other information it deems relevant, to the faculty members in the Department/School.
13. The committee invites input from people who have attended the public presentation and/or who have read the material in clause 11 above.
14. Members of the search committee are bound by confidentiality in their deliberations about particular candidates. They may have confidential discussions with Association or Administration representatives on any matter of concern. Otherwise, only the Chair/Director of the committee is authorized to communicate, as specified in this Article, on behalf of the committee.
15. All other committee procedures should be established and agreed to in advance.
16. Once applications have been received, members of search committees must declare all possible conflicts of interest and shall respond to such conflicts according to the provisions of Article 21 (Conflict of Interest).
17. The search committee shall recommend to the Dean one person for an appointment. The recommendation report will include a section prepared by the search committee Chair/Director and the Equity Advocate regarding how the hiring was consistent with the equity, diversity and inclusion objectives. If the Dean disagrees with the recommendation of the committee, and the disagreement cannot be resolved, no recommendation shall be made to the Provost and Vice-President, Academic. If the Dean agrees with the recommendation of the committee, they shall forward the recommendation to the Provost.

17. If the committee and the Dean are in agreement, the Provost may either accept the recommendation or return the matter to the committee, asking for a different recommendation. Should the Provost return the recommendation and the committee is unable to provide a further candidate, the Provost may either authorize an external search, or declare the search failed.
18. If there is no recommendation made to the Provost and Vice-President, Academic, the Provost may return the matter to the committee, authorize an external search, or declare the search failed.
19. If the search fails, a new search committee shall be struck.
20. In developing terms and conditions contained in the letter of appointment, in the case of an external applicant, the Dean shall consult with members of the search committee.

26.4 EVALUATION OF CHAIR/DIRECTOR PERFORMANCE

- A. The primary purpose of performance evaluation is to maintain and increase the effectiveness of academic leadership through providing feedback on performance and, where appropriate, recommendations for improvement. These evaluations only apply to the responsibilities of the Chair/Director's position.
- B. The evaluation of the performance of a Chair/Director is primarily the responsibility of the Dean; however, such evaluation must take into account the feedback of the faculty, staff, and students in respect of the Chair/Director's execution of their responsibilities.
- C. Nothing in these procedures is intended to preclude any informal communication or processes that can contribute constructively to the effectiveness of a Chair/Director.
- D. The Dean will request each faculty member of the Department/School to provide the Dean with a confidential written assessment of the Chair/Director's performance together with any suggestions for improvement. The Dean's letter to faculty members will include an outline of the responsibilities of the Chair/Director. In assessing the Chair/Director's performance, faculty members should be guided by the responsibilities in Article 26.1.

ARTICLE 26 DUTIES, CONDITIONS OF APPOINTMENT, AND APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRS/DIRECTORS

- E. The Dean will also invite the full-time staff and program students to make written submissions should they so desire.
- F. As part of the evaluation, the Dean will provide the Chair/Director with a summary of unattributed written submissions from faculty, staff and students. The Dean will meet with the Chair/Director to review the overall performance of the Chair/Director and to make any recommendations for improvement. This evaluation will be provided in written form and a copy placed in the Chair/Director's PCF. The Chair/Director will have three weeks to respond to the written evaluations and such responses, if any, will also be placed in the Chair/Director's PCF.
- G. The Dean will carry out the evaluation of a Chair/Director in October of the second year of an appointment, and in subsequent years only where there is a perceived need to provide further feedback and development of the Chair/Director.

ARTICLE 27 VACATIONS

- A. The period for vacation entitlement for faculty members shall be five weeks per year until the completion of twelve (12) years of service at which point the entitlement shall be increased to six (6) weeks per year. It is understood that the five and six week periods do not include those periods when the University is officially closed.
- B. Vacation plans will be discussed with the Chair/Director before a faculty member takes their vacation leave.
- C. The parties agree that vacation will normally be taken during the faculty member's non-teaching semester, normally Spring-Summer.
- D. The parties further agree that a faculty member may be expected to continue to participate as required in the normal activities of the Department/School during the non-teaching term, except during their vacation. Notwithstanding this, the parties agree that the non-teaching term shall normally be primarily a period for study, course preparation and SRC activity.
- E. Faculty members will not be required to teach in more than two semesters in any academic year.

APPENDIX A LONG-TERM DISABILITY PLAN (L.T.D.P.)

Participation in the Long-term Disability Plan shall be a condition of employment for each faculty member engaged on or after September 1, 1969. Long-term Disability Plan Insurance and/or coverage lapses automatically without notice and without payment in lieu of notice at the end of the month in which a member of the Association attains the age of 65.

- A. The University's sole obligation with respect to long term disability benefits is to pay the cost of the premiums for the L.T.D.P.
- B. During any period of total disability due to sickness or accident, the University will continue to pay the total Life Insurance premium for six months for the basic coverage of two times salary, and its share of the premium for the supplementary two times salary coverage; the faculty member will pay to the University their share of the premium for the supplementary coverage for the six month period. After six months, a waiver of premium clause continues this coverage.
- C. During any period of total disability due to sickness or accident, the University will continue to pay the premiums for medical and hospital insurance, the L.T.D.P. and the Dental plan.
- D. In the case of a faculty member of the L.T.D.P. who is absent from work because of a continuous total disability due to sickness or accident lasting more than 66 working days:
 1. their regular monthly salary will be paid by the University for a period spanning the first 66 working days of total disability; and
 2. thereafter, their salary shall cease and, provided the member has applied for and obtained long term disability benefits, the member shall, effective the 67th working day of total disability, receive from the insurer a monthly benefit of 80 percent of their regular monthly salary, to a maximum of $15,000, at the commencement of the total disability. In addition, there is provision for an annual cost of living adjustment for those continuing to receive benefits. These benefits will continue until recovery, death, retirement, or age 65, whichever comes first.
 3. while they are receiving monthly benefits from the outside insurer as per 2. above, the University will pay the faculty member's contribution to the Pension Plan in addition to the University's matching contribution.
 4. upon their return to work, the benefit provided in 2. above will cease and their regular salary from the University will be resumed.

5. should there be a recurrence of the same or causally related total disability as determined by the insurer, within six months of their return to work, their salary will cease and the insured benefits will resume with no waiting period. An unrelated total disability, or a recurrence after six months from the date of return to work after a previous disability, is not a recurrence of the same or causally related sickness or disability for the purposes of this section 5.
 6. a member recovering from a long term disability and capable of returning to work from the L.T.D.P. will have their salary adjusted by any across the board increases which occurred during the member's leave. It is agreed and understood that the member is not entitled to CDI or Merit Increments during the period of their leave.
- E. "Total disability" means substantially the following: the complete inability to perform any and every duty of their regular occupation during the first three years of disability; thereafter, they are considered disabled if unable to engage in any substantially gainful occupation for which they are qualified by reason of education, training or experience.

APPENDIX BRE-EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM (LIBRARIANS)

- B. A Librarian, who agrees to join the re-employment service, will be transferred from their normal department to this program on the lay off date, or, in the case of a grievance extending beyond the lay off date, within seven days after a decision to uphold lay off is rendered. In so doing, the Librarian will retain their regular Librarian status with the University.
- C. The time period for LRS program participation eligibility would be not less than one month and not more than twenty-four months. While participating in the program, the Librarian will be:
 1. entitled to a monthly salary equal to their monthly salary on the lay-off date, multiplied by the lesser of years of service as a Librarian or twelve, divided by the number of months of participation in the program. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, the monthly salary while in the program shall not exceed the individual's monthly salary at the date of lay off.
 2. entitled to receive benefit coverage as a regular Librarian except that salary related benefits shall be based on the salary as determined in 1. above.

Active participation may include formal education for a changed occupation; such formal education at the University would be tuition free.
 5. expected to carry out occasional work assignments for which the individual is competent.
 6. entitled to their right of recall (Article 24.D) and their right of grievance under Article 9 (Grievances).

- D. 1. A participant in the LRS may request separation from the service and the University at any time. In this case, the Librarian will be entitled to a separation allowance equal to one half of their monthly salary while on the LRS multiplied by the number of months remaining within the LRS program.
- 2. In the case of an abbreviated LRS program where the full entitlement is not utilized because of the limitation of C. 1. above, the Librarian shall receive a separation allowance equal to one half of the remainder of their entitlement under the LRS program.
- E. A laid-off Librarian who does not participate in the LRS program is entitled to receive a separation allowance on the lay off date, or, in the case of a grievance extending beyond the lay off date, within seven days after a decision to uphold lay off is rendered. Salary shall be as envisaged in Article 15.15.J. (Professional Counsellors).

 - F. The CRS program will be administered under the direction of a President's committee composed of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs or designate, one person appointed by the Association President, and one person appointed by the President.

In the alternative, the faculty member or dependent may elect to pay the tuition fees for the subsequent academic term.

APPENDIX F COURSE OPERATIONS SURVEY

The parties have agreed that student surveys will not be used to measure teaching effectiveness for tenure and promotion purposes.

The survey is to be used to obtain student opinion about the student educational experience. COS results are not to be used to obtain student opinion about teaching effectiveness. It will consist of only five (5) University-standard items that are consistent with the directives in the arbitration award dated 28 June 2018. Directives from this award can be found in historical MOU # 24 - Faculty Course Survey, which is attached solely for reference.

- A. The process shall be as follows:
 1. All pre-tenure faculty members, Limited Term Faculty, and tenured faculty teaching any courses shall participate in the online Course Operations Survey process described in paragraph F.
- B. The parties agree that they will both endorse and encourage student participation in the online Course Operations Survey process set out above.
- C. A summary of the results for each course section surveyed shall be prepared. The summary should show a frequency distribution for the responses to each of the questions. These summary will be available to the faculty member via a link on the COS online application. The results are to be provided to no one other than the individual faculty member.
- D. The distribution, posting, collection and processing of the data from the COS is the responsibility of the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.
- E. Any issues of interpretation and/or application, surrounding the Course Operations Survey shall be dealt with by the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs.
- F. Online COS process:
 1. There are five University Standard questions listed below.
 2. The online surveys will be available to students effective 1800h on the two (2) Fridays before the eleventh and twelfth weeks of the term (or twelfth and thirteenth, for courses with thirteen weeks). The week of the evaluation is to be noted on the course outline distributed and also announced at the beginning of the semester. Faculty members may alter the announced date, provided that they provide the students and the Chair/Director with no less than two (2) weeks notice of the new date on which the evaluation will be carried out, subject to the evaluation being carried out in the last two weeks of the semester before the start of the exam period. (Note that for courses taught in an alternate mode (e.g., intensive mode) these timelines will be modified.)

UNIVERSITY STANDARD QUESTIONS (five in total):

Students will be provided with access to the COS online survey which contains the following questions, and no others. They will be asked to read each statement carefully and record their response that most accurately matches their opinion.

The DHC of the receiving Department/School is responsible for collegially determining how faculty in the Department/School will be consulted. The Employer and the Faculty Association have shared values with respect to discussing and where warranted addressing discrimination in compensation of the Association's faculty and Librarians on the basis of gender, racialization, Indigeneity, and intersectional identities. To that end, the parties established an Intersectional Salary Analysis Joint Committee in October 2020 which is currently conducting an analysis of salary anomalies on the basis of gender and intersectional identities.

In order to ensure a comprehensive response to the work of the Intersectional Salary Analysis Joint Committee, to identify any additional salary anomalies that may exist on the basis of racialization and Indigeneity (regardless of gender), and to prevent the creation of discriminatory salary anomalies on the basis of gender, racialization, Indigeneity, and intersectional identities going forward, the parties agree to the following measures.

 - c. consider anomalies that may arise as a result of membership in other equity-seeking groups and make recommendations regarding areas of further analysis.
- ii. The Joint Committee on Equity in Salary will be given access to any data collected for the purposes of the work of the Intersectional Salary Analysis Committee.
- iii. If the Joint Committee on Equity in Salary determines that an independent consultant is required to assist in the salary analysis, the Administration agrees to support the reasonable cost of the consultant.
- iv. The Joint Committee on Equity in Salary will recommend measures to address the systemic roots of discrimination on a go-forward basis including with respect to any issue of anomalies that may arise as a result of starting salaries. Any dissenting views will also be included in the report. The Committee will submit its report to the Provost & Vice President, Academic and to the President of the Faculty Association by June 30, 2022, or as mutually agreed.

Memorandum of Understanding – 24 FACULTY COURSE SURVEY

This Memorandum 24 from the July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2023 collective agreement is appended to the current collective agreement for historic purposes.

The parties agree to maintain it in the event of an outstanding appeal arising from application of the terms of the Memorandum of Understanding. Any references in this Memorandum to “current” Collective Agreements refer to prior Collective Agreements.

Pursuant to an arbitration award dated June 28, 2018 regarding the University’s Faculty Course Survey found in Appendix F and Appendix F Addendum of the Faculty Association Collective Agreement, Arbitrator Kaplan directed that the University Administration and the Faculty Association do as follows:

- The collective agreement is to be amended to ensure that FCS results are not used to measure teaching effectiveness for promotion or tenure. A necessary corollary of this direction is that the numerical weighting system in the FCS be replaced with an alphabetical one. Question 15 should be struck.
- The parties are directed to meet and agree upon an appropriate, user-friendly, intelligible and easily accessible mode of presentation of FCS data in the form of a frequency distribution together with response rates.
- The parties are also directed to ensure that Deans and DECs, FTCs, FPCs and any others charged with evaluating faculty are educated – a process already set out in the collective agreement – in inherent and systemic biases in SETs so that FCS results can be considered in light of their actual and inherent limitations and with necessary context.
- The parties are directed to meet and try to agree upon governing guidelines to be incorporated into the collective agreement.
- The parties are further directed to establish a properly resourced joint committee with hard time lines to consider the current FCS and the possible revision/addition to the questions that are asked, the provision and use of comments, the process and methodology for FCS administration including paper, online, in class, scheduled time, and data tracking of response rates.
- Until and unless the parties agree on a substitution for the online system for non-online courses, it is to be discontinued for probationary faculty.

Note that this current version of the collective agreement, including Appendix F Addendum, contains amendments for the implementation of the first and last bullet above.

It should be noted that, as the time of signing this collective agreement, the parties have made progress on the remaining bullets mentioned immediately above and that this is a continuing exercise between the University administration and the Association.

Memorandum of Understanding – 25 PROMOTION FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Notwithstanding the limitations in Article 1.11, the parties agree that for the length of the current collective agreement, the following process shall apply for promotion of eligible Associate Members. The parties further agree to continue the Joint Committee created in the prior Collective Agreement that had as its mandate the consideration of the promotion process, including the creation of a University-wide faculty promotions committee to review and consider Associate Members for promotion to the rank of Professor. The Committee will also consider promotion processes for the Associate Dean of Libraries. The Joint Committee will make a recommendation to the President of the Faculty Association and to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, and will include any dissenting views.

Promotion for Associate Members

1. Associate Members of the Association are eligible to be considered for promotion. Accordingly, Associate Members who are eligible for promotion on the basis of Article 5.13 and Article 16.7, but who are excluded from the Association because of their academic administrative positions, shall be assessed with respect to promotion on the same basis as faculty members who are in the Association.
2. The timeline, process and criteria for promotion shall be as outlined in Article 5.13 and 16.7 of the Collective Agreement except for the following:
 - i. if the FPC/LPC or any members of the Committee wish to withdraw as they have concerns that they are unable to make a decision free of conflict of interest or concerns of reprisal, they will be replaced by the normal election procedures pursuant to the Collective Agreement;
 - ii. Article 5.3.F does not apply; and,
 - iii. the FPC/LPC's recommendation shall be provided to the Dean of the home Faculty/Dean of Libraries (save where they are the applicant) and to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs. The Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs shall issue the decision.

The Associate Member right to apply pursuant to this MOU will continue during the life of this Collective Agreement notwithstanding the status of the Joint Committee.

Memorandum of Understanding – 26 HIRING AND EVALUATION OF INDIGENOUS FACULTY MEMBERS AND LIBRARIANS (CURRENTLY UNDER REVIEW - SEE ADDENDUM)

The Association and the University agree on the importance of substantially increasing the number of Indigenous faculty and Librarians as well as the quality of the experience of the Indigenous faculty and Librarians, and increasing the level of Indigenous SRC as part of the University's response to the Calls to Action by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) of Canada. As recommended and agreed to by the Joint Committee on Indigenous Faculty this Memorandum of Understanding outlines modifications to the current Faculty Association Collective Agreement, which will assist in meeting this important objective. For clarity, any agreed to modifications to the current Faculty Association Collective Agreement provided for below will modify and/or supersede the current provisions, and be applicable to Indigenous faculty and Librarians members.

3. Definitions

The following definitions will be added to Article 1 of the Faculty Association Collective Agreement:

DESIGNATED INDIGENOUS FACULTY AND LIBRARIANS are defined as those who self-identify as Indigenous and can show lineage and/or acceptance by an Indigenous community. Their claims will be reviewed by the Indigenous Faculty Committee.

INDIGENOUS SCHOLARLY, RESEARCH AND CREATIVE ACTIVITY (SRC) activity is defined as research in any field or discipline that is conducted by, grounded in or engaged with First Nations, Inuit, Métis or other Indigenous nations, communities, societies or individuals, and their wisdom, cultures, experiences or knowledge systems, as expressed in their dynamic forms, past and present. Indigenous research can embrace the intellectual, physical, emotional and/or spiritual dimensions of knowledge in creative and interconnected relationships with people, places and the natural environment. (Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council. Definitions of Terms. Retrieved from: <https://www.sshrc-crsh.gc.ca/funding-financement/programmesprogrammes/definitions-eng.aspx#a0a>).

4. Establishment of the Faculty Association Indigenous Faculty Committee

The Faculty Association Indigenous Faculty Committee will be established. This is a self-governing committee composed of Indigenous Faculty Association members (Acting Assistant, pre-tenure faculty, tenured faculty LTF, Professional Counsellors, Librarians). This Committee will develop criteria they will use to confirm who they consider to be Indigenous faculty members.

5. Hiring of Designated Indigenous Faculty

The University will designate positions as Indigenous faculty positions and this does not preclude hiring Indigenous faculty for regular faculty positions. Faculties may decide that an Indigenous hire will be someone with a terminal degree or, alternatively, someone with Indigenous Knowledge i.e. a Traditional Knowledge Keeper or Indigenous Language Speaker.

Faculty (tenure-stream, LTF)

When a faculty position is designated as an ‘Indigenous hire’, there must be a tenure-stream Indigenous faculty member as a voting member on the DHC. If the DHC does not have an Indigenous faculty as an elected member, the Chair/Director of the Department/School will appoint an Indigenous faculty member from the Indigenous Faculty Committee. When the Indigenous faculty member on the DHC is the Chair/Director’s appointee, they will remain on the DHC for the hiring of the designated Indigenous position only. As such, the Chair/Director of the Department/School will appoint a separate/alternate appointee who will serve on the DHC to carry out committee work related to the non-Indigenous hires.

When self-identified Indigenous candidates apply for regular non-Indigenous faculty positions, the DHC shall consult with the Indigenous Faculty Committee, and the Indigenous Human Resources Lead. The Indigenous Human Resources Lead then confirms the validity of the Indigenous candidate.

Traditional Knowledge Keeper/Indigenous Language Speaker

Departments/Schools may determine a defined area of expertise whereby candidates will not hold a terminal degree. In these instances, the area of expertise may include traditional knowledge holders and/or language speakers deemed equivalent to a terminal degree, as verified by their Indigenous communities in consultation with the Indigenous Faculty Committee.

Application to Existing Indigenous Faculty

The evaluation model set out below will apply to both existing employees and to new employees on a “go forward” basis. If an existing Indigenous faculty member has a concern over a previous evaluation or assessment that predates the introduction of this evaluation model and believes that the previous result would be different had it been conducted through the lens of this MOU, they may indicate this and the reasons for the belief and this will be taken into account by any subsequent recommendation or decision maker relying upon that previous evaluation or assessment.

6. Appointment Letters for Indigenous Hires

In order for DEC's, FTC's, and FPC's to appropriately assess the SRC of Indigenous faculty members who carry out Indigenous SRC, the following language, or something similar, will be included in the appointment letter for Indigenous faculty:

It is acknowledged that your SRC activities may in part be demonstrate through Indigenous community-based/community-engaged SRC, Indigenous-specific creative projects, and the dissemination of your SRC through mechanisms that include writing for Indigenous audiences, Indigenous peer review processes and recognition of Indigenous protocols when presenting research findings (Indigenous feasts, newsletters, oral presentations, and reports to the Indigenous community) that recognize the ethics of and responsibilities to collaborate with Indigenous communities. Your service to external bodies may also include participation in or service to Indigenous organizations that might not be considered learned societies and/or professional associations.

7. Hiring Indigenous faculty as Acting Assistant Professors

Indigenous faculty who have not yet achieved their terminal degree, or equivalent, shall be hired as Acting Assistant Professors under Article 4.5 of the Collective Agreement. Recognizing that Indigenous candidates may bring with them knowledge and experiences that are different than conventional research, in order to provide Indigenous pre-tenure faculty with more time to complete their terminal degree, as recommended by the DHC, their appointment letter may provide them with a longer time period than what is provided in Article 4.5.F of the Collective Agreement to complete their terminal degree.

It is understood that generally and save for exceptional circumstances Indigenous hires that do not possess a Ph.D. or equivalent terminal degree by the time of their appointment can have up to five (5) years to achieve their doctorate, or equivalent terminal degree(s). The amount of time allowed to complete the terminal degree will be reasonable and based on the circumstances of the applicant and will not be unreasonably denied. All other provisions of Article 4.5 will apply to the Indigenous faculty member. The Dean and the VPFA must approve length of the term of the Acting Assistant Professor, as recommended by the DHC under Article 4.5.F of the Collective Agreement to complete their terminal degree.

Tuition Reimbursement

For those Indigenous faculty who have not yet achieved their terminal degree hired as Acting Assistant Professors the University will provide tuition reimbursement for up to five (5) years of their terminal degree program on a go forward basis. The number of years eligible for tuition reimbursement will be the same as the number of years provided for completion of the terminal degree. This reimbursement will be capped at an amount equal to or less than the University's tuition for an equivalent and comparable program.

8. Evaluation of Indigenous Faculty Members

In regards to evaluation for year-end assessments, intermediate reviews, tenure, and promotion, an Indigenous faculty member can elect to have a tenured Indigenous faculty member as a voting member on their DEC, FTC and FPC. If this election is made by the Indigenous faculty member then the Indigenous Faculty Committee will recommend to the Dean a tenured Indigenous faculty member to the relevant committee(s).

If Indigenous faculty choose not to have an Indigenous representative on their evaluation committees (DEC, FTC, FPC) it is presumed that their SRC will be assessed based on non-Indigenous models of SRC.

DEC

On the DEC the appointed Indigenous faculty member will take the place of the Chair/Director's appointee, as provided for in Article 5.A/B.1.C of the Collective Agreement.

FTC

An additional Indigenous tenured faculty member will be added to the FTC on the recommendation of the Indigenous Faculty Committee for the evaluation of the Indigenous faculty member.

FPC

An additional Indigenous tenured faculty member will be added to the FPC on the recommendation of the Indigenous Faculty Committee. The appointee on the FPC must hold the rank of Professor, at the University unless an Indigenous Professor is unavailable in which case an Indigenous Associate Professor may be selected. If the applicant for promotion elects not to have the Indigenous Faculty Committee appoint a member to the FPC, the applicant can still access Article 5.3.F and request an appointee, who may or may not be from the Faculty Association Indigenous Committee.

Role of Indigenous Appointee

The role of the Indigenous appointee is a full voting member on the committee. Their role includes providing assistance with the evaluation of the Indigenous aspect of the candidate's SRC. The tenured Indigenous appointee cannot be on the DEC and FTC for the same candidate.

Term of Indigenous Appointee

In order to respect the service obligations of Indigenous faculty members, the Indigenous appointee will not serve on the committees for the normal terms outlined in the Collective Agreement, they will remain on the relevant committee for the evaluation of the Indigenous faculty member(s) only.

External Referees

- i. Tenure: When a member is hired on the basis of Indigenous knowledge, Indigenous faculty members provide the names of five potential external referees during the tenure process, as outlined in Article 5.10, they shall clearly identify any Indigenous Scholars on their list. The Dean will take this into consideration when making their selection of external referees, and when possible will ensure that at least two of the external referees are Indigenous Scholars.
- ii. Promotion: Article 5.13.E.1 articulates that “In certain circumstances, where there is a limited availability of potential referees at the rank of Professor, it is understood that the applicant may provide up to two names of internationally recognized authorities in the applicant’s SRC field and will explain their inclusion and ability to judge the scholarly merits at a Professor level.”

Given the limited number of Indigenous Scholars that hold the rank of Professor, it is understood that Indigenous faculty members hired on the basis of Indigenous knowledge applying for promotion may access this exception outlined in Article 5.13.E.1, and may provide the names of Indigenous Scholars, two of whom may not hold the rank of Professor, but who are recognized authorities in the applicant’s SRC field and the applicant will explain their inclusion and ability to judge the scholarly merits at the Professor level. The applicant shall clearly identify any Indigenous Scholars on their list. The Dean will take this into consideration when making their selection of external referees, and when possible will ensure that at least two of the external referees are Indigenous Scholars.

For all of the above purposes, Indigenous Scholars will be confirmed as such by the Indigenous Faculty Committee.

9. Training Hiring and Evaluation Committees

All relevant committees (DHCs, DEC, FTCs, FPCs) will be trained on appropriate considerations for Indigenous candidates. Training for hiring and evaluation committees must include information regarding Indigenous knowledge, and Indigenous SRC. The training will be provided by the Indigenous Faculty Committee and the Indigenous HR Lead. The training will be offered jointly by the Faculty Association and the Administration.

This will include examination and recommendations for any specific measures to improve hiring and retention of Indigenous Professional Counsellors and specific measures that may be needed to support Indigenous students. This will include review of best practices at other post-secondary institutions.

The Joint Committee will be composed of an equal number of committee members appointed by the Faculty Association and by the Administration.

The Joint Committee will determine a process for consultation with relevant stakeholder groups. The Joint Committee will be supported by the Indigenous Lead, Human Resources.

The Joint Committee's recommendations will be reported to the Faculty Association and to the Administration.
